Shortstop Event at Local Golf Club Winds up in Rain

Ken Adams of Grand Forks Takes Jung in 3 of 5 Holes in Championship Flight

Rain and threatening weather put a hurry-up finish to the championship finals of the shortstop tournament played over the local course on Sunday. With Grand Forks' Ken Adams and the local club's Vic Jung paired in the finals, it was agreed, because of the imminent storm, to curtail the match to five holes. Adams, who plays the local course like his "home" club, closed out the match by winning the first three holes.

To gain the championship flight award, Adams defeated Dufort in the first round encounter, eliminated Dick Wilson in a second match, and defeated the local club's Stan Larson in the semi-finals. Jung beat Russell in a first round match, and took Grand Forks' Hornbacher out of the tourney in a second round match; and then defeated Crookston's Walt Johnson in a semi-final match.

The flight winners, runners-up, and consolation winners:

Seventh flight: winner, Ralph Beaudry; runner-up, Dick Davis.

Last Sunday's turbulent weather, which brought in soaking rains in the afternoon, halted the play in the Northern Minny loop, forcing the postponement of the three games on the schedule.

This week's schedule will be high-lighted by the game slated for the Plummer diamond and which will find the St. Hilaire Saints playing the Red Sox. The two teams are tied for the league lead with Erskine, and the game, with righthander Jesse DuChamp pitted against St. Hilaire's veteran Woody Almquist, should be a thriller.

Rain and threatening weather, which has been a plague since the season started and which has caused the postponement of fourteen league games, washed out the four Red River Valley games that were slated for Sunday. Several of the games were under way when the rains came on Sunday, and when the storms continued the umpires were forced to call the contests as postponements as none of the games had progressed through the five-inning mark.

TRF Liquor Store Is Near Top for Volume

Richfield's off-sale liquor store last year again set the financial pace for Minnesota municipally-owned liquor stores, compiling sales of $771,179 and net income of $130,422.

The combination on-and-off sale store at Thief River Falls was runner-up with sales of $482,734 and profits of $86,178.

R. A. Whitaker, supervisor of municipal reporting in the office of public examiner, reported to the state liquor control commissioner that total sales for the 360 municipalities operating liquor stores will be approximately $33,720,000 for 1952. Their net income will be about $5,940,000.

Final figures were not available yesterday, Whitaker said, because five of the stores had not reported 1952 totals as required by law.

Sales went up approximately $2,300,000 in the past year, he said, and net income was about $140,000 more than in 1951. Total stores increased by one.

The 355 reporting municipalities showed gross profits of 32.1 per cent and net income after operating expenses of 14.5 per cent.

Richfield's business increased by $87,000 over 1951 and its profits nearly $15,000. It also led other stores in 1951.

Other stores in the top 10 were Edina, off-sale, $464,827 (net of $74,233); Two Harbors, off, $439,116; Detroit Lakes, on and off, $436,346; Alexandria, on and off, $408,351; Grand Rapids, on and off, $404,755; Columbia Heights, on and off, $401,257 (net of $80,370); Anoka, on and off, (net of $383,681 (net of $72,171), and Bemidji, on and off, $361,839.

Bemidji was in fifth place a year ago. Figures reported for this year are for only 11 months, because the store changed its fiscal year accounting dates.

Knutson's resignation is effective June 15, although he will take over his position at Baudette on June 8. A life-long resident of Warren, he entered the employ of the county highway department in 1926. In 1948 he took state examinations to qualify as a registered land surveyor while in 1949, he was registered as a highway engineer.

Purebred Cattle to Be Sold at Auction June 4 in St. Paul Auditorium

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America, the largest breed association in the world, is holding its Annual Convention in St. Paul on June 2 and 3.

The program will officially open at 1 P. M. Monday, June 1 in the St. Paul Hotel. There will be trips to the University Farm Campus and the various members of the faculty in charge of the different phases of experimental breeding will give short but interesting lectures on their findings to date.

M. on Tuesday there will be a colorful parade of the purebred cattle consigned to the sale in the St. Paul municipal auditorium arena. The evening program will have an added attraction with the internationally famous Schmidt's Post 8 Drum and Bugle Corps performing before and after the cattle parade.

Wednesday, June 3, will be the business session and election of officers. Wednesday evening at 6 P. M. the annual banquet will be held. An outstanding speaker has been secured in Dr. J. O. Christianson, superintendent of the Minnesota school of agriculture.

Thursday morning, June 4, at 11 the national sale of purebred Holstein-Friesian cattle will begin. This year 86 outstanding animals have been consigned by 61 of the foremost breeders of Holstein cattle in the United States and Canada.

To Drill Oil Wells Near Argyle Soon

Three or More Test Holes Planned by Kansas Firm

At least three test holes will be sunk in the wildcatting quest for oil in the Argyle area during the summer, Robert Leighton of Great Band, Kans., told the Argyle Lions club. He is a representative of the Kimball Development company and is making a preliminary field survey of the 50,000 acres known as the Argyle Reef under lease.

He has made a pre-drilling survey and has arrived at very satisfactory conclusions, he reported. The presence of salt water wells in the area was a feature not to be discounted, stated Mr. Leighton.

He reported having conferred with a prominent Kansas City geologist which added incentive to the hopes that oil might be a definite possibility in the county.

The drilling rig will be brought in by truck and set up so that drilling operations would be under way by the last part of June. Location of the first drilling site is on the Emery Poitras farm about 2 miles north and six miles west of Argyle.

The area under lease is a parabolic area starting near Radium and crossing northwest gradually growing fatter near Argyle and tapering off again as it gets into Bloomer and Parker townships.

The company believes a subterranean cliff in the granite exists in this area in which the oil bearing geological strata are thick enough to hold oil in quantities large enough to be economically profitable to drill.

Precautions on Polio Ailment Are Issued to Schools

Precautions against polio are being placed in the hands of every school child in Minnesota, Dean M. Schweickhard, state commissioner of education, said today.

Distribution of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis leaflet, "Polio Message to Parents", has already begun thru elementary and secondary schools, according to Schweickhard.

The leaflet outlines precautionary measures which should be observed to best avoid the disease. It also deals with gamma globulin, blood fraction found effective in preventing paralytic polio.

Leaflets will be delivered to schools through county March of Dimes chapters. Additional precautionary material is available on request.

"We wish to urge that every parent read and observe these precautions in order to assure maximum protection against polio this summer," Schweickhard said.

FIRST WE NEED A PLAN

University of Minnesota officials say that unless ample funds are made available it will not be possible for them to provide for an anticipated enrollment of 30,000 students ten years from now. But what reason have these officials to believe that the people of Minnesota want a 30,000 student school in ten years and a 40,000 student school in 20 years?

There are many good citizens who believe the University is already too large in the number of students concentrated on one campus and too expensive according to our ability to pay. There are many friends of education who, while they recognize a public responsibility to provide free elementary and secondary schooling, do not go along with the idea that the state is obligated to provide free higher education for all its young people. There are many educators who believe the University should be made a professional and graduate school, leaving the preparatory field to private schools and junior colleges.

Minnesota has many fine colleges, supported mainly by religious organizations, that make outstanding contributions in the field of higher education and at no cost to the taxpayer. All possible encouragement should be given to them to continue and expand their services. They are an essential part of our educational system.

Probably what is needed before we authorize any further expansion is an overall study of this problem of higher education in the state; a study that will give us a realistic plan for development; a plan that will take into consideration all of the factors involved. It is clear that we cannot afford, and that we should not permit, the continued expansion of our University and our Teachers Colleges without direction.

Such a study should be made by a committee that is weighted with practical people who are dollar conscious as well as education minded. Such a study should take into consideration all of the educational facilities now available and their proper place in the future pattern. We do not need more studies to prove to us merely that higher education is desirable. What we need is a program for higher education that will be practical; a program that will give us most of the kind of education we need for the dollars we can afford to spend.

THERE MUST BE A BETTER WAY

More favorable prospects for a bumper crop are bringing with them the possibility of a revival of production controls on wheat and cotton next year. This may be necessary but somehow we can't feel good about it. In a world that has great masses of people in need of both food and clothing it doesn't seem like the right thing to do.

In a world that has so many needy people we should be able to dispose of our unwanted surpluses in such a way that those who lack necessities can be given assistance without breaking the markets. A few shiploads of the things we have no use for, delivered in the right places in this war-sick world and properly distributed, should be helpful in promoting peace.

It would not be nearly as expensive as dropping bombs. And if the growers could be assured a fair price for that share of their products that is needed by our own people they could afford to absorb the cost of that small market-breaking surplus that would be given away.

NOT MORE DEFICIT SPENDING

President Eisenhower and Congress are not happy with each others views on that all-important question of tax reduction or a balanced budget. Congress favors tax reduction. The President argues against going further into debt. There is much to be said in favor of both sides of this argument but most of us will agree that continued deficit spending is not only bad but dangerous. We all want tax reduction but if we get it at the expense of increased debt then tax reduction too is dangerous.

The desirable answer of course is reduced spending, making possible both tax reduction and a balanced budget. Whether it can be done is for Congress to determine. It is for Congress to say how many and for what purposes our tax dollars shall be spent. The President merely proposes a budget. It is the responsibility of Congress to consider his recommendations and to authorize that which it approves.

And so in this argument we'll go along with the President in his demand for a balanced budget. We will rely on the judgment of Congress as to how much needs to be spent. We must assume that the members of Congress are better informed than we as to what sums must be spent to maintain our security in the world and stability in our own country.

The President's statement that his difficulty in cutting expenses immediately is due in large part to commitments inherited by his administration is understandable. There are examples here at home of commitments made by the previous administration that we now expect to be fulfilled by the present administration.

But whatever the foreign or domestic situation calls for in spending, we should pay as we go. Our present needs should not be provided for by further borrowing, regardless of what sacrifices we may be called upon to make in the form of taxes.

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL

Another wildcat well will be drilled in the quest for oil in our corner of the state, this one in Marshall county west of Argyle. Geologists tell us there is no possibility of finding oil in Minnesota and they have plausible reasons for their conclusion. Their position has been strengthened by actual tests.

Geologists are not always right however. Many a profitable field has been discovered after numerous attempts have failed and contrary to the predictions of the professors. Who can say that somewhere beneath us there is not a single break in the bedrock formation the geologists tell us is too close to the surface for an oil concentration?

While the geologists are probably right, nevertheless it is good that some venturesome people are willing to actually punch a few holes in the earth to explore what is below us, providing specific information on the various formations they penetrate. For those who can afford to lose, it is an interesting long-shot gamble. For those of us who cannot afford to lose there are far greater possibilities of providing security for ourselves in the purchase of speedier printing presses or better producing cows.

THERE SHOULD BE A LIMIT

Minnesota's legislature, working under a constitutional 90 day limit, completed its work more than a month ago. The Wisconsin legislature, with no constitutional deadline to meet, is still in session with prospects for an adjournment in mid-June and a reconvening later in the year.

Our experience in trying to get a newspaper out at a certain hour each week convinces us that a deadline is desirable. It generally means a lot of hustle in the final hours and possibly more errors than there would be in a more liesurely procedure. But there is always another week—and that occasional serious error can always be corrected.

Minnesota's present 90 day limit is too short. While this limited time was probably more than ample a half century ago, the state's business has become so extensive and so involved that a longer period undoubtedly could be justified at this time. But there should be a limit.

Last week we mentioned a few improvements we thought much needed in the community. Suggestions offered to us since then convince us that our list barely scratched the surface. One suggestion made by Roy Oen deserves passing along—the crying need for better street lighting. As other progressive cities change to modern lighting certainly Thief River Falls, with its own power facilities, should not struggle along with the handicap of comparative darkness.

Political Roundup

By Arthur Naftalin

Farm policy and off-shore oil are the two domestic issues which have so far generated the most heat in this session of Congress, and the 1954 elections in Minnesota promise to find them as central points of partisan controversy.

Last week two Minnesota Congressmen—Republican H. Carl Anderson from the Seventh District and Democrat-Farmer-Laborite Fred Marshall from the Sixth—teamed up against the Republican-led economy bloc in an effort to prevent large reductions in apropriations for federal farm programs.

Andersen is chairman of the agriculture appropriations subcommittee, of which Marshall is also a member. Andersen's firm stand for "adequate funds" pitted him in direct conflict with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson and with what has become official Republican policy on farm subsidies.

Making Political Capital

Minnesota's entire Congressional delegation—including five Republicans and four DFL'ers—supported an amendment offered by Andersen that increased from 140 to 195 million dollars the authorization for the 1954 farm conservation program.

While state GOP'ers bolted their party on the question, they were still left in an awkward position, because Democrats were obviously making political capital out of the Republicans' efforts to reduce the size of farm programs.

Many midwestern Republicans warned their colleagues that they were "cutting their political throats" by voting reduction in agricultural authorizations but the economy bloc was holding firm.

Echoes of Off-Shore Oil

The fight over the off-shore oil question is now over so far as Congress is concerned, but the issue is certain to go to the people. Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, a leader against the Republican move to give the valuable lands to the states, has made it clear that Minnesota voters will hear a great deal about this issue in his campaign for re-election.

On this question Minnesotans lined up on a straight party basis, with the Republicans supporting state ownership and Democrats backing federal possession. This issue is certain, therefore, to be a major campaign issue in the state.

Some Interesting Polls

The Minnesota Poll reported two surveys last week bearing on the 1954 elections. In one of them Humphrey was shown leading Governor C. Elmer Anderson by only one percentage point, if both were candidates as of the date of the poll. Humphrey had 44 per cent to Anderson's 43 per cent, with 13 per cent undecided. In the same poll Humphrey was shown leading Congressman Walter H. Judd by 8 percentage points, 45 to 37, with 18 per cent undecided.

The poll-takers were careful to point out that it is much too early to make any predictions, that there are so many variables in the picture that this poll is at best simply an early test of a prospective trend.

The second poll showed that the DFL Party holds an advantage over the GOP insofar as rank-and-file support is concerned. The DFL was reported to have 41 per cent of the voters claiming it as their Party, with the GOP having 37 per cent, with the rest either independent or without any choice.

Conventions in 1954?

Democrats are toying with the idea of calling a national convention in 1954. This would be an innovation in national politics, because ordinarily there are national conventions only in the Presidential year.

The notion of such an off-year gathering gives many Democratic observers cause for concern. Those who oppose it regard such a move as almost certain to rip the party wide open, to the disadvantage of those who seek election or re-election in '54. Without the healing influence of a Presidential nomination, the rifts would almost certainly leave deep scars on the party.

Those who support the idea including Senator Humphrey, argue that the Party needs to clarify constantly its position and in its role as an opposition group that need is all the greater.

Party Activity Picks Up

Leaders in both the Republican and DFL Parties report that interest and activity among new and old members are unusually high for this season of politics, which is ordinarily one of quietude.

Last week the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs and the Young Republican League held conventions in the Twin Cities, and leaders acclaimed them as brimming with enthusiasm. Similar reports came from DFL leaders following completion of a School for Politics which they said drew unprecedented attendance.

All of this is somewhat confusing in the light of the low level of interest in local Minneapolis elections. One explanation for the apparent contradiction is the great difficulty that participants encounter in trying to follow through effectively in non-partisan elections. Voters do appear to be concerned about politics, but the parties are not always in a position to provide the kind of leadership that makes active participation meaningful. Both parties appear to be aware of this and that is why both of them are striking early in preparation for the 1954 elections.

New siding on your home and a new roof!

When a home simply won't hold paint . . . when the siding is seriously checked you have an economical way to bring it back to beauty at low cost. There are at least eight different new siding procedures. You can make your home appear wider, higher or lower by using the fine effects offered in various sidings from asbestos to hardboards. This material goes on fast . . . some are tinted and never need paint. Shingles, cedar shakes and many other ideas are here in my office to inspect. If a new roof is needed the shingles would be selected to harmonize. The result is not a remodeled house but the impression of a NEW HOME. An average home could enjoy this service for about .... $15.97 PER MONTH

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Thief River Falls, Minnesota

Pursuant to adjournment the City Council of the City of Thief River Falls, Minnesota, met in the Council Chambers on April 28th, 1953. All members were present.

Paul A. Lundgren and Frank A. Rinkel, representing the Northwestern Hospital Association appeared before the Board with respect to financial matters of the Association and its connection with the proposed building construction program now under way. They stated that the appropriation of the City towards such project, which had been authorized by the voters at an election held on November 6, 1951, wherein it was intended to issue certificates of indebtedness against the earnings of the Municipal Liquor Dispensary would not be of sufficient value in their financing program due to the fact that a substantial discount would have to be taken into consideration in the event of sale of the same. They also advised that their proceedings were required to be in proper order to insure a call for bids on the project before July 1, 1953. They requested, in view of these facts, that the Council call a Special Election for a vote on the question of issuance of the City's bonds in an amount not to exceed $200,000 to guarantee the appropriation of the City towards construction of such hospital in the event that there should be a deficiency in funds available from Liquor Dispensary earnings for that purpose.

Alderman Hunt introduced a motion that the City Attorney be authorized and directed to contact the firm of T. G. Evensen & Associates, Bond Counsels, Minneapolis, Minnesota, with respect to the necessary legal procedure for such special election. Alderman Bergland seconded the motion which was duly adopted.

Alderman Lund introduced a motion that the proper officers of the City be authorized and directed to execute on the part of the City, an agreement with T. G. Evensen & Associates, Minneapolis, for bond counsel services in connection with issuance of $125,000 of Water and Light Refunding Bonds. Alderman Fuller seconded the motion which was adopted by unanimous roll call vote.

There followed discussion in the matter of Ordinance regulating and licensing dealers in used automobiles and the President appointed Aldermen Bergland, Lund and Fuller to make a study of such Ordinance and make report thereon.

The meeting was then declared adjourned.

CARL E. GJERNES
President of the Council.

Attest: P. G. Pederson
City Clerk.

The City Clerk then presented the official returns of the election officials showing the vote on the following proposition:

SHALL THE CITY OF THIEF RIVER FALLS ISSUE ITS NEGOTIABLE COUPON BONDS IN THE AGGREGATE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT TO EXCEED $200,000 FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSTRUCTING, EQUIPPING AND MAINTENANCE OF A COMMUNITY HOSPITAL, PROVIDING THAT THE PRINCIPAL THEREOF SHALL BE PAYABLE FROM PROFITS OF THE LIQUOR DISPENSARY FUND AND IN THE EVENT OF ANY DEFICIENCY IN THE MONEYS AVAILABLE FOR SUCH PAYMENT SUCH DEFICIENCY SHALL BE PAID FROM THE PROCEEDS OF A TAX LEVIED FOR THAT PURPOSE?

Deaths, Injuries Ride Highways on Summer Holidays

Memorial Day Will Be Opening Day of Maximum Summer Travel in State

"How safe are you in holiday weekend traffic?" is a question many persons are asking as the first big holiday of the summer opens for traffic on Friday. Memorial Day is the traditional opening day for maximum travel in Minnesota, with thousands moving out to summer homes, spending a short holiday of fishing, and in other ways beginning the summer recreational season.

Added to this traffic movement are the many persons who locally travel to visit cemeteries in memory of veterans who have passed on, or to decorate the graves of their loved ones. Another large group moving on our highways at this time are those who are just out for a drive, enjoying Minnesota's scenery and beautiful countrysides.

Just how safe—or hazardous—it can be among the thousands of cars traveling Minnesota's highways over the holidays has been shown in a tabulation of reported Minnesota motor vehicle traffic accidents during holiday periods released by the Accident Records Section of the Minnesota Department of Highways. The holiday period was designated as that number of days when the greatest number of vehicles was moving over the highways, beginning the evening of the last normal workday, Friday this year, and ending with the early morning of the next workday—Monday.

In 1952, over a four-day Memorial Day period, there were 618 reported accidents in which 305 persons were injured and two persons killed in two fatal accidents. This is compared to the last four day period in 1949 when 242 persons were injured and six persons killed in only 385 reported accidents. In 1951 the tabulation considered only a two day period during which 1 person was killed and 79 injured in 151 reported accidents.

Confiscated Car Nets State $1,199

Original owner of the car was Earl Cooper, 55, apprehended by game wardens in Lowville Township. Cooper also paid a $250 fine on the shining charge.

Clothing Group to Stage Contest for Father of the Year

Minneapolis Mens Wear Association Invites Public to Write Letters

Father's Day event in Upper Midwest will be featured by a Father-of-the-Year contest sponsored by Men's and Boys' Wear association, a trade group of 300 wholesale salesmen in the men's clothing industry with headquarters in Minneapolis.

The public is being asked to write letters nominating the man of their choice. The writer may be a son, daughter or wife or any person not related. The letter should state why the father selected should receive the Father-of-the-Year honor of the Upper Midwest. However, he must be an American citizen residing in Minnesota, North or South Dakota, Northern Iowa or Western Wisconsin.

Letters can be written on any plain paper, one side only and must be restricted to 500 words or less. Such letters can be delivered to any men's clothing store or the men's wear section of any department or general store, in any town of the Upper Midwest. These letters will then be forwarded to Men's and Boys' Wear Association, 706 Merchandise Building, Minneapolis 3, Minn. The dead-line is June 12, 1953.

Judges to determine the winner will consist of the advisory committee of the association. The Father-of-the-Year winner will receive a $200 man's wardrobe at the store in his local town where he was registered. In addition, he will receive the Commercial Bulletin & Apparel Merchant Gold Cup. The writer of the letter will also receive $25 from the association.

Mr. Father-of-the-Year and his wife will be invited to Minneapolis on June 29 to receive his award and be honored at Upper Midwest Father-of-the-Year banquet at the Radisson Hotel to be attended by many trade and civic personalities.

In addition to the principal award, there will be distributed gifts to the 25 "runner-ups" of the contest consisting of men's apparel items and contributed by numerous manufacturers in the industry.

Myron W. Clark Endorses Dairy Promotion Plan

Commissioner of Agriculture, Myron Clark, said today in an interview that the dairy farmers of Minnesota and America are in their first month of making their annual investment for an advertising, merchandising, research and public information program on dairy foods through the American Dairy association.

He stated that all funds collected are invested in a year-round promotion program designed to build and strengthen the market for all dairy products. This will assure a stronger position not only for dairying but for all agriculture.

Commissioner Clark said: "Our dairy farmers realize the importance of a sound marketing structure for dairying and have tackled the problem of having a strong voice in marketing by the formation of the American Dairy Association, now in its 15th year. An investment in A.D.A. is an investment by the dairy farmer in his own future."

The main voice of this dairy farmers' association is advertising to the consuming public thru television, radio, nationally circulated magazines and the newspapers of the major population centers, as well as billboards and posters.

DOUBLE CHECKS BLASTING FUSES

WATCH IN HAND, powderman Valentin Dolhar times these slow-burning lengths of blasting fuse in an underground iron mine near Chisholm. The fuse is manufactured to burn at the rate of 1½ feet per minute, but the powderman takes no chances. He times a smoldering six-foot sample from each roll of fuse to ensure other miners' safety when a blast is being prepared. Special jobs like this are found all over Minnesota's iron ranges —year-round jobs which require many competent workers. The ore industry can create more year-round employment for more Minnesotans if it is encouraged to develop all iron ore resources. A fair deal for Minnesota's iron mining industry means a good deal for you.

QUESTIONS answered for VETERANS

THE VETERAN ASKS:

(This service is based on questions asked at Veterans Administration Offices in the State. Answers are supplied by VA.)

Q: I am a disabled World War II veteran, and I'm planning to take vocational training under Public Law 16. Will VA stop my disability compensation payments once I start training and receive subsistence allowance?

A: No. You will continue to receive your compensation payments while you're in training under Public Law 16.

Q: A friend of mine is the widow of a World War II veteran. She has a young daughter. She has been receiving death pension payments from the VA, but she has just been offered a job at a yearly salary above the $2,700 income ceiling allowed by law. I know that her payments must stop, but could VA pay a pension to her daughter?

A: Yes. Pension payments could be made to the daughter alone, as though there were no widow—provided the daughter meets eligibility requirements. The payments would be smaller than they were for mother and daughter together.

Q: I am attending school under the Korean GI Bill. Would I be entitled to a GI loan at the same time that I'm making use of my educational benefits?

A: Yes. It's possible to make use of both benefits concurrently if you can repay the GI loan.

Q: I'm thinking of converting my National Service Life Insurance term policy to a permanent plan of endowment insurance. At the end of the endowment period, how may I receive the money?

A: You may receive the proceeds either in a lump sum or in equal monthly installments over a period of time. Should you die before you've received all the monthly payments, any unpaid installments would go to your beneficiaries.

Coal mines in Kentucky employ 52,000 persons.

STOP KNOCKING YOURSELF OUT

WITH AN AUTOMOBILE THAT STEERS HARD

Fighting the wheel can make the best driver feel "punchy" after a long trip. Faulty wheel alignment can cause "wandering," "road weave" and hard steering in general. Hard steering isn't just hard on the driver—it's hard on the pocketbook too because it usually means excessive tire wear.

We've just installed a new John Bean VISUALINER—a real "champ" to fight your road battles. Checks wheel alignment on an automobile quick-as-a-flash and projects a picture on a screen so that you can see for yourself if your car needs attention. But don't take our word for it—drive in today and let the VISUALINER show you why your car is steering hard. SEEING IS BELIEVING and you can see for yourself whether your automobile is right for safe, economical high-speed driving.

Working Drawings on Hospital Addition Are in Their Final Stage

Preparation of the working drawings and specifications for the new Northwestern Hospital addition are now in the last week of preparation. S. L. Stolte, the architect, will meet with the board of trustees of the hospital next Monday for the purpose of the final approval of plans prior to placing them out for bidding on the part of contractors.

The plans as they are developing are being approved step by step by the Minnesota department of health so that all requirements, as determined by the United States Public Health Service, may be met within the narrow time limit set up. The bids by contractors should be in the hands of the local board of trustees by the last week in June.

The final drive for funds which will be announced this week and the contractor's bid which may be accepted by July 1st, will determine whether or not construction may actually begin about August 1, and will also determine whether or not more adequate funds will be available to furnish the new structure as completely as may be wished.

The hospital administrator and board of trustees are now preparing the lists of equipment which must be purchased in order that all parts of the new Northwestern Hospital may be furnished. The budget set up for this purpose is $62,000, which, along with a judicious use of present equipment, may be sufficient to furnish the new structure. It is admitted, however, by authorities from the Minnesota department of health that the budgeted $62,000 even with use of present available equipment, is a minimum sum that could be alloted for such purposes.

It is the hope of the board of trustees that the construction bid finally accepted may be low enough so that several thousand dollars may be added to the amount now budgeted for equipping purposes. It should be noted that the equipment referred to is not installed equipment, the cost of which is included in general contract, but refers rather to unattached items such as patient room furniture, laboratory apparatus, operating room tables, kitchen and dining utensils, office equipment and the like.

Asked the question as to when actual construction could begin on the KTRF Northwestern Hospital radio program Sunday, Mr. Stolte, the architect, stated that if a proper bid were received from a contractor ready to work, construction of the addition could begin in August or September. He suggested that the building could then be far enough along by the beginning of winter to be enclosed and heated by a portable heating unit so that work might continue throughout the winter. He stated that in his opinion it might take a year and a half to complete the new addition and the remodeling of the present Northwestern Hospital Plant B.

All indications point toward the full success of Thief River Falls meeting all deadlines required to qualify for the $419,716.35 allotment of federal aid under the Hill-Burton Act. The full cooperation of people in the area served by the Northwestern Hospital is, however, very greatly needed in order that the final, amount of some $97,000 in further pledges may be raised in a short time following June 8.

June Is Dairy Month

Chicago TV actress Adrienne Falcon celebrates the advent of June Dairy Month and raises a toast to the U. S. Dairy industry with a refreshing glass of milk during a "break" in recent rehearsals.

Dairy Month, June 1-30, a star in its own right on the American scene, is being staged for the 17th consecutive year by over 10 million Americans who gain livelihood from the production, processing and distribution of dairy foods such as ice cream, milk, butter, cheese, evaporated milk and dry milk. The dairy industry contributes annually at least 10 billion dollars to national commerce.

Adrienne keeps trim by following the newly developed scientific diet for weight reducing, or ideal weight maintenance, which includes liberal portions of dairy and other basic foods in the menus.

Patrol Camp to Open Next Sunday

School Patrol Members to Assemble at Brainerd

More than one hundred boys ranging from 10 to 15 years of age will descend on the Crow Wing County Fair Grounds, Brainerd, next Sunday, May 31, for the opening of the 16th annual school safety patrol camp.

The boys will be representatives of school safety patrols in towns and cities from all over Minnesota outside of the Twin Cities, including Thief River Falls. During many hours of all types of weather these boys have directed pedestrian traffic at school intersections, protecting the lives of thousands of youngsters before and after school and at lunch time.

Now they will be studying to become "officers;" the leaders of their home-town school and bus patrols during the next year.

The camp, known as "Legionville", will be conducted for six periods this year. There will be four weeks with boys in attendance and two weeks when young girl members of the patrol will attend. Opening May 31, the camp will close July 8, after over 600 campers will have each spent a week there.

Sponsors for the school safety patrol camp are the Minnesota department of the American Legion, the Minnesota highway department and the state departments of education and conservation.

Hay Field Day at N. W. School Set

Demonstrations to Be Given Tuesday, June 23

Latest methods of putting up both dry hay and grass silage will be demonstrated at the Minnesota Hay Field Day to be held at the Northwest School and Experiment Station at Crookston on Tuesday, June 23.

The program will be sponsored jointly by the University of Minnesota Institute of Agriculture, Northwest school and The Farmer Magazine of St. Paul. Arrangements are being made to accommodate several thousand visitors expected to witness the demonstrations.

Tentative plans call for morning and afternoon sessions devoted to demonstrations of haying and silage making methods in the field. All leading makes of hay making and grass and hay chopping machinery will be on display and demonstrated under field conditions on an experiment station field.

The noon program will feature a talk by Will M. Myers, head of the department of agronomy, University of Minnesota, and one of the world's top authorities on forage crops. In addition, a panel of forage crops experts from the University of Minnesota and North Dakota Agricultural College and from Red River Valley farms will discuss haying and silage problems.

Farmers and others throughout the Red River Valley area of Minnesota and North Dakota are invited to attend.

Governor Urges Outdoor Safety on Memorial Day

Cautions Citizens to Avoid Mishaps on Lakes as Well as Highways

Governor C. Elmer Anderson issued a special plea on outdoor safety today: "Memorial Day services are all too often marred by accidents both on highway and on our lakes and streams. Caution on the part of everyone will make this Memorial Day, not only a day properly observed, but a pleasant and memorable one, free from needless tragedy. Recreation is a privilege, respect the common sense rules that will make it a safe one."

Safety records compiled in the department of conservation indicate that for the last four years at least a dozen anglers and several swimmers drowned on Memorial Day, 95 per cent adults. Commenting Chester S. Wilson, commissioner, observed: "fishermen in haste to enjoy fishing for the first time are sometimes careless and foolhardy. Our safety studies prove that most water fatalities are needless and could have been prevented. Just one word of advice. If you need help on your vacation seek out our field men, particularly our game wardens. They are all Red Cross trained and ready to help in any emergency."

Department records list 10 deaths by drowning in less than five months of this year, six during the first three weeks of May. If the weather is warm this Memorial Day the first swimmers are in the water.

Let us show you how good baled hay can be

The best way to judge hay quality is to examine it in the barn this time of year. Here are some things you will notice about rolled bales:

1. The hay is bright and green — just like it was baled.
2. Leaves are sealed inside the bale — almost no leaf loss during handling.
3. Bales that have been rained on are still good — they shed the showers.
4. Rolled bales handle without waste — won't buckle, break or fall apart.
5. Rolled bales are easy to feed — rolled out, cut open or fed whole.

Let us show you why hay in rolled bales is winning blue ribbons for quality at leading shows. Your livestock needs the best.

YOUR MORAL SUPPORT AND YOUR DOLLARS ARE NEEDED . . .

In the Final Drive for Adequate Hospital Facilities for the Thief River Falls Area.

It will require United Effort to secure the Additional Pledges for New and Increased Contributions necessary to match the Federal Grant of $419,716.35.

It Is Now Or Never —

and we must not fail. When our hospital expansion program was in its formative stage there was little hope of securing a government grant. Now, due to fortunate circumstances, such a grant has been made available to us. It comes suddenly and with a time limit that requires speedy action. We must prove our ability to match the federal grant before July 1. That does not give us much time.

$100,000.00 Ain't Hay

Those of us who are charged with the responsibility of directing this program for expanded hospital facilities know that raising an additional hundred thousand dollars is not an easy task. But we know it is not an impossible objective. We know this because we have had most encouraging assurances from both urban and rural sources and we know that there is a will to make this drive for funds successful.

Kick-off Date Will Be Announced

Details of the plan for solicitation will be announced next week. In the meantime citizens of the community are asked to reconsider this hospital program in the light of these recent developments. We hope that many of you who have already pledged will be able to increase your contributions. And of course we urge those of you who have not been asked to give, or for some reason have not seen fit as yet to make a pledge, to give earnest consideration to this appeal for a million dollar development in the community's health service.

4th Annual N. W. Dairy Day in T. R. F. June 9th

Final Fund Drive for Local Hospital Opens on Monday, June 15th

Monday, June 15, was agreed upon as the opening day of the final drive for funds for the enlarged hospital program at a meeting of the trustees of the Northwestern Hospital association Monday evening. On the morning of this date the solicitation in Thief River Falls and the large area served by Northwestern Hospital will get under way.

Frank Tunberg, in charge of the fund campaign in Thief River Falls, reported good progress in setting up an organization that will cover the city. A large number of solicitors will swing into action that morning, he said, and it is hoped that both the business and residence sections will be covered thoroughly within a few days. Soliciting teams are being assigned to special groups and to areas.

Hilmer Lunke and Maynard Mehrkens, in charge of the solicitation in the rural area, are organizing their campaign on a township basis with teams devoting special attention to special groups. Several townships were quite thoroughly covered in, and with excellent results, the original drive, but in most instances a general re-solicitation will have to be made, they feel.

Both urban and rural teams reported that spot checks indicated an encouraging attitude toward the expansion program with a general feeling that the community cannot afford to pass up this opportunity to secure adequate hospital facilities. "With the money-raising problem nine-tenths licked we can't give up now with less than one-tenth of the problem left to solve," was the feeling of the trustees as they prepared for the final effort.

Robertson Lumber Co. Manager Has Taken Active Part in Local Affairs

Lucian Krause, for the past five and one-half years manager of the Robertson Lumber Co. yard in Thief River Falls, is being transferred effective June 15 to the managership of the companys' Grand Forks Yard.

During his residence here, Krause has taken an active part in community affairs. He is currently vice president of the Civic and Commerce association, president-elect of the Rotary club, secretary of the Pennington county polio chapter, member of the board of directors of the Community Chest and a trustee of St. Bernards church.

Mrs. Krause and their six children will join him in Grand Forks as soon as living quarters have been arranged for. His successor as manager of the local yard will be announced later.

Full-time Deputy Is Appointed by Sheriff Rambeck

Acting under authority given him by district court, Sheriff Arthur Rambeck has appointed a full-time deputy in the person of Elton Cummings, recently a member of the Thief River Falls police force. The appointment took effect Monday, June 1. The new arrangement, said Rambeck, will relieve him of some of his duties, he having been on call 24 hours of the day, and will also permit more effective patroling in the rural areas of the county.

The fire department was summoned last Thursday to the Tilda Sordahl home north of the fairgrounds, where a chimney fire developed, no damage resulting.

TV Antennae Now under Ordinance

$2 Fee Is Required for Permit and Inspection

The new ordinance governing installation of television antennae in Thief River Falls is now in effect following its publication in this issue of The Times, local citizens were reminded today by Harry Hendrickson, in charge of electric current distribution from the local power plant.

The ordinance specifies that persons wishing to install a TV antenna on their premises must first apply for a permit at a fee of $2, which includes inspection.

The permits can be obtained at the office of the superintendent of light and water in the basement of the Auditorium. Copies of the ordinance are available at that office or from the city clerk.

Marvin Benson arrived here Sunday from Minneapolis, called by the illness of his mother, Mrs. S. Benson.

Memorial Day Services Held in Auditorium

Grand Forks Minister Says Force Can't Solve Issues Facing the World

Due to the damp condition of the grounds, the annual Memorial Day exercises Saturday were transferred from the Elks park to the municipal Auditorium. Spectators lined the streets for the procession that preceded the program, but the audience in the Auditorium was disappointingly small.

Included in the parade line of march were the Legion municipal band, Marine Corps color guard, National Guard firing squad, Legionnaires and VFW members, Gold Star mothers and Boy Scouts.

Gordon H. Nohre, commander of the Legion post, presided over the exercises, which opened with a selection by the band, followed by the invocation by the Rev. J. O. Jacobsen and a vocal solo by Marilyn Johnson, accompanied on the piano by Ilene Pearson.

The Rev. Hubert N. Dukes, minister of the Federated church in Grand Forks, was the guest speaker. He said that Memorial Day should be an occasion for consecrated thinking in behalf of the generations to follow.

Force alone, he pointed out, can no longer settle the issues facing the world, adding that we can either keep on fighting because we don't know what else to do, or we can negotiate our differences.

The two big issues, he said, are the relationship between the different races and the question of food for hungry people.

Arthur A. Johnson recited the tribute to the unknown soldier, following which Mrs. Ernest La Coe of the VFW auxiliary and Mrs. John Lang of the Legion auxiliary deposited wreaths on banks of simulated crosses.

The band rendered the Star-spangled Banner, after which Duane Rafteseth sang "America the Beautiful" and Rev. Jacobsen gave the benediction. The program closed with the sounding of taps by Linda Wold, with the echo supplied by Gene Bratsch.

Pennington Board Sells $250,000 in Court House Bonds

Bonds Sold to Twin City Syndicate on Basis of Net Bid of 3.077 Per Cent

The Pennington county board, at its June session Tuesday, sold $250,000 in bonds of an authorized issue of $295,000 to finance construction of the new court house to a Twin City syndicate, whose offer was deemed best of three considered.

The sale was made to the First National banks of Minneapolis and St. Paul and Mannheimer-Egan Co. of St. Paul on the basis of a net interest rate of 3.077 per cent, the other bids ranging up to a net of 3.358 per cent. The bonds will be retired over a period of 15 years and will be callable after ten years.

A delegation was present at the meeting to request the appointment of a county nurse, and the board indicated that a committee would be named to make a study of the proposal.

Preliminary hearings were conducted in connection with projected improvement of County Ditch 33 between Silverton and North townships, and County Ditch 62 in River Falls township. The engineer was instructed to complete surveys of the projects.

$125,000 Issue of Refunding Bonds Is Sold

Northern State Bank and Associates Offer Best Bid at Letting by Council

The city council at an adjourned session May 26, after considering four bids, awarded the contract for the purchase of $125,000 in refunding bonds to the Northern State bank of Thief River Falls and its associates, the American National bank of St. Paul, and the Mannheimer-Egan Co., Inc., St. Paul, on the basis of a net interest rate of 2.89 per cent.

The other bids, entered by Twin City firms, ranged from a net rate of 2.97 to 3.017 per cent, according to T. G. Evenson, Minneapolis bond consultant, who was present for the opening.

The successful bid calls for interest coupons of 2.75 per cent on maturities from 1956 to 1962; 2.8 per cent on maturities in 1963-64; and three per cent on maturities in 1965-66.

The proceeds of the sale will be used to pay $50,000 light plant bonds maturing in 1953 and 1954; $50,000 waterworks bonds, also maturing in 1953 and 1954; and $25,000 water bonds falling due this year. The arrangement is designed to improve the city treasury's cash position.

Present at the meeting was a group of local citizens who registered objections to any change in the present status of the west side park. They said they were opposed to using the block either as a site for an armory or for the projected new court house, which latter proposal has been advanced by the county board. The council took no immediate action on the matter.

Included in the delegation were Mrs. G. L. Biddick, Mrs. Rudolph Sagmoen, Mrs. George Baken, Mrs. Gaston Ward, Mrs. Otto C. Parbst, Mrs. C. W. Mattson, Mrs. Victor Kvikstad, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Newbury and Kenneth Halldin.

157 Graduates of Lincoln High Get Diplomas

Mrs. G. Ward and Melvin Evenson, Entire Class of 1904, Honor Guests

The largest graduating class in the history of Lincoln high school, numbering 157, received diplomas at commencement exercises Friday evening in the commodious school gymnasium, which was filled to capacity for the occasion.

A unique feature of the exercises, marking the 50th graduating class, was the presence of Mrs. Gaston Ward and Melvin Evenson, who comprised the entire membership of the first class to receive diplomas in the spring of 1904. Supt. W. G. Claffy, who presided, introduced the two guests of honor to the assemblage.

F. E. Heinemann of the state department of education addressed the class, selecting for his topic, "Cooperation — the mark of a fine community." He pointed out that every individual in a group must make his contribution to the general welfare, and that they must merge their ideas for the common good in an application of true democracy.

Training in the cooperative processes, he said, is one of the chief objectives of the public school system. He closed by stating that it is up to the graduates to make of life what they want it to be, and he expressed a wish that they could imbue their elders with some of their spirit of hopefulness.

The program opened with the processional march played by the Lincoln school band, directed by Robert S. Harmon, followed by well-delivered talks by Mary Ann Botchert and Barbara Bjorkman, co-salutatorians.

The high school chorus, directed by Frank Summerside, ably rendered two selections, after which Yvonne Newland gave the thoughtful valedictory address.

Kalmer Ostby, principal, presented the class to Lloyd N. Bennes, president of the board of education, who conferred the diplomas, at the same time thanking students, faculty and maintenance personnel for their cooperation during the past year.

Supt. Claffy presented teacher certificates to eleven graduates of the local teacher training department, following which the exercises closed with the rendition by the band of the recessional march.

Stolte of Bettenburg, Townsend & Stolte, architects, met with the board of trustees of Northwestern Hospital Monday evening for the purpose of seeking approval of the final set of working plans and specifications of the new hospital addition. Prints of these plans are now in the hands of the Minnesota department of health for a final scanning.

It is expected that final approval of the plans by the department of health will be forthcoming within a very few days, after which the plans will immediately be made available to contractors in areas likely to produce bids. The opening of bids is expected to take place no later than the first week in July.

Members of the building committee are now making a thorough study of all specifications of the building, and written approval of the plans to the architects is momentarily expected.

Orvin Peterson Sec'y., Strandquist Treasurer

The congregation of the Assemblies of God Tabernacle held its annual meeting on Thursday evening, May 21, with an adjourned meeting being held Thursday, May 28, at which time officers were elected and other business transacted.

On January 8, 1953, action was taken by the congregation to amend the articles of incorporation and to adopt new by-laws. Orvin Peterson was elected secretary, and Ervin Strandquist was reelected as treasurer and will serve on the board of trustees by virtue of office. The same men serve as the board of deacons. Rev. Robert Abbott was reelected to a three year term as pastor. Miss Esther Olson will continue as missionary secretary.

The church reports financial growth with the last annual financial report showing an income of nearly $12,000. Several new members have been added to the membership.

Completion work on the church building will begin in a few days, with the application of the final coat of stucco and the installation of the lighting fixtures in the auditorium.

New Bride Should Correct Social Security Records

When A "Miss" becomes a "Mrs." she should have her name on her social security card corrected immediately, Walter D. Kistler, Manager of the Grand Forks Social Security Administration Field Office, warned today. A new card bearing the same number but showing the new name will be issued promptly upon application.

Until the "Miss" has received a new social security card showing her married name, Mr. Kistler stated, her employer should continue to report her wage credits in her maiden name. Not until he has seen the new card can the employer be sure that social security records have been amended to show the new name.

A representative of the office will be at the employment office, Thief River Falls, on June 9, at 10 a. m.

Included in the line of march will be the Roseau high school band, the Thief River Falls Legion municipal band and the Bridgeman Half-pint drum and bugle corps, formerly known as the Majorettes.

The parade will proceed from the high school east to Main av., north to Second st., east to Horace av., north to Third st. and west to Main av. Roland Erickson and Laurel Schuster are in charge of arrangements for the parade.

Another popular feature of Dairy Day will be the annual banquet to be served to approximately 300 persons in St. Bernards dining hall Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. Guests will include the calf exhibitors, princess contestants, creamery operators and county agents.

3 Games Played in RRV Loop Sunday

Nielsville Pitcher Holds Alvarado to Only One Hit

League Standings

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Thief River Falls	3	0	1.000
Crookston	1	0	1.000
Nielsville	2	2	.500
Red Lake Falls	1	1	.500
Viking	1	1	.500
Alvarado	1	2	.333
Warren-Argyle	0	1	.000
Shelly	0	1	.000

Results of Sunday's games:
T.R. Falls, 21, at Shelly, 5.
Alvarado, 1, at Nielsville, 2.
Warren-Argyle, 3, at R. L. Falls, 4.

Schedule for Sunday, June 7th
Thief River Falls at Crookston
Shelly at Nielsville
Red Lake Falls at Viking
Alvarado at Argyle-Warren

The week's standout performance in the Red River Valley League play on Sunday was the one-hit game pitched by Nielsville's Archie Mjelde against the Alvarado Farmers. Mjelde, a righthander, allowed but one single as his team edged out Alvarado, 2 to 1.

The league-leading Thieves, with a twenty-hit attack, rolled up a 21 to 5 victory over Shelly in a game played at Shelly; and the Red Lake Falls Lakers, in a ten-inning game, beated Argyle-Warren, 4 to 3, at Red Lake Falls. The Crookston Pirates vs. Viking was postponed because of wet grounds.

This week's league schedule will be highlighted by the Thieves vs. Crookston Pirates game at Crookston on Sunday afternoon. Kenny DuPuis' Crookston club, well supplied with veterans, has been installed as the league favorite, and the Thieves although they boast a record of three wins and no losses, will be the short-enders in Sunday's "crucial" tilt. Other league games billed for Sunday will find Shelly meeting Nielsville, Red Lake Falls playing at Viking, and Alvarado playing the Twins at Argyle.

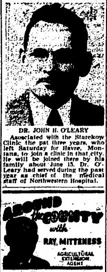
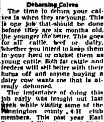
Goes to Montana



DR. JOHN H. O'LEARY

Associated with the Starekow Clinic the past three years, who left Saturday for Havre, Montana, to join a clinic in that city. He will be joined there by his family about June 15. Dr. O'Leary had served during the past year as chief of the medical staff of Northwestern Hospital.



Dehorning Calves

The time to dehorn your calves is when they are young. This is one job that should be done before they are six months old, the younger the better. This goes for all cattle, beef or dairy, whether you intend to keep them in your herd or market them as young cattle. Both fat cattle and feeders will sell better with their horns off and anyone buying a dairy cow wants one that is already dehorned.

The importance of doing this job early was brought out last week while visiting some of the Pennington county 4-H club members. This past year Earl Droppo of Wyanriver and Richard Burtness of Silverton have had to dehorn their Holstein heifers because they were hard to handle and were rough with the other cows in the herd. Just a few weeks ago Shirley Hanson of Mavie had her calf break a horn thereby hurting the calf's appearance and also making a dehorning job at some later date necessary. Luckily for her she had another calf to substitute.

This type of thing happens every year with 4-H club members and in commercial cow herds as well. Cows with horns are harder to handle and require more room in the barn. For 4-H members the horns mean more work in preparation for showing and do not add to the appearance of the calf.

There are several methods for dehorning young calves that work well and keep the loss of weight and injury to the animal at a minimum. Some of these are the different caustic pastes or sticks, the electric dehorner or a special spoon like tube which can be used before the horn sets. Waiting until the calf is older results in a set back and in some instances a loss of an animal. So to save money and make a disagreeable job much easier, do it while they are young.

Wireworms in Area

There have been a few reports of wireworms in the county this past week. This is a small reddish-brown or yellowish worm varying in size from about 3/8 to one inch long. They do the damage early in the spring by boring into sprouting kernels of grain or corn. They also tunnel through the underground roots and stems during cold damp weather such as we have been having. They may get to the seed before it germinates.

There are several methods of control that can be followed. First, wireworms are most abundant in grassy sod and meadow land or poorly drained soil. Avoid planting newly broken land to susceptible crops such as corn, potatoes, and small grain. Resistant crops are flax, millet, buckwheat, and barley is less susceptible to injury than other small grains. They can be controlled by chemicals but often it is very expensive. Chlordane can be used at 5 to 10 pounds actual material per acre mixed into the top 1 to 6 inches of soil by cultivating.

Seed treatment has also given satisfactory control in recent years and might be used this year for corn. Lindane or aldrin at the rate of 1 ounce of actual material per bushel are most promising. This can be applied by using 4 ounces of a 25 per cent wet-table powder per bushel of seed. A bulletin on Wireworms is available at your Extension Office.

Tractor Lights

To be driven on the highway after dark, a tractor should be equipped with lights required of any vehicle. This means two white headlights, and one or more red—not white—tail lights visible 500 feet. Equipment drawn behind a tractor should also be equiped with red tail lights or reflectors visible 500 feet. An added precaution is a clearance light or reflector on left side of equipment if it extends beyond the width of the tractor.

Ladies Guests at Rotary Meeting Tuesday, May 26th

John E. Howard of UND Entertains Group with Talk and Violin Numbers

Members of the Rotary club were hosts to their wives at their annual ladies' night program at the golf club Tuesday evening, May 26, 80 persons being present.

At this week's luncheon meeting Monday noon in the Elks club rooms, Clarence W. Pope, director of the area vocational school, introduced Wm. LaChapelle, E. W. Byrne and Mr. Peek, members of the maintenance staff of the St. Paul public schools, who were in this city to conduct a janitor-engineer school. The men briefly discussed the nature of their work.

Club members extended good wishes to Lucian Krause, Rotary president-elect, who is being transferred next week to Grand Forks by the Robertson Lumber company.

City Golf Leagues Start Play Today

National and American Loops Swing into Action

The city's golf leagues—the American and National—will open play on their 7-week schedule on Wednesday, June 3rd. The National league schedule will find the Ace Hardware playing Kelly's Hardware; the Larson Company meeting the Bredeson Cleaners, the Hardware Mutual engaging the S. & L. Company, and the Jung's Bakery playing the Union State Bank.

Over in the American League, the schedule will have the Bridgeman's squad playing Lieberman's Clothing, the Falls Theatre meeting the Lincoln Life, the First Federal Savings & Loan playing Poppler's Furniture, and KTRF playing the Tunberg Motor Company.

In a series of inter-league matches played last Wednesday, in which sixty two golfers participated, the American League, by a score of 147 to 141, edged out the National League.

Bob Harmon, the commissioner for the leagues, states that the various team captains will be responsible for having their respective lineups in readiness for play, and that they should make arrangements for the pairings and tee-off times for their scheduled matches.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor of the Times:

I was walking south on La Bree when a dog, who was with two young boys rushed out from the door way of the corner drug store and grabbed me by the leg, inflicting a very noticeable wound. Seeing an officer at the other end of the block, I walked up to him and reported the matter displaying the wound on my leg as evidence. The officer seemed only mildly interested, and did not check on the dog or its owner. Evidently Thief River Falls is not a safe place for pedestrians when our law enforcement officers will ignore an incident like this.

South St. Paul Livestock Market Report—Monday

Slaughter Cattle and Calves

While 12 leading centers had liberal marketings of cattle today supplies here were on the moderate side as compared with recent Mondays. Bulk of the offerings here consisted of slaughter steers and heifers, those classes comprising fully 70 percent of the receipts.

STEERS AND HEIFERS: Topping the market at $23.50 was a load of Prime 1,278 lb. Angus slaughter steers. There was a load of Choice to mostly Prime 1,157 lb. weights at $23.25, while loadlots of Choice to Prime 1,215, 1,275, 1,290 and 1,351 lb. steers made $23.00. There were no Prime yearlings or mixed yearlings offered, these being easily quotable to $23.00. A few loads of high-Choice light and mediumweight steers cashed at $22.50, while the liberal showing of Choice steers and yearlings moved within the narrow spread of $21.00-22.00. Some Choice to Prime 1,438 lb. steers brought $22.00. Many of the lightweight steers and yearlings at $21.00 carried a Good end and this was the reason some of the high-Good and Choice yearlings looked stronger. High-Choice heifers brought $22.00, bulk of the Choice heifers selling at $20.50-21.50. High-Choice heifers also brought $22.00, bulk of the Choice heifers selling at $20.50-21.50. Good steers and heifers moved at $19.00-20.00. Commercial grades $16.00-18.00. Utility $14.00-15.50 and Canner and Cutter steers and heifers $11.00-13.50.

COWS: The supply of cows was hardly large enough for demand. This was the main factor behind the additional price rise. Some high-Commercial young lightweight cows brought $15.00 and $15.50, bulk Utility and Commercial grades selling at $13.00-14.50. Canners and Cutters cleared generally at $10.00-12.00, but there were strongweight Cutters at $12.50 and some shelly Canners at $8.00-$9.00.

BULLS: Commercial and Good bulls cleared at $13.50-14.00, with Cutter and Utility grades at $14.00-15.00, a few bigweights $15.50. Canner bulls cashed at $12.00-13.50.

VEALERS AND CALVES — Most of the Good to Prime vealers sold at $20.00-25.00, Utility and Commercial grades going at $14.00-19.00. Culls brought $10.00-13.00.

Hi-Klearance PLOWS

Quality built for dependability and long-life, MM Hi-Klearance Plows are famous for light draft, correct scouring, and high lift. Here's the plow with a clearance of 23½-inches between the point of the share and the underside of the beam. (28½-inches on 16-inch plow) A high transporting lift of 10-inches provides easier turning at the ends of the field and prevents dragging of trash and stubble. MM's quick-action Uni-Matic power-lift provides a 7-inch lift without a lever change. A 10-inch lift is used to give extra high clearance when plowing unusually deep or in very soft ground. Since the plow can be set 12-inches deep, it will meet your most extreme needs.

UNI-MATIC POWER
MM's Uni-Matic hydraulic power-lift enables the operator to raise or lower implements automatically, permits pre-selecting or changing tool depth or height of cut. Uni-Matic Power reduces the fatigue, labor and drudgery of farming and is optional with MM's R, Z, U, and G Visionlined tractors. Thieves Take Young Shelly Team 21 to 5

Playing at Shelly on Sunday afternoon, the Thieves registered their third straight Red River Valley league victory when they pounded out a 21 to 5 win over the young and inexperienced Shelly club. On Sunday, June 7th, the Thieves will play the Crookston Pirates on Crookston's Highland Park diamond, and it's probable that the league lead will be at stake.

With big Don Perkins larruping the offerings of righthanders Dennis Nelson and Elroy Folstad for six hits, including a pair of slate, and with Joey Poole adding four hits in five tries, the Thieves exploded for a twenty-base-hit attack on Sunday. Larry Perkins had three hits, with two of the safeties being doubles, in five attempts; and Phil LeGault, boosting his embarrasing .125 average, hit safely on three of his four trips to the plate.

The Thieves, on three hits, an error, and a walk, scored four runs in the 1st inning; and then added three runs in the 2nd inning on a double by Don Perkins, walks to Poole and Larry Perkins, and a double by Swede Lund. In the 3rd frame, the locals racked up five runs; and in the 4th inning they added another four-run cluster, to take a 16 to 2 lead.

Shelly, on a pair of walks and a sing by Larry Doeden scored twice in the 1st inning; and took advantage of a streak of wildness by righthander Don Perkins in the 4th inning to score three runs. Righthander Duane Rafteseth took over the Thieves' pitching chore in the 5th inning, and the Prowler hurled shutout ball and gave up but three hits.

Red Lake Falls Whip Thieves in 10th 10 to 8

Visitors Nose out the Locals in Exhibition Game on Memorial Day

Red Lake Falls, completing their third double play of the game, snuffed out a Thieves rally in the 10th inning to win a 10 to 8 decision in an exhibition game played on the Fair Grounds diamond here on Memorial Day. After the Lakers, on a pair of hit batsman, a single by Howie Johnson, and a passed ball, had scored a pair of runs in the top of the 10th inning to break an 8-all deadlock, the Thieves, with one out, came back to load the bases on a single by Jack Hoppe and walks to Duane Rafteseth and Joey Poole. Gene Leslie, after poling out a long foul ball, bounced to pitcher Dick Williams, who pegged to Emard to force Hoppe at the plate, and Emard's throw to first base was in time to retire Leslie for the game-ending out.

The Thieves, behind the shutout pitching of lefty LeRoy Aasland, gained a 2 to 0 lead after three innings of play. In the 5th inning, the Lakers, on doubles by Emard, Williams, and Larry Turgeon, and singles by Jones and Hofius, scored four runs. The Lakers' 4 to 2 lead was short-lived for in the locals' half of the 5th inning, singles by Leslie, Larry Perkins, Swede Lund, and Phil LeGault, plus a walk, a wild pitch, and a long fly ball by Hoppe, the Thieves shoved five runs across the plate.

The Lakers picked up a pair of runs off Swede Lund in the 6th inning, and another off Sid Vraa in the 8th inning to tie the game at 7-all. Jack Hoppe, who played a standout game for the locals behind the plate, stroked a home run over the right field fence in the 8th inning, giving LeGault's club an 8 to 7 lead. A walk to Williams, a wild pitch, and Archie Sele's single gave Red Lake Falls their game-tieing score in 9th inning, forcing the contest into overtime.

In the 10th, after Emard had struck out, Jones was nicked by pitched ball. Hofius bounced to third base, but on the play to second base, Jones was safe when Poole failed to tough the bag. Johnston singled, scoring Jones; Williams was hit by pitched ball; a passed ball scored Hofius with the Lakers' tenth run; Ken Bombardier struck out; and Turgeon popped to first baseman Perkins for the third out.

Legion Post Will Give Wheel Chair

Ecklund-Holmstrom Post 117 of the American Legion this week will present a new wheel chair to the Thief River Falls fire department for the use of residents of this community. There are now 14 wheel-chairs available, and they are in use constantly, according to Roy Langevin, fire chief. The post received the wheel-chair through the Capper Publications, which recently conducted a subscription campaign in Pennington county under the auspices of the American Legion.

American Legion Juniors Open Play

Defeat Warren Juniors Here 10 to 3 Tuesday

The local American Legion junior baseball, under the direction of Ralph Skjod, opened their 1953 season on Tuesday afternoon when they defeated the Warren juniors, 10 to 3, on the Fair Grounds diamond in a game that was called after five innings because of darkness. Irv Wilson, the local Legion post's director of junior baseball, announced that the next game on the schedule will find the local club traveling to Grand Forks on Thursday afternoon for a game against the Grand Forks juniors, with game time slated for 5:45 p. m.

In Tuesday evening's game, the Warren team, taking advantage of a streak of wildness by the locals' Joey Poole, and with Russ Melgaard lining a double down the left field foul line, scored three runs in the 2nd inning, gaining a short-lived lead. The local club picked up a pair of runs in the bottom half of the 2nd, and in the 3rd inning, coach Skjod's team rolled five runs across the plate.

Sid Vraa, the locals' rangy right hander, took over the hurling duties in the 3rd inning, and pitched no-hit and no-run ball during the three innings that he worked. Coach Skjod's aggregation nudged the righthanded offering of Warren's Lundin for ten base hits, with Jack Poole and Bobby Helgeland getting doubles, and Jack Hope connecting for a triple.

Keeping Score with "Huck" Olson

To Settle a Wager

Wayne Gothe maintains, and he has supported his claim by a small wager that he clubbed the southpaw offering of Phil LeGault for four hits in five trips to the plate in a game played several years ago. Phil's memory is hazy about such things, and we've been forced to look into our record books and there we find that on a Sunday afternoon in July of 1950, on the Fair Grounds diamond, Gothe, in five attempts, slugged out four hits, including a double, and scored one run. That was the year that Gothe and Don Perkins were members of the St. Hilaire Saints, and that team came into the Fair Grounds that day with a string of seven straight Northern Minny league games, but had their streak broken when the locals won by a 11 to 9 score.

Social Item

Last week's Winnipeg Free Press carried a social item that reported that Patricia Hunter & Ronald Andre Castelane were married at Winnipeg on May 21st. The groom is well-known to Northwest Hockey league fans, having played here last winter as a member of the Thieves. Ron played here as Don Costello and later, when he was reinstated, as Ron Castelane.

Westrum Quits O. B.

A reading of the line scores of the West Central baseball games reveals that there is a Westrum catching for the Fergus Falls Red Sox. The report is that Lyle Westrum, who has been with the Birmingham and Binghamton teams this year, has jumped his Organized Baseball contract and joined the Fergus Falls club.

Lyle, before entering the service, was a catcher for the Fergus Falls team, and was a starring performer on the club that entered the state tournament at Detroit Lakes. We've always thought that Lyle was a topnotch Major League prospect, and we're sorry that he has decided to cast his lot with the semi-pro's.

Get the Landing Net

Al Wynnemer, whose unofficial occupation is to act as a hunting and fishing guide for Ames P. I. Pederson and Erv Pearson, has listed the largest walleyed pike in the Elks Club contest. Al's walleye, caught at Springsteel Island on Lake of the Woods, and by trolling, ten days ago, weighed an even twelve pounds when it was placed on the official scale at Fred's Mobil Station.

Al, knowing that he would be cross-examined by his skeptical friends, had the catch verified by game warden Ed Johnson. Vic Kvikstad, too, who was Al's fishing companion on the trip, is willing to swear to the authenticity of the catch and weight. A catch like that surely makes the sauger and sandpike fishermen mighty envious, doesn't it Bud and Cotton?

We've received reports from reputable and honorable fishermen, like Cliff Lunke, Ray Oen, Walt Larson, and Ole Froseth, that the walleyes have been hitting at Waskish. Limit catches, after a couple of hours of fishing, were the rule. George Busse and Orvis Olen claim that the Morris Point water on Lake of the Woods will produce fish, too, if the wind and weather is such that an angler can get on the lake. Last Saturday the fishermen were called off the lake at noon by threatening weather and a tornado warning.

North Area Winning vs. Tent Caterpillars

There was strong evidence last week that tent caterpillars are retreating from northern Minnesota and may not show up in force again for 12 or 15 years.

State entomologist T. L. Aamodt's report that the pesky insects are retreating under heavy bombardment of spray guns and attacks by other insects was cause for rejoicing in northern resort areas.

Aamondt said enemies of the caterpillar, incuding fly- and wasp-like insects, have been "multiplying rapidly." These "allies" are turning the trick, he said.

However, Aamodt urged the human species not to let up in their spray attacks.

"A full fledged spraying operation is on now," he said, "and we've got to hit hard in the next 10 days while the caterpillars are still small."

Aamodt said he belives the battle will be won by the time tourists reach northern Minnesota in force about the middle of June. He also believes the caterpillars have reached the peak of their "appearance cycle, which occurs about every 12 or 15 years.

" After this year, we should have a respite for about 12 years," he said.

Aamodt gives full credit to nature for the rout of the caterpillars, which, in recent years, have been stripping trees and plaguing tourists.

However, man also has put up a stiff fight. About 50 pilots and 100 ground units are spraying from 150,000 to 250,000 acres in 14 counties right now, he said.

Actually, about 26 million acres in the northern counties are infested to some degree, Aamodt said, but he recommends spraying only in 400-foot barriers around the most heavily-infested spots.

Dairy Farmers Building up Fund for Advertising

Land O'Lakes Manager Backs Promotion Plan of Dairy Industry Group

This is the time of year when dairy farmers demonstrate that they are willing to use there initiative to solve their own problems and reap their own rewards. It's the "set-aside" period for the American Dairy Association.

During these weeks a small amount is deducted from the farmer's cream checks for use in the advertising and promotion campaign of the national dairy group. The Minnesota unit that sponsors this campaign is the Minnesota Dairy Industry Committee.

Frank Stone, general manager of Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc., backed the "set-aside" by dairy farmers as an investment in the future. "The opportunity to participate in the program of the American Dairy Association should be a privilege that every dairy farmer enjoys," he said.

Stone echoed the sentiments of Secretary of Agriculture Benson who recently placed the responsibility for the future of the dairy industry in the hands of the individuals who make up the vast dairy fraternity. Benson stressed several fields in which the dairy industry should concentrate its potential energy. Heading the list was the field of advertising and sales.

Industrial concerns have found through experience that a properly advertised product will sell well. Many of these firms allocate as much as ten per cent of their gross income to advertising. The percentage spent in this field by the dairy industry is fractional.

The American Dairy Association has placed advertising copy which during the next few months will reach approximately 40,000,000 readers through various media.

Meanwhile, the Minnesota Dairy Industry Committee and cooperating groups pushed plans for the observance of June Dairy Month.

Dairy farmers as well as processors and consumers will be saluted during the month calling attention to the importance of dairying to the nation's health and economy.

DAIRY DAY AGAIN

Next Tuesday brings us the fourth annual Northwest Dairy Day, an event that not only has contributed much to a revival of interest in dairying in this corner of the state but has brought favorable comment and recognition of the broad agricultural possibilities of this area from other sections of the northwest. It is an event that has done much to stimulate interest in herd improvement and more efficient production methods.

Northwest Dairy Day is unusual in that it is an area rather than a community undertaking. Its success is due to the willingness and the ability of the leaders of the dairy industry in a dozen northwestern Minnesota counties to work together for a common interest. Out of this joint effort and area activity is coming a generation of future dairymen full of young ideas and whose influence is already being felt.

Northwest Dairy Day is paying off. It deserves continuing support for continuing success.

THE WAR WITH WORMS

Over in the forest area of the state there is a worm problem again. Apparently the forests are not threatened. Eating of the leaves will not kill the trees. There still will be pulpwood and cordwood and sawwood. The toothpick and match and paper industries are not in danger.

A big industry however is suffering because of the worm infestation. Because tourists and vacationers do not like worms the state's great resort industry suffers. And the fellow who makes a living operating a resort is an important citizen too and must be helped if possible in meeting unusual conditions. And so we fight the worms with poison.

In this gas warfare we win a battle here and there. The worms are destroyed in a few limited areas where they are most offensive. And these battles are important and probably worth what they cost.

Let us be thankful however that while we are winning a few battles, nature itself is winning the war for us. Nature brings on these infestations and plagues and pests. But Nature does a good job too of destroying those forces that become too destructive. With all of our scientific means of combatting bugs we would not be able to survive without the help that nature gives us.

WHICH WAY IS BEST?

Secretary of agriculture Ezra Benson is recommending changes in our foreign trade policy that he thinks will facilitate the export of farm commodities. In his recommendations he goes along with President Eisenhower's proposals for a one-year extension of the reciprocal trade act and a bipartisan commission to study all of the country's trade problems.

With surpluses of farm commodities increasing at an alarming rate it is obvious that we need a program that provides more than the purchase and storage of these surpluses. Ways must be found either to dispose of the excessive stockpiles or curb production.

Fortunately we face this problem with considerable experience. We know from our experience following World War I that we cannot afford to ignore the problem in the hope that it will solve itself. We know from that experience that agriculture must be assured a fair return if we are to maintain national stability.

And by the knowledge we have gained by the various experiments in production control and surplus management since 1929 we should now be able to avoid a repetition of past errors and do a comparatively better job in our future operations.

The important thing, and the encouraging thing from the standpoint of those of us who depend directly or indirectly upon the income of agriculture for our livelihood, is the fact that the problem is recognized as one of primary importance. The political, as well as the economic consequences of failure to take this problem seriously, is our best assurance that it will receive earnest consideration.

FAR AWAY BUT CLOSE TO US

Dedication exercises next week at the Garrison dam over in our neighboring state of North Dakota is many miles from Thief River Falls but it is an important event for our city nevertheless. The building of this dam and the harnessing of the great Missouri River is going to mean lower cost electricity for our city. The dam therefore is of special interest to us and its dedication should not go unnoticed.

And thinking in terms of this long-range type of development, now would be a good time to name a committee of citizens to study the future utility possibilities of our city. It is likely that before long natural gas will be made available to us as well as lower cost power. They are sufficiently certain to justify us in making a study of how other communities have adjusted themselves to the changes that would be involved.

Such a committee could be justified by the need for a study of our present municipal operations alone. Our city government has become a big business. Some think it has become too big and complicated a business for good management under our present form of government.

A committee of citizens studying operations similar to ours in other cities might bring in suggestions that would be of great value. The world about us is moving pretty fast. A few new ideas might be good for us.

We're going to be tremendously excited hereabouts next Tuesday with the problem of selecting and crowning a Dairy Princess, and maybe, in an understanding of our own enthusiasms over this annual event, we will be able to appreciate how important to the people of England was the crowning of their new Queen this week. The authority established in both instances is largely symbolic. The charming young lady who was crowned Queen of the British Empire in London on Tuesday of this week will have no more authority, actually, than the charming young miss who will be crowned Dairy Princess here next week. And so a toast to our royalty and to theirs. Long live our Princess. Long live their Queen.

"Let's get the show on the road." That's what we're waiting to hear Tuesday and when we hear it we will know that Lew Conlon is back in town giving direction to a hundred boys and girls and their calves competing with each other for Dairy Day honors. When the genial Lew Conlon with his firecracker voice quits coming back for this event several good men will be needed to take his place.

June is National Dairy Month and, while here, where dairy products are our most certain source of income and every month is dairy month, we can properly go along and place special emphasis on the importance of the dairy industry during June. Milk, butter, cheese, ice cream — these are the products of our local factories, giving employment to hundreds of our people and providing better markets for the raw materials produced on our farms. As we use more dairy products we build bigger payrolls for our factory workers and for our farmers. Let's be selfish about this.

We all want economy in government—providing of course that we are not adversely effected personally by the economy. It unfortunately is true that whenever a government service is curtailed or eliminated someone gets hurt, and, almost invariably, those who are hurt raise a great hue and cry about how essential is their service and how unfair the curtailment. It was refreshing therefore to read of the reactions of employees of the U. S. Weather Station at St. Paul when notified that the office would be closed and consolidated with the Minneapolis office. They agreed that there is no need for two stations so close together and that the consolidation is justified. They deserve citations for good citizenship.

Political Roundup

By Arthur Naftalin

This week's top political item is President Eisenhower's scheduled visit to Minnesota. He speaks next Wednesday (June 10) to the national convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which meets in Minneapolis.

Twin Cities residents will get a chance to see the President when he parades from the airport to the auditorium, but the talk itself will be restricted to Jaycee members.

While the President's visit is non-political, Minnesota Republicans will use the occasion to step up their plans for 1954, which are already well under way, having begun to take shape at the recent state meetings of the Young Republican League and the Minnesota Federation of Women's Republican Clubs.

Still Seek Humphrey Foe

State Republicans this week were still on the prowl for a candidate to oppose Senator Hubert Humphrey next year. Governor C. Elmer Anderson virtually removed himself as a possibility by declaring that "no other capitol dome has any appeal to me at the present time."

That "present time" phrase kept alive, by a slender thread, the hope of some of the Governor's supporters that he will eventually reconsider. Congressman Walter H. Judd earlier said he felt himself needed in Congress, but he has not closed the door on the Senatorial possibility.

If both Anderson and Judd both definitely bow out, the next most likely prospect for the senatorial buildup is State Representative P. Kenneth Peterson of Minneapolis, state chairman of the GOP. But delegates attending the recent conclave of state GOP leaders decided they would discourage further public talk about the '54 race until their plans were further developed.

'Let's Not Set Up Targets'

The Governor set the tone for the new strategy by declaring, "Let's not set up targets unnecessarily early—Personally, I can see no advantage in fighting the campaign of next year in the newspapers and on the air at this time."

Peterson presided at the sessions of GOP leaders, which heard reports that the party's biggest obstacle to a victory in 1954 is the current price decline in farm products. Minneapolis delegates reported they are working hard in support of Stephen Palmer in that city's mayoralty election next Monday.

The GOP meeting was held before the bursting of the two big national issues, the President's opposition to any tax cut in this session and the wide open break with Senator Taft over the continued support for the United Nations.

Minneapolis Votes Monday

Politicos will observe next Monday's election in Minneapolis with interest. City Republicans have anonunced they are out to win the mayoralty with Stephen Palmer as a means of bolstering their hopes for '54. Hoyer has organized labor's support, and, although the DFL has voted no official endorsement, he is generally regarded as the DFL candidate.

The Minneapolis elections, however, are not likely to provide much clue to any trend, regardless of how they go. Interest has been unusually low, and most of what there is attaches to the aldermanic fights as the city moves to set up its first 13-man council to replace the older 26-man body.

Mayor Hoyer has announced that, if re-elected, this will be his last term. This immediately set loose some speculation. In DFL quarters there was mention of the possibility that Congressman Roy W. Wier might be induced to leave his Congressional seat for a crack at the Mayor's position.

St. Paul Gets Meeting

St. Paul has been awarded the national convention of the Young Democratic clubs November 19, 20, and 21. Some 1,500 delegates are expected, and planners of the gathering are hoping to bring Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, out as the main speaker.

Lund Heads Midwest GOP

Duane Lund, a school teacher at Staples, Minn., is the new chairman of the Midwest Young Republican League, which represents 14 states. Lund just completed two terms as state YRL chairman and is now serving as state YRL national committeeman.

GOP Raps Lobbyist

One of the most interesting developments at the state YRL convention was a strong attack upon Ole F. Christenson, executive vice president of the Minnesota Employers Association. Mrs. Elizabeth Heffelfinger, GOP national committeewoman, accused Christensen of "undermining the Republican party." She urged YRL'ers to "go back home and tell your employers to find out what this man is doing." In the 1953 session of the legislature, Christensen appeared before legislative committees in opposition to measures supported by the state Republican party.

Highway Study Launched

The 28-member Minnesota highways interim committee launched its program last week with adoption of a five-part study, including classification of highways, priority evaluation of highway needs, inventory on highway progress, traffic-control, and how to finance additional roads. Senator A. O. Sletvold of Detroit Lakes was named chairman.

One of the largest social events of this season was pink and blue shower on one of Smiley's most popular matrons, Mrs. Arnold Hammer. The event was held Wednesday evening in the church parlors of the Bethany church. The capable hostesses were the Mmes. J. W. Lendobeja, Rufus Olson, Melvin Stenseth, and Donald Knutson. They had decorated the parlors in pink and blue streamers and for the centerpiece of the buffet table, they had arranged a life size baby doll in a baby bath tub. The hostesses also kept the guests continually occupied with a variety of contests and games. Mrs. Hammer spent considerable time in opening the large assortment of beautiful and useful gifts from the following guests, Mmes. It seems rather futile to find words to express the reaction of the profound shock this community received at the news of Jack McKecknie's death. It is quite unbelievable. SOME FOLKS WHO HAVE "STUCK TO IT"

Mrs. Jens Kjeldsen has been 35 years cashier of a Windom store, where she went to help out temporarily during the first world war.—Lots of stores in the state are older than the Wilkowske Hardware in Morristown, 59, but not too many have a customer who has been with them since their doors opened, which is Mrs. Kate Nordmeier's record with Wilkowe's.

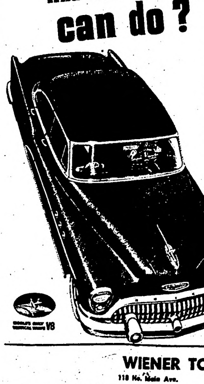
Do you know what this car can do?



It can set you atingle with thrill.

*It can move from zero to legal speed quicker and quieter than any Buick before it—and with the utter smoothness of a gull in glide—because this is a 1953 Buick with the spectacular getaway of Twin-Turbine Dynaflow.

It can loaf easily up a long steep hill—swoop instantly ahead when there's safe passing to be done—or whisper along at highway pace with throttle barely open—because this is the Buick powered with the world's most advanced V8 engine, with record-high compression of 8.5 to 1.

It can surround you with comfort, luxury, restful ease.

It can velvet a rough road with its even softer all-coil-spring cushioning—track true on curves with its solid torque-tube steadiness—handle like a flyrod with its Power Steering—gentle to a precise halt with its Power Brakes.†*

And it can seat you in the superb comfort of true spaciousness—because this big and brawny beauty is the Buick SUPER Riviera Sedan—roomiest six-passenger sedan made in America.

Above all, this car can give you supreme value—more room, comfort, power and thrill for the money than you can find elsewhere.

Why not come in and see it, drive it, compare it? We'll be happy to arrange matters.

Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Available at additional cost on Super and Roadmaster models only.*

Hunting and Fishing Licenses Hit Peak in Sales During '52

Sales of hunting and fishing licenses in Minnesota hit a new record high in 1952, according to official figures released today by the division of game and fish.

Total of resident and non-resident fishing licenses sold was 927,641, eclipsing the previous record of 902,617 set in 1949.

Small and big game hunting licenses sold in and out of the state in 1952 totalled 526,425, bettering the mark of 511,067 set in 1951.

Figuring two persons entitled to fish on each resident combination license sold, total licensed to fish in Minnesota last year was 1,276,903. Total population of Minnesota (1950 census) is 2,982,483 of which probably 750,000 are below the age of 16 and do not require a license to fish. This means that of the 2,232,483 persons 16 years of age or older in Minnesota, 55 per cent were licensed to fish in 1952.

Other new marks hung up in 1952 included: Resident combination fishing licenses, 349,262. Old record was 339,524 in 1951. Non-resident individual fishing licenses, 299,494. Old record was 279,206 in 1951. Non-resident small game, 1,800. Old record was 1,598 in 1950. Non-resident deer (bow and arrow), 78. Old record was 52 in 1951.

The record for resident individual fishing licenses, 350,861, was set in 1949 and is in no danger of being bettered, due to the steady shift since that time from individual to combination fishing licenses. Individual resident angling sales in 1952 totalled 278,885.

The record for resident big game (deer, firearms), 180,921 was set in 1951. Total for 1952 was 162,853.

Record for non-resident big game (deer, firearms), 1,095, was set in 1948. Total for 1952 was 961.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Little Headwork Saves a Lot of Footwork

"I don't ever aim to give up fishing," Pappy Hayes said one day—"but the older I get the less I like hiking over to Pike's Creek. Guess I'll have to bring the fish nearer to me."

So Pappy got his nephew to bulldoze down about three acres of bottom land. Then he dammed up the little stream there.

He wrote the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, in Washington, and got some "blue gills" and bass to stock it—free. Pappy's idea wound up giving him (and us) just about the best fishing pond in the county . . . right in his own back yard.

From where I sit, Pappy may be older than some of us but his mind is active—and open. He's ready to listen to anybody with an idea. That's why he and I can talk on any subject—sometimes about his preference for buttermilk and mine for beer. And though we disagree, we respect each other's opinion. That's neighborliness without a "catch" to it.

Let us show you how good baled hay can be

The best way to judge hay quality is to examine it in the barn this time of year. Here are some things you will notice about rolled bales:

1 The hay is bright and green — just like it was baled.
2 Leaves are sealed inside the bale — almost no leaf loss during handling.
3 Bales that have been rained on are still good — they shed the showers.
4 Rolled bales handle without waste — won't buckle, break or fall apart.
5 Rolled bales are easy to feed — rolled out, cut open or fed whole.

Let us show you why hay in rolled bales is winning blue ribbons for quality at leading shows. Your livestock needs the best.

Gamma Globulin for Polio Protection Is Available Only to Few

The Minnesota department of health announces that gamma globulin is now being used in Minnesota for polio protection but warns that there may be many disappointments ahead for persons who may have hoped that the problem of polio has been solved.

First of all, very few children will be able to get gamma globulin for polio, because the supply is so limited. Only 5,700 injections are available at present for Minnesota, where there are 823,000 children under 15 years of age who may develop polio.

Globulin will be available from the state health department only for certain contacts of individual reported cases of polio. Contacts who may get globulin are pregnant women, and children 15 years of age and under. Even this restricted group of contacts may exhaust the supply. Playmates and other casual contacts who do not actually live in the same house as the case of polio are not elibible for gamma globulin.

Secondly, while globulin gives some protection to the individual receiving the inoculation, the occurrence of cases throughout the community will probably not be affected at all. This is true because so many persons become infected with polio virus and spread the infection, without ever showing any signs of illness, and none of these people will receive gamma globulin.

Gamma globulin is not a treatment for the disease, once symptoms have developed. No benefit has been shown from its use in this way, say health department physicians. Even when properly used, as a preventive inoculation before the disease has had a chance to develop, gamma globulin does not by any means guarantee absolute protection. Cases of polio, with paralysis and even death, will occur from time to time among persons who have had a protective injection of gamma globulin shortly before. This happens because these persons actually were infected many days before they received the globulin, and the protective effect of the globulin came too late to change the course of the disease.

All gamma globulin in the country is now being distributed from one national agency, through state health departments. It cannot be purchased from laboratories or drug stores. Practicing physicians may obtain the material for eligible patients by getting in touch with the state health department.

Guide Issued for GI Home Buyers

Leo L Haley, contest representative for the Veterans Administration in Grand Forks, North Dakota, announces that a 32 page guide for veterans planning to buy or build homes with GI Loans, "To the Home-Buying Veteran.", is now available at all Veterans Administration offices.

Mr. Haley said the pamphlet is designed to help World War II and post-Korean veterans get started on the right foot under the GI home loan program.

The pamphlet discusses what a veteran should look for in selecting the neighborhood, the lot and the house itself.

It also covers the costs of home ownership, the contract of purchase, final settlement or closing the loan, and what to expect before and after moving into a new home.

ELC Meeting Set for Fergus Falls

North District Biennial Convention June 2 to 4

Fergus Falls is playing host to the Northern Minnesota district biennial convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Church June 2-4. Representatives from the district's 416 congregations convened Tuesday at First English Lutheran Church, for the three day meeting.

Presiding at the daily sessions will be Dr. A. E. Hanson, Moorhead, president of the Northern Minnesota district of the ELC.

Convention theme is "A Responsible Steward in a Responsible Church." Almost simultaneously, nine other ELC districts will be meeting in other areas of the nation and Canada.

Top convention speakers include Dr. Joseph Knutson, president of Concordia College, Moorhead; and Dr. Martin Anderson, Chicago, president of the Eastern District of the ELC.

Other convention speakers include Rev. Arthur Grimstad, McIntosh; Al Doerring, Pequot Lakes; A. J. Anderson, Ulen; Rev. G. O. Forde, Starbuck; Paul Nornes, Ada; Rev. Kermit Graves, Brainerd; and Robert Lund, Thief River Falls.

Also convening June 2 will be the Northern Minnesota district meeting of the Women's Missionary Federation.

Vacation Adds to Motoring Perils

Careful Driving Urged in Recreation Areas

With most schools closed for the summer vacation, another hazard to safe driving has been added to Minnesota motorists, according to Arthur V. Rohweder, president of the Minnesota Safety Council.

"Young children," he said "who have been under a certain amount of restraint and control during the school year are prone to be unmindful of the dangers which exist on streets adjacent to recreational areas. Motorists, therefore, must take it upon themselves to look out for children during their summer months of vacation and recreation."

A ball bouncing into a street, he said is almost always followed by a child in hot pursuit, often so engrossed with the game being played that no thought is given to the great danger which lurks on the street. Rohweder pointed out that accidents to children during the summer months can be reduced very materially if every motorist will drive at greatly reduced speeds when approaching or driving through recreational areas.

"Saving a child's life," he concluded, "is well worth losing a few seconds of driving time. In addition, the careful driving habits employed in these danger areas can well be projected so that every driver will be a safer driver wherever he may be driving."

Injured EGF Girl Taken Last Week to "U" Hospital

Eleven-year-old Mary Patricia Enright, East Grand Forks youngster who has been in a state of semi-coma for 445 days since she was struck by a truck, was admitted Thursday to University of Minnesota hospitals.

Doctors at the hospitals report she still is not able to talk but seems to "respond a little bit when someone speakes to her."

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Enright, brought her to the hospital for a complete neurological examination.

Thousands of dollars so far have been contributed from all over the world, including some from servicemen in Korea, to help pay for the expensive care the little girl has received.

Park Stickers Go on Sale This Week

Permits Available at County Auditor Office

The new "windshield sticker" permits required on all vehicles entering Minnesota's state parks are now available to the public it was announced today by state parks director U. W. Hella.

Mail orders for the attractive maroon and green stickers, which sell for $1.00, are now being received at the Division of State Parks, 6 State Office Building, St. Paul. Checks and money orders must be made payable to "Treasurer, State of Minnesota." The permits are also available at county auditor offices and at the state parks.

According to a law passed by the 1953 legislature, no motor vehicle may be permitted to enter any state park unless it has the permit affixed to its windshield. They entitle the car and occupants to entrance to any of the state parks during the year of issuance.

Receipts from sale of permits are appropriated solely for the operation and maintenance of the parks.

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD
Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Some Children Are Hard to Accept

Much has been written in recent years about the harm of forcing a child to follow in his parent's footsteps. We are beginning to realize that the physician's child may not choose to be a physician, no matter how skillful his father; we can agree that despite the mother's talent in lecturing and writing, the daughter may choose another path than journalism. But there are still other steps we need to take.

Perhaps Jimmy will be five in September. He did not walk until he was three, and says very few complete sentences even now. But all the youngsters of his age are starting kindergarten. Should we send Jimmy? If we do, how will we feel when the principal calls us in October, to say that Jimmy seems to be having trouble in getting along with other children, and that he doesn't seem to be ready for kindergarten learning? If our feeling is one of concern as to what other people will think or say, or if we are quick to see the teacher's evaluation as a prejudiced one, we are really not accepting the youngster as he is.

Parents who do have a retarded child can do a better job with him if they can accept the facts of his slowness. We need to forget our concern about what others will say and think in terms of the child we know and live with. If he is not ready for school at the age of five, sending him will increase his problems rather than solve them.

If we as parents are unable to decide what his needs are, we can help him most by seeking the aid of psychologists skilled in studying children and getting their help in planning for him. Study of his behavior, in the light of knowing his background of experience, his physical status, his opportunities for learning, will enable the psychologist to give real assistance to the parent in planning experiences suited to the child's present needs, as well as helping to provide the information needed to define the degree of the child's retardation and predict his future rate of development.

Special educational techniques are designed to help children use the abilities they have; they cannot provide those abilities which are lacking. Realistic thinking on the part of parents can help them set standards for the child which he can meet, and this kind of parent behavior will contribute to a happier adjustment for even the retarded child.

GOOD NEIGHBORS "RIDE AGAIN"

A silo accident hospitalized Roger Carson, Rochester. Neighbors came one day and plowed 55 acres, disced and dragged another 80, and put in 45 acres of oats.—Edward Keller, Tintah, was injured in a tractor accident. Thirty neighbors gathered with 27 tractors, and ten of the women folk to fix lunch, and in one day 600 acres were dragged and seeded.—The same Forest township good neighbors who harvested much of Frank Gernant's crop, near Faribault, after an illness, plowed, dragged and planted corn for Mike Moore, injured in a blasting accident.

MORE POWER for an ore boat

A NEW ELECTRIC POWER PANEL is being installed in this big ore boat in Duluth harbor by shipyard workers B. C. Hart and Ray Edgette. Today, these vessels are completely equipped with electronic devices, like radar and ship-to-shore telephone, for safety and speed. Speed is essential, for 1953 promises to be a record ore shipping year, with America's civilian and defense industries demanding more steel than ever before. Minnesota's iron mining industry is making every effort to meet the nation's needs—and still conserve our state's ore supply, through ever-increased processing of low-grade ores and taconite. These once-worthless ores hold the promise of a bright future for the iron ranges—for generations to come—if Minnesota's iron mining industry can produce them at a cost to compete with ores from other areas.

Hospital Fund Drive to Open Next Monday

The final drive for funds for the Northwestern Hospital expansion program will get under way in Thief River Falls Monday morning, June 15, following a kick-off breakfast scheduled for 8:00 o'clock, according to Frank Tunberg, chairman of the city drive. More than a hundred solicitors have already been organized to work in teams of two, he states. Many hands make the work light and it is hoped that with a large number of workers in the field the business section of the city will be covered thoroughly and in a short time.

Hilmer Lunke and Maynard Mehrkens, sparkplugging the drive in the rural areas, state that good progress is being made in preliminary organization work and that—in some townships soliciting is already in progress. They wanted an earlier start because of the greater difficulty involved in making calls and are hopeful that they will have their job completed within the time limit.

G. S. Bergland is working actively in the rural organization and has volunteered for several days of full time work as a special field representative. After two days of field work he reported that he is satisfied the rural area will make an excellent showing. "There is a general realization," he says, "that if we do not act now we may not be able to get a liberal federal grant later on."

The closing date for the drive has been set for June 25 when bids will be opened. While it may be necessary to do some follow-up work after that date, it is hoped that by that time the solicitation will be sufficiently advanced so that the success of the drive will be assured.

A special team to conduct the solicitation among Soo Line employees is being organized, the following members of the railroad brotherhoods having been invited by chairman Frank Tunberg to discuss the special problems of this group: A. M. Campbell, A. B. Stenberg, C. E. Hellquist, V. F. Robarge and Alfred M. Johnson. Members of the teams organized to conduct the solicitation in the business section of the city are published elsewhere in this issue.

Richard Burtness Wins the Grand Championship with Purebred Holstein

The finest collection of dairy animals ever assembled in this area, numbering 244 grade and purebred calves and heifers, was viewed by thousands of spectators Tuesday at the fourth annual Northwest Dairy Day in Thief River Falls, which was acclaimed as the best show yet staged.

Contributing largely to the success of the occasion was the ideal summer weather supplied for the occasion, the sun remaining out all day and the temperature not being uncomfortably warm.

Lew Conlon, manager of the state dairy industry committee, again presided at the microphone and kept the show moving along almost exactly on schedule. Handling the difficult task of judging the animals were Ralph Wayne, extension dairyman at the U. of M.; Ben Salmela of Grand Rapids and John Stewart of Waterloo, Iowa, field man for the Holstein-Friesian association.

Grand championship honors were shared by Robert Brinkman of Wannaska, whose Holstein heifer was adjudged the best grade animal in the show; and Richard Burtness, whose heifer of the same breed was selected as the outstanding purebred.

Reserve grade and breed championship went to a Guernsey entered by Hillard Koop, son of Albert Koop of Rocksbury township, while the Jersey shown by Joan Miller of Roseau won the reserve purebred championship. These animals also won their respective breed championships, as did Jerome Grafthen of Wannaska with his Milking Shorthorn, Wayne Haas of Ada with his Brown Swiss and Carol Dalengel of Kennedy with her Ayrshire.

Also conducted during the afternoon was the showmanship contest, designed to train the young exhibitors in showing their animals. Janice Michaelson of Euclid, who last year showed the grand champion purebred, won first place, while Robert Brinkman of Wannaska placed second and Nelda Mattson of Fertile, third.

Another feature of the show was the presentation by Stuart McLeod, president of the Northwest Dairy Improvement assn. of an outstanding purebred dairy calf to Russell Erickson of Badger, who had shown the grand champion grade animal at the 1952 show.

Lew Conlon then presented the new Dairy Princess, Betty Ranstrom of Warren, and her two attendants, Janice Sorenson of Hallock and Joanne Olson of Fosston.

At 4:30 the Dairy Day parade took form and proceeded thru the downtown streets, which were lined with spectators. Included in the line of march were the Dairy Princess and her attendants riding on a handsome float; Marlene Jensen, 1952 princess, riding on another float; the other princess contestants riding in cars; mounted members of the Thief River Falls Saddle club; the snappy Bridgeman Half-pint drum and bugle corps; Legion municipal band; and the Roseau high school band; with the 244 livestock entries and their proud owners bringing up the rear.

Trinity Church Scene of Wedding Ceremony Sunday

Lighted candelabra and baskets of lavendar and yellow gladioli graced the altar of Trinity Lutheran Church for the ceremony which at three o'clock Sunday afternoon united in marriage Miss Patricia L. Burtness, daughter of John Burtness, and Allen R. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Larson, both of rural Thief River Falls. The double ring service was performed by Rev. G. S. Thompson in the presence of 400 wedding guests. Ferns and yellow carnations marked each pew.

Following the organ prelude by Mrs. Arthur Hamilton, Miss Naomi Jensen sang "O Perfect Love," "Crown With Thy Benediction," and "I'll Walk Beside You." Walter Ekeren sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and, after the exchange of vows, "Love That Casts Out Fear."

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white taffeta with net overskirt and bolero jacket. A crown of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, white carnations, and lilies-of-the-valley. The traditional "something old, new, borrowed, and blue" was carried out in the bride's attire.

Marlos Hanson attended the bride as maid of honor and Dona Ballingrud was bridesmaid. They wore strapless taffeta gowns in yellow and lavandar, respectively, styled with net overskirt and net stole, and shoes to match.

Each wore a rhinestone necklace, gift from the bride, and carried a colonial bouquet of tea roses and yellow and lavendar carnations. Deanna Burtness and Sharon Anderson, sisters of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white floor length gowns and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and pink roses. Each wore a single strand of pearls, gifts from the bride.

Richard Burtness, brother of the bride, was best man, and the grooms' other attendant was Arthur Stenberg of this city. Howard Torstveit of Minneapolis and Lyle Liden of Thief River Falls served as ushers.

Mrs. Burtness was attired for the occasion in a teal blue suit with brown and white accessories, and the groom's mother wore a rayon print dress with white accessories. They wore identical corsages of white carnations and pink roses.

The wedding guests were entertained by the bride's parents [illegible] reception in the church parlors. The bridal party and the immediate families were seated at a table centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells and a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Lyle Liden presided as hostess and the waitresses were Bernice Knutson, Mrs. Ardell Liden, Loretta Bolstad, and Gladys Hanson. All wore ballerina length gowns. Mrs. Douglas Odegaard and Lois Boese arranged the gift table, Darlene Matzke had charge of the guest book, and Miss Darlene Udstrand poured. Mrs. Harold Matzke, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Larson are spending their honeymoon in the lake region near Detroit Lakes and will return this week to make their home on the groom's farm. The bride chose as her going away ensemble a powder blue knit dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations and roses. Mrs. Larson will continue her work as book keeper at the local Gamble store.

Badger Teacher Is Killed on His 30th Birthday June 3rd

Robert Glick Loses His Life When Car Overturns Near Therhuk on No. 89

Robert L. Glick, Badger school teacher, was killed on his 30th birthday last Wednesday, June 3, when the car in which he was riding alone went out of control and rolled over on Highway 89 near Tohrhuk at the northern edge of the Red Lake Indian reservation.

Tire marks indicated that his car had crossed a windrow of gravel on the highway and swerved back and forth, finally overturning and coming to rest upside down on the road.

Apparently the door of the car flew open and the driver was thrown out and crushed under the machine. His body was found near the rear of the car, being discovered by a passing motorist, and was brought to a Thief River Falls mortuary.

A veteran of World War II, Glick was born in Bemidji and attended high school and teachers college there. He had been attending special classes at the University of North Dakota, and was to have received his master's degree June 9.

He is survived by his wife and small daughter, Pamela.

Farmers Offered Water Systems at Material Savings

Minnkota Power Co-op Joins with Dealers in Making Special Offer

Nothing contributes more to good living and profitable production than running water on the farm. To assist farm families of this area in obtaining a pressure system, they are being offered modern farm water systems at a special saving until July 18, under a plan offered by Minnkota Power Cooperative, its 10 member rural electric cooperatives, in cooperation with leading dealers and distributors of electric appliances and plumbing.

This bonus plan is being offered for two months only, and will entitle the farmer to a savings of $50. to $125. on the purchase of a modern water system. The size of the saving is based on the plan offered by the dealer and distributor.

In addition to the bonus, the farmer will have his electric water heater wired without charge, during this bonus period until July 18.

Surveys have proven that a modern water system is a great money-saving advantage on every farm. With running water on the farm, milk production increases up to 20 percent, meat production rises to 20 percent, and egg productions increases to to 10 percent.

The bonus water system offer is limited to REA users in the area served by Minnkota Power Cooperative and its 10 member rural electric cooperatives.

ADA State Chief Thanks Dairymen for Cooperation

Lew Conlon, manager of the Minnesota Dairy Industry Committee stated today that he wishes to express his appreciation to the host of dairy plant operators who are cooperating with their patrons in making the advertising set-aside from the pay-checks issued for milk and cream delivered during May and June.

"Without dairy plant support and cooperation there could be no A.D.A." Mr. Conlon said, "and making the set-aside for each farmer means extra book work in the plant, by plant managers and operators, but they support this program with the knowledge that what is good for dairying benefits everybody."

Conlon explained that advertising and merchandising by the American Dairy Association is a positive program keyed to the positive selling of dairy products and that the program was built to strengthen the markets for all dairy foods. The program is backed by producers across the nation that represents 90% of the total United States milk production.

The Erskine Merchants rapped St. Hilaire's Woody Almquist for seven hits in the opening innings of their game against the Saints on Sunday in the Northern Minnesota league, and by that outburst they piled up enough runs to hold off manager Nicky Drees' club and win a 12 to 9 decision. The Erskine win, and the St. Hilaire loss, plus the win of Fosston over Plummer, shuffled the league standings considerably, resulting in a three-way tie for first place.

On Thursday night of this week, the St. Hilaire Saints and Ray Oliver's Gonvick team will play off a postponed game under the lights at Red Lake Falls.

Next Sunday's slate of games will find the Saints traveling to Clearbrook, Fosston playing at Erskine, and Gonvick meeting the Red Sox at Plummer.

Crookston Pirates Bow to Thieves 10-5

The Thieves moved into "driver's seat" in the Red River Valley league standings on Sunday when, in a game played on the Crookston diamond, they defeated Ken Dupuis' Pirates, 10 to 5. On Sunday, June 14th, the local club will make the short jaunt to Red Lake Falls for an important game against Larry Turgeon's Lakers. In an exhibition game between the Thieves and Lakers, played here on Memorial Day, the Lakers edged out the locals in a ten-inning tussle.

In Sunday's game, which was played under adverse weather conditions, found the confident Pirates gaining a 2 to 0 lead after three innings of play. In the 1st, lefty Phil LeGault, who opened on the mound for the Thieves and pitched until a sore arm forced his retirement in the 6th, walked the Pirates' lead off batter, Andy Carey. Bun Holtz sent a roller to LeGault, who made the play at second to force Carey. Holtz stole second, and then scored on Glen Gumila's single to center. In the 3rd inning, after two men had been retired, Gumila lined a single to right field, and then moved around the bases to score on a pair of wild pitches.

The Thieves broke the the ball game "wide open" in the top of the 4th frame with Wayne Gothe getting the locals' first hit, a single to center, to start the rally. Larry Perkins singled to right field, sending Gothe to third. Swede Lund singled to left field, scoring Gothe, and Perkins, who had stolen second, came in on the hit, being safe when catcher Bakke dropped Mercil's throw from left field. LeGault flied to center, and Jack Hoppe struck out. Gene Leslie was safe on Carely's wild throw; Gerry Stevens was hit by a pitched ball, loading the bases. A walk to Sid Vraa sent Lund in with the tie-breaking run. Joey Poole bounced to Holtz, and all hands were safe when the Pirates' second baseman failed to cover second, with Leslie scampering in with a run. And when Gumila made a high throw to the plate, Stevens sprinted in with the fifth tally.

In the 5th inning, the Thieves chased the Pirates' Dom Palmencino off the mound, with Perkins opening with a walk and Lund and LeGault getting singles. Toddy Johnson, another righthander, took over the Crookston hurling chores, and he was greeted by a beat-out bunt by Hoppe. Perkins scored on LeGault's single, and Lund came in with a tally when centerfielder Hegland muffed Leslie's fly ball. A wild pitch permitted LeGault to register the Thieves' eighth run.

Righthander Gene Leslie, who replaced LeGault, doled out but two hits during the four innings that he pitched, giving up a single to Hegland in the 7th, and a single to Gumila in the 9th. Hegland's single in the 7th, plus walks to Carey, Holtz, Gumila; forced in one run; and on Mercil's ground ball to first base, Carey came across the plate with the Pirates fourth tally. Holtz, also attempting to score on the plate, was caught in a rundown between third and home and tagged out by Leslie.

After the Thieves had garnered a pair of "insurance" runs in the top of the 9th, the Pirates, on an error and Gumila's third hit, scored their fifth run.

Lund and LeGault led the Thieves' nine-hit attack, with both of the port-side swingers getting three hits in five tries. On the defense, third baseman Gothe, handling nine chances, was a standout, covering the left side of the diamond like a wide-spreading tarpaulin.

Dist. 31 Baseball Tourney to Try It Once More Today

Twice-postponed Event Scheduled at Highland Park in Crookston

The twice postponed 31st district baseball tournament will attempt to play its first-round games this afternoon and tonight. The tourney, being played on Crookston's Highland Park diamond, was originally scheduled to open on Monday afternoon, but rains of Sunday night and early Monday forced postponement until Tuesday. And lack of drying weather on Tuesday necessitated the setting back of the tournament until today.

First round games this afternoon will find the Warren Ponies playing Oslo at 3:00 p.m., and Alvarado meeting Climax at 5:00 p.m. At 8:00 p.m. the Prowlers will begin the defense of their district title by meeting coach Lloyd Fesler's Crookston Pirates.

On Thursday afternoon, at 2:00 p.m., the winner of the Oslo vs. Warren game will meet the winner of the Thief River Falls vs. Crookston game. At 8:00 P. M., the district championship game will get under way with the winner of the Alvarado vs. Climax tilt meeting the winner of the Thursday afternoon semi-finals game.

Coach Ralph Skjod of the Prowlers stated that lefty LeRoy Aasland will be given the hurling assignment against the Pirates this evening. In the wind-up of the pre-tournament schedule the Prowlers, playing at Middle River on Friday, scored a 10 to 5 win over the Marshall county club. Aasland pitched for the locals and had a shutout until the final inning when the Middle River nine rolled up five runs.

Legion Juniors Score 2d Victory

Defeat Grand Forks Junior Club 17 to 13

The local Legion junior baseball team recorded their second triumph on Thursday afternoon when, in a game played at Grand Forks, coach Sjod's club upset a favored Grand Forks junior club, winning by a 17 to 13 score. It was only through a last-inning uprising, by scoring seven runs, that Grand Forks was able to keep the game-score within a respectable margin.

Righthander Sid Vraa pitched the seven innings for the locals, giving up nine hits, and only in the last inning, when he was troubled by wildness, did he lose control of the game. Dick Lystad and Jack Brustad shared the pitching chores for Grand Forks.

Irv Wilson, who is in charge of scheduling the junior games, stated that he has a number of tentative games, but that he cannot make any commitments on dates until the high school team completes its season. The Legion junior baseball team is composed of players who are also members of the Prowlers baseball squad.

The line score:

				R.	H.	E.
T. R. Falls	133	130	2	17	10	4
Grand Forks	300	300	7	13	9	8

Batteries: Vraa and Hoppe, Lystad, Brustad, and King.

Prowler Tennis Team Is Entered in State Tourney

The Prowlers' tennis doubles team of Jerry Veves and Ray Thoreson, winners of the 31st district championship, participated in the state high school tennis tournament at Minneapolis last week and reached the semi-finals. The Prowler duo won their first round encounter, but in the semi-finals, against Rochester, the locals, by a 6-4 and 6-2 score, were eliminated. The Rochester doubles team won the state high school title.

A Correction

Bob DuChamp, chairman of the committee on credentials, informs us that Al Wynnemer's registered and certified 12-pound walleyed pike isn't eligible for competition in the Elks Club fishing contest. The reason for this ineligibility is that Al has not been in attendance at the club meetings.

We have an idea, though, that the brothers are glad that Al missed a meeting or two, and that they were able to disqualify his fish. Fact is, Al is considered to be in the same category as a commercial fisherman by the members of the committee.

And what's this we hear about a trophy-sized northern pike being lost at Morris Point on Saturday because of the inept manner in which a landing net was maneuvered. Juel J. K. Stadum had a small walleyed hooked on his spinner when a big northern made a grab for the walleye. J. K. brought the pike to boat-side, using fine fishing skill, but due to some weird landing-net technique by his fishing partner, the fish was lost.

The week's finest walleyed catch was the 11 pounds-plus fish that Mrs. Len Brekke caught at Long Point on Lake of the Woods on Sunday. Mrs. Brekke made the catch while still-fishing a short distance west of the islands, and she didn't get much encouragement from her husband, who made a couple of futile sweeps with the landing net before they were able to boat the fish. It was a costly catch for Mrs. Brekke, for Len maintains that he is going to leave his wife at home on future fishing trips until he catches a larger walleyed pike. After all, Len is supposed to be the fisherman in the Brekke family.

The Match of the Week

The city's golf leagues, the American and the National, will move into their second week of play this evening, and from all indications another banner turnout will be on the course. Last Wednesday evening, sixty-two golfers turned in scores, and, according to the league standings, the handicap arrangement worked out pretty well.

The spread in the National League, between the top place Bredeson Cleaners and the last place Larson Company is only three points, and in the American League the spread between the KTRF squad and Tunberg Motor is eight points. The boys are howling plenty about the handicaps that have been set up by Bob Harmon, but the commissioner has the statistics to support his ratings.

We imagine that the match of the week will be the duel between Russ Embury and Justus Larson. Embury is the number three golfer on the Hardware Mutual team, and Justus is the number three golfer on the Larson Company squad. Justus, taking the match in all seriousness and feeling that a defeat would be a smudge on the Larson escutcheon, has been out on the course practicing. Russ, too, has been practicing, but his practice has been limited to conversation. One thing is sure, that match will provide much noise.

Miscellany

We must mention that Phil LeGault and Gene Leslie, following the Thieves baseball game at Shelly a couple of weeks ago, challenged several of the Shelly horseshoe enthusiasts to a doubles match. Phil's first two tosses resulted in ringers, and with that start the two Thieves went on to win a pair of matches. Phil and Gene, feeling very confident, have issued challenges to any would-be doubles team to engage in a match or two. As it is, Phil and Gene claim that they are the city's and Pennington and Marshall county's horseshoe doubles champions — A welcome visitor in town last week was George Beverley, Sr. of Winnipeg. Mr. Beverley was the father of the late George Beverley, Jr., who was a Canadian World War II casualty, and who is remembered as being one of the city's all-time hockey greats when he performed with the Thieves in the early 1940's.—Vic Jung received telephone confirmation from Pat Sawyer on Saturday night, stating that the ever-welcome Twin City delegation would be in attendance at the Invitational Golf tournament here on June 27th and 28th. Sawyer said that he and Cass Lane would arrive here on Friday, June 26th, and that Gordy Peterson, Dick Evenson, Fred Storms, Ray Swanberg, and the others would be here the following day.

The Thieves, with their pitchers, Phil LeGault and Gene Leslie, limiting the Pirate batters to four hits, defeated Crookston, 10 to 5, in an important league game played at Crookston on Sunday afternoon. By their win, which was the locals' fourth in a row, manager LeGault's club moved into sole possession of the league lead. On Sunday, the Thieves will be given another test when they meet the well-rated Red Lake Falls Lakers at Red Lake Falls. The game, which will be a feature of Red Lake Falls' Barbecue Day, is expected to attract a capacity crowd.

Rain and stormy weather, which has been a league bugaboo all year, interfered with only one game on Sunday's four-game schedule, forcing the postponement of the Shelly vs. Nielsville contest. In the other two games on the bill, the Alvarado Farmers dropped a 6 to 4 decision to the Argyle-Warren Twins at Argyle; and the Red Lake Falls Lakers defeated Viking, 11 to 6, at Viking.

In a make-up game played at Crookston on Saturday night, the Pirates edged out the Lakers, 4 to 3, in a thriller, with the Pirates scoring a pair of runs on a Laker error in the final frame.

This week's slate, in addition to the Thieves vs. Lakers game at Red Lake Falls on Sunday, will find Argyle-Warren playing at Nielsville, Viking at Alvarado, and Shelly at Crookston. On Wednesday night, June 10th, the Shelly team is billed to play off a postponed game at Red Lake Falls, playing under the lights at the Lakers Riverside Park.

Factions at Red Lake Indian Agency Clash at 'U' M. Institute

A struggle between rival factions of the Red Lake Indian band flared Friday at opening sessions of a two-day institute on Minnesota Indian affairs at the University of Minnesota, the Minneapolis Star reported.

The Red Lake reservation is unique among Indian preserves in the state. It is closed to white men. Its administration and commerce are in the hands of the Indians themselves. The land is held not by individuals but by the bands in common.

The government recognizes a tribal council as the governing body of the reservation. The flareup at the university sessions was between leaders of this council and the leader of a group calling itself the Redlake Tribal Business association.

The association wants to open the reservation to summer resorts and other businesses which would be Indian-owned.

Peter Graves, 81, who organized the tribal council in 1918 and has for most of his life fought to preserve the Red Lake reservation as "a paradise for our people," charged that the business association was "a bunch of city Indians trying to tell us how to run things."

Peter Sitting, president of the business group and a carpenter who lives part of the year in Minneapolis, charged that Graves and other members of the tribal council "don't want to see the Indians at Red Lake making any money."

"They work for the government civil service, have good houses with all the conveniences, paid for by tribal funds, and the rest of the Indians on the reservation are starving," Sitting said.

Joseph Graves, son of the old tribal leader and now acting chairman of the council, defended the way of life on the closed reservation. He said that opening the land to resorts or allotting lands to individual Indians would destroy a way of life "in which we have all the privileges of any other citizen and more besides."

He referred to the Indians' right to hunt and fish the year 'round.

The two Graves were the only ones among the Indians present at the institute who defended the federal law which prohibits sale of liquor to Indians.

Representatives of the Consolidated Chippewa Agency at Cass Lake, which governs the six other Chippewa reservations in the state; Ed Wilson, president of the Minnesota Chippewa tribe, and others, attacked the law as abrogating their rights as full citizens.

A law now before congress, sponsored by Sen. Thye, (R., Minn.) and backed by the federal Indian bureau, would repeal the law.

However, the Red Lake reservation is specifically exempted from provisions of the law, at the insistence, the institute was told, of Peter Graves and the tribal council.

Grassland Day to Be Staged at Roseau June 16

Grassland Day will be held at the Ray Fichter's farm southeast of Roseau Tuesday, June 16 starting at ten o'clock in the morning till three in the afternoon.

Grass silage will be the main event on the program, and many types of machines will do their stuff. The silage will be chopped both from the windrow and standing, and will be moved by truck and wagon to a stack and temporary silo.

The field is about thirty acres of alfalfa, and ought to be in just the right stage for hay making on the 16th. If weather permits some of it will be baled also.

Mr. M. L. Armour, extension agronomist from the University of Minnesota, will be in charge. Dr. Meyers will be the featured speaker at noon and will talk on hay crops, particularly the value and benefits of grass silage.

The Roseau High School band will play at noon. Lunch will be served on the grounds, and plenty of parking space will be available.

The Ray Fichter farm is 3 miles east, 4 miles south and 1 mile east of Roseau.

The manager gave his report on the affairs of the company covering the general operations as well as reporting on the rehabilitation projects. Following are excerpts from his report.

"According to figures released by the auditor the company's net earnings for 1952 jumped to $36,492.97 as against $13,174.24 for the previous year."

"A contract for the rebuilding of 400 miles of rural pole line in the Fertile, Beltrami, St. Hilaire and Gully Exchanges has been let to the Zontelli Construction Company of Ironton, Minnesota and work will begin on this at once. Contract for 20 automatic switchboards has been let to the Stromberg-Carlson Company, the first board being scheduled for operation at Beltrami, September 5th and others following at intervals of about one month in Gully, St. Hilaire, and Fertile."

"Contracts are soon to be let for new building to house the new switching equipment. While outside contractors are putting up buildings and rural pole line, the company's own crews will be laying underground cable and installing new telephones.

The company has, according to the manager's report, built approximately 245 miles of new line durnig the last years as well as making extensive cable additions at Fosston and Bagley.

WE MUST NOT FAIL

Monday is kick-off day for the final drive for funds for the expansion of Northwestern Hospital. An additional hundred thousand dollars are needed to enable the hospital authorities to go ahead with their program, taking advantage of a federal grant of more than $400,000.00.

Raising an additional hundred thousand is not going to be easy. Money is not yet that plentiful around here. But considerable work has already been done exploring the possibilities and drive officials are confident the goal can be reached. While a large sum was pledged in the initial solicitation made two years ago, many who did not respond at that time have indicated that they are now prepared to sign on the dotted line.

The need for more adequate hospital facilities is recognized in both rural and urban areas of the community. Where systematic solicitations have been made in the townships the results have been most encouraging. In one 24 section township alone more than $8,700 has already been pledged and of that amount more than $1,500 has been paid. The need now is for thorough coverage and that is difficult in the limited time available. Drive officials are appealing for the cooperation of men and women willing to give a few hours of their time soliciting.

Contributors are asked to keep in mind that donations may be spread over a period of three and even up to five years. Small annual contributions total up to large sums when multiplied by three or five.

And let's keep in mind that while most of the time when we are begging for financial assistance we are seeking to help someone else, this time we are asking for something for ourselves—better health facilities. This time we are providing for our own needs. This time we can be very selfish in our generosity.

AN IMPRESSIVE ARGUMENT

Russia has replaced its military administration in the Soviet zone of Germany with a civilian High Commissioner, and observers think this possibly is a first step leading to a Russian offer to unify Germany. It may be fairly assumed that whatever offers may follow, the long range objectives will be to strengthen Russia's position in Europe. That is always a reasonable conclusion.

But we cannot and should not write off the possibility that Russia's friendly gestures may be based on a decision that world conquest by force is now much too risky a business. Last week our country flew 45 stratojets, the world's fastest atomic bombers, to England. The non-stop flight of 3,120 miles was completed in about six hours. This is better than 500 miles an hour and that is fast travelling for bombers.

A few hundred ships of this kind, with their proven long range striking power, stationed at strategic points thruout Europe, should be a powerful argument in the cause of peace. It is generally conceded that Russia has sufficient ground strength to march through Europe but the Russians know too that it would be an exceedingly expensive operation.

VETS ARE TAXPAYERS TOO

One of the difficult problems confronting an economy-minded government is the need for eliminating waste and pork barrel spending in the Veterans Administration. It is a difficult problem politically mainly because it has been made difficult by the politicians themselves. They forget that veterans, besides being ex-service men, are also taxpayers and just as much interested in economy and efficiency in government as their brothers and sisters and uncles and aunts.

The problem is made less difficult now by the fact that so many of our people today either are veterans themselves or are closely related to a veteran. Being an ex-soldier today is just being an average citizen.

All will agree that there should be no skimping and trimming in providing for those who are the victims of our wars. We can't do too much for the disabled, and that includes their dependents as well as the widows and orphans of those who didn't come back. But beyond that there must be reasonable limits to the benefits made available to those who came through the service in the armed forces without bad effects, which includes most of us. To scrutinize carefully the expenditures for those whose problems are not related to war service is only fair to the brothers and sisters and uncles and aunts—and sons and daughters—who must pay the bill, and in no way reflects upon the public appreciation of the sacrifice made by those who have served.

Congress may count on those good citizens who served in the armed forces when their service was needed to be good citizens still. The vast majority of them can be counted on to go along with what is right, asking no special favors and devoutly thankful for having returned unharmed.

CUTTING COSTS A TOUGH JOB

Some years ago Congress established a debt limit of 275 billion dollars for the federal government. Deficit spending may bring the national debt up to that figure during the coming year, which might force the President to ask Congress to increase the limit. That would not be in keeping with the campaign promises of the party now in power and would be most embarrassing politically for the administration.

The situation certainly does not justify tax reduction at this time. There seems to be no hope now for a balanced budget even with present taxes. To reduce revenues at a time when present revenues are not adequate does not make sense.

President Eisenhower's proposals to make both ends meet by cutting expenditures do not meet with enthusiastic support. Reducing the cost of government is easy on paper but extremely difficult in actual accomplishment. The spenders are always backed by strong lobbying groups.

Those who feared that military-man Ike would use his influence to build up a powerful military machine should get some comfort out of the argument he is now having with his subordinates in the armed forces over his proposal to reduce appropriations for military purposes. The air force is particularly disturbed about Eisenhower's failure to understand the importance of our national defense program, and that should give all of us a chuckle. Incidentally, Business Week, commenting on the situation, says, "The Air Force is not really hurt by the economies Eisenhower offered." That's good enough for us.

Army worms are on the march in sections of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland and Kentucky. In New York tent caterpillars are so thick in places trains have been unable to move because of slippery tracks. In some places there are floods and in other places there is drouth. Tornadoes have taken a heavy toll of lives and property in many states this year. Beg your pardon sir, what were you complaining about?

Houston, Texas, merchants, weary of losing an estimated $55,000 worth of goods a week to shoplifters, organized a successful drive to stop the thievery. In the first four days of a united effort a total of 40 offenders were caught. By the end of the week there was no more shoplifting in Houston. The bad thing about this shoplifting business is the fact that most of the shoplifters are teenagers and often their unchecked petty pilfering leads to more serious crimes.

Political Roundup

By Arthur Naftalin

A remark in this column a few weeks back that both the Republican and Democratic-Farmer-Labor Parties were having difficulty finding suitable top-of-the-ticket candidates for 1954 draws vigorous comment from both sides of the fence.

The Republicans' problem is to find a candidate to oppose Senator Hubert H. Humphrey and the Democrats' problem is a candidate to run against Governor C. Elmer Anderson. To listen to the respective party leaders on the subject is to hear glowing accounts of political woods just loaded with promising timber.

Each side, in fact, comes forth with nine names, some well-known, others not so well known, but all nonetheless having a few boosters here and there. For what it's worth at this early stage, here are the 18 names of prospective GOP candidates for the Senate and DFL candidates for the Governorship:

Republicans for Senate

Walter H. Judd—The fifth district congressman leads the list. Friends say he's reluctant to risk his 12 years seniority in the house, but he has not closed the door on the possibility of his candidacy.

C. Elmer Anderson—The governor is regarded as the best GOP vote-getter. He is still considered a possibility, despite his having declared rather firmly that he is not considering the prospect of the Senatorial race.

P. Kenneth Peterson—State representative from Minneapolis and state chairman of the Republican Party, Peterson is rated a good prospect to get the nod, if both Judd and Anderson definitely bow out.

Ancher Nelsen—The former lieutenant-governor is now established in Washington as director of R.E.A. His backers feel he would make one of the strongest candidates, if he can be induced to leave his long-term, nationally-important assignment.

Val Bjornson—The state treasurer is well-known over the state, an effective and engaging speaker. In the past he has been frequently mentioned for the governorship and his backers believe his time will eventually come for this position.

J. O. Christianson—The superintendent of the school of agriculture at the University, he's a favorite speaker among farm groups and has been frequently mentioned for political office, but has never declared himself publicly on the subject.

Lawrence F. Haeg—State representative from north rural Hennepin since 1941, he's one of the conservative leaders in the house. Well-known through his radio work, Haeg is regarded as possible "dark horse" contender.

Leonard Lindquist—The former railroad, and warehouse commissioner and Minneapolis attorney created quite a stir within GOP ranks by criticizing some of the party's leaders and policies. He's not likely to get official party support, but might conceivably become a contender without it.

Elmer L. Andersen—State senator from St. Paul; he's developed an impressive record as a legislator. He shushed talk about his being a candidate for Senate or for Congress, but his backers insist he would be a top-notch candidate, if he could be induced to make the race for one or the other post.

DFL'ers for Governor

Eugenie Anderson—The former ambassador to Denmark is now back home. She has firmly rejected all bids that she seek political office, but her supporters intend to keep trying. They are convinced that she is one person who could win, despite the fact she is a woman, because of her remarkable record in the ambassador post.

Orville L. Freeman—The party's nominee last year has said he will not seek the post again next year, but party leaders believe he is not to be counted out.

Fred Marshall—Now in his third term in congress, Marshall recently led the fight to save farm appropriations. He, too, has disclaimed gubernatorial ambitions, but party folks feel his farm background is just the thing to strengthen the ticket.

Eugene J. McCarthy—St. Paul's third-term congressman was mentioned prominently for the Senate in 1952, and his boosters think he'd do well seeking the governorship.

Paul Rasmussen — The DFL railroad and warehouse commissioner, despite some disaffection because of his voting for Twin Cities streetcar fare increases, is regarded as one of the most likely to make the race.

Hjalmar Petersen—The former governor has won renewed statewide attention by virtue of his vigorous fight in behalf of more money for rural roads. He has not indicated interest in seeking office again but is regarded as still a strong votegetter and as a real possibility for the governorship in 1954.

Philip Neville—Until recently United States District Attorney for Minnesota, Neville is a Minneapolis attorney. Although not especially well-known in party circles, he has a wide circle of admirers who regard him as one of the most promising potential candidates to happen along in some time.

Charles Stickney—The former head of the Production and Marketing Administration in Minnesota, Stickney is one of the best known personalities in farm circles. Frequently to provide the DFL ticket with agricultural balance that it needs.

Karl F. Rolvaag—The state chairman of the DFL firmly disclaims any interest in elective office, but he's still rated a possibility. He was drafted in 1952 as the party's opponent against Judd in the fifth district. As DFL chairman he has retained support for his party leadership among the various factional groupings.

Average old age grant per person per month ranged in the last fiscal year from a December low of $54.56 to a January high of $58.94. April was second high, $58.15.

By Mrs. Thorwald Bjornaraa, Gully

(Too late for last week)

Mr. and Mrs. David Bernison, Laureen, Linda and Deane of Bagley were Sunday dinner guests at the Harry Bernison home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dreng Bjornaraa returned to their home in Minneapolis Sunday afternoon, after having spent the time since Thursday visiting relatives here and in Thief River Falls. They were accompanied back by Janet Christopherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selvin Christopherson, who also arrived with the Bjornaraa's on Thursday, to spend the Memorial weekend with her parents. Janet is a student nurse at the Fairview Hospital there. Also accompanying them to the Cities was Elaine Kolahus, who will be employed there.

Howard and John Paront of Chicago are now the owners of White Sand Beach at Kelliher. Howard and Harry Bernison were buddies, being in the same outfit in the air force in Italy.

Mrs. A. I. Anderson of Gully passed away on Saturday morning at the Memorial Hospital in Bagley.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ness, Basil and Myra, visited at the Geo. Norquist home in Gonvick on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvin Mandt and Debra of Velva, No. Dak. spent the Memorial week-end at the George Ness home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lown, Mrs. Wally Steindl and Mrs. Elias Loun and Anothony were dinner guests at the Harry Bernison home on Monday.

Among those from here attending the Mission Festival at the Nazareth Church in Hickory Sunday were Mrs. Ole Anderson, Mrs. Gladys Mendlebaum and Jeffrey, Mrs. Selmer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Norberg, Judith and David, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lund, Mrs. Gust Strande and Virgil, Mrs. Sid Strande and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Thoreson and Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Bjornaraa, Buddy and Twyla. Dinner and lunch was served, and a program was rendered in the afternoon with prayer and devotion led by Rev. Lie, two hymns were sung by Paul Lundsmark of Gully, a talk by Dreng Bjornaraa, and a hymn by the audience.

To Shirley Bergerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bergerson and Lois Layton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Layton we bestow our congratulations upon their graduation. Both were members of the graduating class of the Gonvick high school on Thursday evening, May 28th.

Dreng Bjornaraa delivered the address there.

Richard and Tommy Davids and Oscar Christianson of Bagley called at the Robert Davids home one day last week. Mrs. O. T. Davids and Richard visited at the Albert Davids home from Thursday until Friday.

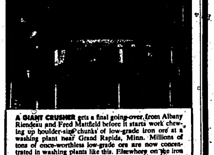
THIS ORE CRUSHER CHEWS UP BOULDERS



A GIANT CRUSHER gets a final going-over from Albany Riendeau and Fred Mattfield before it starts work chewing up boulder-size chunks of low-grade iron ore at a washing plant near Grand Rapids, Minn. Millions of tons of once-worthless low-grade ore are now concentrated in washing plants like this. Elsewhere on the iron ranges, great taconite processing plants are planned, with one of them already under construction and scheduled to begin shipments in 1955. Taconite and low-grade ore processing hold the promise of a bright future for the iron ranges—if Minnesota's iron mining industry can produce these ores at a cost to compete with ores from other areas. A fair deal for Minnesota's iron mining industry means a good deal for you.

Hey dad what's this I found in the attic?

Hardly seems possible to us older folks, but many kids now growing up on farms have never seen a kerosene lamp! Electricity is everywhere! We're so accustomed to it that we sometimes forget how long it was in coming to the farm.

For decades while city people enjoyed more and more of electricity's benefits, farmers lit their lanterns and cranked their gasoline engines.

Finally, through co-ops, farmers took over the job themselves.

They worked swiftly. Within a few years, on almost any farm in the country, you could flick a switch for light and power.

In bringing electricity to the farm, in marketing crops, in buying supplies, or DOING ANY BIG JOB THAT NEEDS DOING, co-ops are the powerful tools of those who must work together to help themselves.

SO BEAUTIFUL! SO POWERFUL!
SO ROOMY! SO LOW IN PRICE!

Judge Pontiac purely from the standpoint of quality and it's hard to believe that it is actually a low-priced car. Certainly it's as distinctively styled as any car on the road—and its beauty carries through into its luxurious, roomy Body by Fisher. Performance-wise, Pontiac is second to none, with power to spare that whisks you through city traffic or cruises with remarkable economy. And Pontiac is a big car, with a long, 122-inch wheelbase.

But Pontiac's outstanding feature is its price—a price so low that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac. Come in and get the facts that prove that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!

Young Man Accidentally Killed

A stranger passing through the community Wednesday met with sudden death about 12:30 to 1:00 o'clock. He was identified as Robert Glick, a teacher from Badger. He was killed on his thirtieth birthday that day of June 3.

The car accident occured on the ridge at Thorhult. When found by members of the Rinhard Holthusen family the car was upside down and the man's body had been thrown clear of the car and lay back of the overturned car. The Bemidji sheriff was notified and a doctor was also out. It appeared the young man had lost control of the car after passing someone on the road, hit the gravel edge the highway patrol had just put in the center of the road. This ridge the car had crossed several times finally rolling over several times before it came to a stop. A slight heart beat, felt by some arriving at the scene, was reported but has not been officially confirmed. The report was the car apparently rolled over the man's body. A broken back and other injuries caused death.

It is not possible to found a lasting power upon injustice, perjury, and treachery.

Regulations on Auto Insurance Changed

Owners of automobile liability insurance should check their policies to make sure they provide enough protection under new provisions of the Minnesota safety responsibility act, the Minnesota State Bar association said today. The last session of the Legislature passed amendments to the act which double the minimum limits of property damage and liability insurance which automobile owners must carry to qualify as "financially responsible" under the law.

The Minnesota safety responsibility act is the law which protects the general public against suffering total financial loss for property damage, personal injuries or death as the result of the negligence of the owner or driver of an automobile causing the accident.

Contrary to what most people believe, the Act does not make compulsory the carrying of automobile insurance by all drivers. It is applicable only to drivers who have had accidents involving $50 or more in damages.

The law provides that the Minnesota highway department must ask for proof of financial responsibility from both drivers or owners of cars involved in accidents which result in more than $50 in damages, whether the damage is to property or in personal injuries—regardless of who is to blame.

Both drivers then must prove they have safety responsibility. They may certify that they were covered with liability insurance at the time of the accident. If they had no insurance, the highway department will ask the driver to deposit cash or securities in a certain amount—a figure high enough to cover all possible damage—pending a settlement of the case between the parties or determination by the courts of who was at fault and caused the accident.

If a driver involved in an accident cannot meet either of these qualifications, the highway department requires him to turn in his driver's license and forfeit his right to drive.

Under amendments to the law passed by the last legislature, the minimum limits of insurance which automobile owners must carry in order to qualify under the safety responsibility law were doubled.

The minimum coverage for property damage is now $2,000; the minimum coverage for injury or death to one person is $10,000; and the minimum coverage to two or more persons injured or killed is $20,000.

The 1951 legislature also made changes which are important to the general public. At their discretion, counties, cities, villages, boroughs, school districts, and towns now are allowed to insure their employees against liability arising out of motor vehicles used in the performance of their duties, and to pay the premiums on automobile liability insurance policies. This enables these governmental subdivisions whose automobiles are operated in a proprietory capacity to protect themselves and their employees against damage suits on the grounds of negligence by carrying liability insurance.

Traffic Toll in State Mounts: 44 Killed During May

The death toll from accidents on Minnesota roads and streets climbed again during May, with 44 deaths reported, as compared with 33 during May of 1952. Last month's fatalities, brought the 1953 toll to 186, while during the comparable period last year only 144 had died.

Reports of the Minnesota Highway Department reveal that 16 lives were lost during the month when motorists ran off the road and turned over or struck fixed objects. Another three died as a result of railroad grade crossing accidents.

Fourteen died in collisions involving two motor vehicles, with a mother and two of her children being killed in one mishap and an elderly couple in another.

Death came to eleven pedestrians, with the victims again being either very young or past middle age. Three youngsters, four years of age or younger, died in this type of accident, while the other eight victims were 51 years of age or older.

ADVERTISING RESULTS—MAYBE SLOW, BUT VERY SURE

Ma Kwok Pai, representing a Hong Kong development company, wrote the Bernadotte Rabbitry, Lafayette, for catalog and price list, which, in itself, Hong Kong being quite a distance away and more or less in the international news, makes local news. But it's even more arresting by reason of the fact that said Bernadotte Rabbitry has been out of business since 1935. The former proprietor, however, got the request—and was not too surprised at this lingering power of advertising, since only a few years back he had some similar requests from Europe.

MINNESOTA HOSPITALS AND PHYSICIANS ADVISE:

What to look for in Health Plans

Before Choosing a Hospital Plan, Check These Points:

Are benefits adequate to meet today's hospital costs? The Blue Cross $25 Deductible Plan provides all room and board charges in a hospital room with two or more beds in all affiliated hospitals. Subscribers get up to 70 days of hospital care per admission, including up to 10 days for maternity care and 30 days for tuberculosis, mental and nervous illnesses. Subscribers pay only the first $25 of the total Blue Cross allowances and get the coverage they need today.

Are unlimited benefits provided for many expensive hospital services? Blue Cross covers many vital services such as operating room costs, approved drugs, oxygen and physical therapy, laboratory fees, etc. in full. It provides the care you and your family need, not meager cash amounts that may be inadequate to cover your hospital bill.

Who sponsors the plan? A non-profit organization—such as Blue Cross—can return more to subscribers in benefits. Minnesota Blue Cross operates under an enabling act passed by the State Legislature. According to this act, control of Blue Cross remains in the hands of hospital trustees and administrators. Outstanding Minnesota citizens comprise the board of trustees—and they serve without pay. Blue Cross is actually sponsored by the hospitals themselves—for the sole purpose of providing maximum care in case of need.

Do your dependents get the same benefits you do? Under the family contract for the Blue Cross $25 Deductible plan – and under Blue Shield, the medical plan – your new born child is covered immediately at birth, after this contract has been in effect 10 months. All unmarried sons and daughters under 19 years of age receive exactly the same benefits you do. With Blue Cross, there are no embarrassing financial arrangements to be made. When you present your Blue Cross card at the hospital it means that the benefits you will receive are already prepaid by you.

Can you continue your protection regardless of your health? Blue Cross works toward the same goal as the hospitals themselves . . . better health care for all people, at the lowest possible cost. Blue Cross has never cancelled a contract because of the state of a subscriber's health or because of the amount of hospital care he has received. Over $80,000,000 have been paid out for subscribers by Minnesota Blue Cross . . . $12,500,000 during last year alone. Only one hospital care plan satisfies all the above requirements. For Minnesotans, that plan is the non-profit Blue Cross hospital care plan—actually sponsored by 169 Minnesota hospitals. Approximately one million, or one out of every three, Minnesotans now enjoy the complete protection that Blue Cross offers.

Before Selecting A Medical Plan, Ask These Questions:

Are you free to choose your own doctor of medicine? Under Blue Shield, you choose your own physician for care, as long as he is a licensed Doctor of Medicine in the state where the service is rendered. Over 2,800 Minnesota physicians actively participate in the Blue Shield Doctor's plan. By showing the Blue Shield identification card, your doctor knows that the benefits you will receive have been prepaid by you.

Does the plan cover almost every known surgical operation and procedure? Minnesota Blue Shield covers almost every known surgical operation and procedure. And, equally important, you are protected for surgery performed anywhere, whether at home, in the physician's office, or at the hospital. If more than one major surgical procedure is involved, additional allowances are frequently made that well exceed the maximum amount allowed for any one procedure. Blue Shield gives the comprehensive protection you and your family need.

Do your dependents get the same benefits as you? Allowances for delivery of the baby and routine care of mother and child during confinement are provided under the Blue Shield family contract, after the contract has been in effect for ten consecutive months. Your dependents are entitled to the same benefits you are under the Blue Shield family contract. Can any other medical-surgical plan give you and your family the comprehensive protection of Blue Shield at such a low cost?

Are you protected while traveling? If you or your dependents should require doctor's care, covered by the Blue Shield contract, while away from home, you are still entitled to Blue Shield benefits. This also is true of Blue Cross, the hospital plan.

Are service benefits related to income? Your ability to pay is taken into consideration in the Blue Shield contract. Is your family income under $3,000 a year? If so, all participating physicians accept the Blue Shield payment, as listed in the schedule of payments, as full payment for the services rendered. The same is true in the case of a single subscriber whose income is less than $2,000 per year. Subscribers earning higher incomes receive the full listed allowances toward the doctor's charges. When you choose a medical-surgical plan, it makes good sense to take your own doctor's advice . . . choose Blue Shield.

To assure the complete protection you and your family need, only one medical plan satisfies all the above requirements. That plan is Blue Shield. Blue Shield is the non-profit medical-surgical plan that offers protection to over one-half million Minnesotans.

BLUE CROSS AND BLUE SHIELD SUBSCRIBERS ARE PERMITTED TO RETAIN THEIR CONTRACTS AFTER THEY BECOME 65 YEARS OF AGE, WHETHER EMPLOYED OR NOT.

Ask your doctor what health plans he recommends—his answer will be Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Ask your hospital . . . you'll get the same answer. Minnesota Blue Cross is sponsored by 169 Minnesota hospitals and over 2,800 Minnesota Doctors of Medicine actively participate in Minnesota Blue Shield. Both are non-profit organizations. Find out today about these health plans. Mail the coupon for full free information. Residents of Minnesota who are in good health and under 65 years of age may enroll in Minnesota Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Of course, you are under no obligation, and no salesman will call.

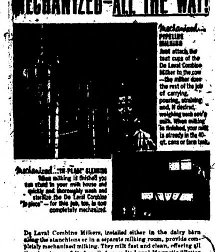
MECHANIZED—ALL THE WAY!



Mechanized... PIPELINE MILKING Just attach the teat cups of the De Laval Combine Milker to the cow—the milker does the rest of the job of carrying, pouring, straining and, if desired, weighing each cow's milk. When milking is finished, your milk is already in the 40-qt. cans or farm tank.

Mechanized... "IN-PLACE" CLEANING When milking is finished you can stand in your milk house and quickly and thoroughly wash and sterilize the De Laval Combine "in-place"—for this job, too, is now completely mechanized.

De Laval Combine Milkers, installed either in the dairy barn along the stanchions or in a separate milking room, provide completely mechanized milking. They milk fast and clean, offering all the advantages of De Laval's famous De Laval Magnetic "Better Milking." The milk is conveyed by vacuum through sanitary glass or stainless steel pipe directly to milk cans or refrigerated farm tank. On the way, it is automatically filtered and each cow's milk can be individually weighed, if desired.

After milking, the entire system can be quickly and thoroughly washed and sterilized "in-place" from the milking room! No more time-consuming "wash-up," thanks to De Laval engineering which has now completely mechanized this part of the job, too!

For pleasanter, more profitable one-man dairy operation, see us today.

Let us show you how good baled hay can be

The best way to judge hay quality is to examine it in the barn this time of year. Here are some things you will notice about rolled bales:

1 The hay is bright and green — just like it was baled.
2 Leaves are sealed inside the bale — almost no leaf loss during handling.
3 Bales that have been rolled on are still good — they shed the showers.
4 Rolled bales handle without waste — won't buckle, break or fall apart.
5 Rolled bales are easy to feed — rolled out, cut open, or fed whole.

Let us show you why hay in rolled bales is winning blue ribbons for quality at leading shows. Your livestock needs the best.

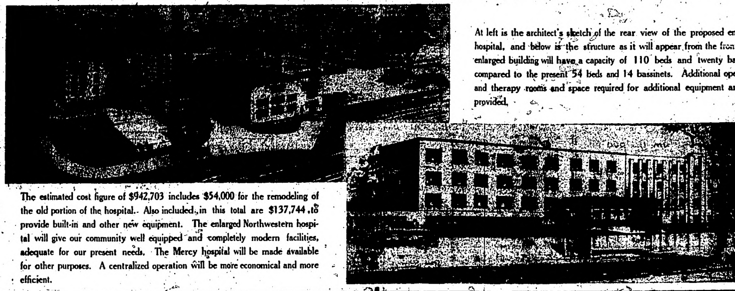
These Adequate Hospital Facilities for Our Community Are Within Our Reach---WE MUST NOT FAIL NOW!



REAR AND FRONT VIEWS OF ENLARGED NORTHWESTERN HOSPITAL AS NOW PLANNED

At left is the architect's sketch of the rear view of the proposed enlarged hospital, and below is the structure as it will appear from the front. The enlarged building will have a capacity of 110 beds and twenty basinets, compared to the present 54 beds and 14 bassinets. Additional operating and therapy rooms and space required for additional equipment are also provided.

The estimated cost figure of $942,703 includes $54,000 for the remodeling of the old portion of the hospital. Also included in this total are $137,744 to provide built-in and other new equipment. The enlarged Northwestern hospital will give our community well equipped and completely modern facilities, adequate for our present needs. The Mercy hospital will be made available for other purposes. A centralized operation will be more economical and more efficient.

IT CAN BE DONE - - IT MUST BE DONE!

This Is One Beg to Help Ourselves and not to help others

This drive for more adequate hospital facilities is an effort in our own behalf. This time we are not giving to help others. We are providing for our own health needs, for the health needs of our own children. In the most selfish spirit we still can give generously to this cause.

The response so far is wonderful

The results indicate that wherever a thorough solicitation has been conducted the people of the community, both urban and rural, have responded generously. Thief River Falls citizens have voted public funds and pledged large personal contributions. The rural areas have proven their interest too.

History of Legion's Ninth District Band

(By T. W. Thorson, Director)

This Silver Anniversary is dedicated to all those Legionnaires and other musicians who have during this quarter of a century made the band possible thru their efforts, but especially do we dedicate this year to the memory of those who passed their final reviewing stand: Harold Vandermark, Max Raines and Kelly Antolik of Crookston; C. J. Paulson of Neilsville; Freeman Olson and Dr. W. J. Lauer of Argyle; C. E. Kloetty of Ada; Roy Alme of Ulen, and finally Dr. Harry Hedin of East Grand Forks, without whose staunch support the band would never have been able to carry on.

It was in the early spring of 1928 that a letter from Lawrence Hermanson, then of Thief River Falls, suggested to the writer that an association of bandsmen should be formed in the Legion for Northwestern Minnesota. A committee of Charles Munn of Crookston, Henry Reitan of Halstad, Lawrence Peterson of Ada and T. W. Thorson of Fertile arranged for an 18-piece band to appear at the East Grand Forks Legion Convention and that fall more members were added, many of whom are still in the band. At the District Convention in Thief River Falls in 1928, the band appeared in overalls and ragged clothing and the uniform drive was on which culminated in the blue uniforms, being purchased and used for the first time at the Crookston State Convention in 1930.

From that time on the band has appeared at all State Conventions and many District ones thruout the state, as well as North Dakota Conventions. They have been the official band at Winnipeg three times during the IWVA meetings and shared honors with the official band at the Parliament Building Memorial Services attended by thousands.

The band initiated the first memorial parade at Crookston in 1932 which has since been adopted by the State and other Districts. Of the original band at the Thief River Falls 1929 meeting, the following are still active: Sidney Stadsvold, Fosston; Harry Gerner, Hitterdal; Henry Gibson, Ulen; Nels Hoegland, Detroit Lakes; Arthur Askegaard, Comstock; Sigvald Tveit, Mahnomen. The last five together with three other 20-year bandsmen, Harry Bright, Henry Renner and Ed Dorsey all of Walker have constituted the Grandfathers' Club.

The band won its first championship at Duluth in 1934 and has since been champion seven times, holding the Minnesota band championship at the present time. They have attended one National Convention, in Los Angeles, 1936. They have been active in many Valley community affairs and have played in nearly every community of the Valley. In 1939 the Ninth District Junior Legion Band was formed with 120 boys and girls playing, until the war started, when conditions made it difficult to continue.

Towns represented at present in the band are: Comstock, Fergus Falls, Detroit Lakes, Moorhead, Fargo, Grand Forks, Brooten, Valley City, Ada, Hawley, Ulen, Hitterdal, Twin Valley, Gary, Fertile, Fosston, Roseau, Red Lake Falls, Park Rapids, Walker, Thief River Falls, Halstad, Barnesville and Crookston. Each rehearsal represents at least 2,500 man miles. Officers of the present band are: Robert Ramstad of Gary, President; Gene Holmes of Park Rapids, Vice-President; Robert Johnson of Fargo, Treasurer; John Fleur of Grand Forks Secretary; Ralph Keeley of Crookston and Roy Sauers of Detroit Lakes, Managers; Harry Gerner of Hitterdal, Uniform Custodian; Vern Kellenheim of Grand Forks, Assistant Director and T. W. Thorson, of Crookston, Director.

A special anniversary dinner of the Band has been scheduled for Saturday, June 13th at 6:30 p. m. in the Red and Gold Room of the Crookston Hotel. All present and former members of the band are invited. Those invited to attend are asked to contact Ralph Keeley, Crookston.

Local Tabernacle Opens Children's Programs June 15

A series of programs especially for children will be held at the Assemblies of God Tabernacle on Monday, June 15 through Friday, June 19, each evening from 7:00 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. according to Rev. Robert Abbott, pastor.

The services entitled "Kids' Krusade" are conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Richard Stevens of Minneapolis.

Each program in the series is different and feature music, stories, skits, "Mystery Cave", Danny Hopkins the dummy, and puppets. "Dany Hopkins", a ventriloquist's dummy, "gets into the act" by playing the part of a nine-year-old boy who always does the wrong thing and turns to Rev. and Mrs. Stevens for help.

The series of services making up the "Kids' Krusade" will replace the usual Vacation Bible School usually conducted.

All Thief River Falls children are invited to attend the programs, and adults are also invited to enjoy them, said Mr. Abbott.

Spraying Tips Given for Control of Weeds

Alfalfa and several clovers can be safely sprayed for the control of many annual weeds.

In making this statement, however, County Agricultural Agent Ray Milteness cautioned that careful consideration should be given to the legume to be sprayed it, age and stage of growth and the weeds to be controlled.

Two major kinds of herbicides are used to control annual weeds —those that kill broadleaved weeds and those that kill weedy grasses. Legumes that tolerate one type of herbicide may be sensitive to the other, according to J. H. Miller, USDA agronomist at the University of Minnesota.

Herbicides used for annual broadleaved weed control are 2, 4-D, MCP and the dinitros. Ladino, red and alsike clover and alfalfa may be sprayed with the amine salt formulation of 2,4-D or MCP at ¼ pound acid per acre. Sweet clover is considered too sensitive to be sprayed with 2,4-D or MCP. The ester formulation of these products should never be used on legumes.

Foxtail may be controlled in newly-seeded alfalfa and sweet cloved by spraying with TCA at 5-7 pounds per acre. Red and alsike clovers should not be sprayed with TCA. TCA will also injure oats, wheat or barley used as companion crops with legumes. Flax, however, will tolerate these rates of TCA.

Miller emphasizes that very small legumes frequently are more severly injured than those that have developed three to four trifoliate leaves. However, the time to spray should be governed largely by the weeds themselves. Weeds, like legumes, are most easily injured when they are small. Miller suggests spraying as soon as a good stand of weeds has emerged. As the size of the weed plant increases, the degree of control will become poorer.

The 2,4-D and MCP will normally do a satisfactory job on wild mustard, cocklebur, ragweed, lambsquarters, pigweed, marsh-elder, stinkweeds and wild radish. However, the cockles, catchflys, wild buckwheat, smartweeds and knotweeds are normally not killed by these rates.

Rates of TCA for foxtail will also control barnyard grass and wild barley.

Extension Pamphlet 187, "Chemical Wed Control in Minnesota," gives additional information. It's available from the county agent's office or the Bulletin Room, University Farm, St. Paul.

Safety Patrols Thanked for Year of No Accidents

As schools reach vacation time, a sincere public "thank you" was extended today to the school safety patrols, teachers and police of Minnesota for another no-accident year at school corners, by the Minnesota State Automobile association (AAA).

No child has been injured in a traffic accident while going to or from school under the guidance and protection of safety patrols and police, according to E. Ray Cory, Austin, president of the statewide motoring organization.

Special tribute, he said, is due the local police department officer who supervises the work of the Patrols and to the fine assistance given the program by the American Legion, Jaycees, and many civic groups.

"These activities, plus fine police work," said Cory, "have made it possible to reduce fatal traffic accidents involving children of school age by 32 per cent from 1922 to 1952, while the rate of traffic deaths for all other groups has doubled.

President Speaks at Garrison Dam Thursday, 10:30

President Eisenhower comes to North Dakota today to speak at Thursday's celebration of the closure of the huge Garrison dam on the Missouri river and thousands will be on hand to greet him.

A busy schedule faces the President from the time his plane arrives at Minot at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday, until he leaves in the same plane at 1 p. m. Thursday, either from Bismarck or Minot, for Rapid City, S. D.

State and local authorities in the Minot-Garrison-Bismarck region have announced they plan traffic control on a basis that will insure a minimum of difficulty in getting to the celebration site at Riverdale, the new dam town.

The program at Riverdale will get under way at 9 a. m. Thursday, and continue into the afternoon, with the President's address at 10:30 a. m. highlighting the celebration.

Unemployment Payment Illegally Collected in City

Peder N. Pederson, local plasterer, pleaded guilty in municipal court June 2 to a charge of having illegally collected unemployment compensation in April and May of 1951.

Pederson was brought into court on complaint of R. S. Eidevik, manager of the local office of the state employment service, who charged that during a two-weeks period in April, 1951, the accused man had collected a total of $30 in unemployment benefits, stating that he had no earnings during the period, whereas Eidevik charged he had actually earned $88.75 for the two weeks. Another similar charge involved the period from April 30 to May 14, 1951.

Special municipal judge Stanley Mortenson, who heard the case, gave Pederson a 15-day jail term, suspending the sentence on condition that he return to the department by June 15 the money fraudulently received.

A Long Ride for Coal Fruit . . . and Coal

Graduating?

Hope you come through with honors—but if you have a party line please don't study for final exams over the phone. You'll tie up service for everyone on the line—and you may miss out on important calls to you. Other party-line tips: give up the line for emergency calls, replace the receiver carefully, hang up quietly when you find the line in use.

Airline Will Resume Scheduled Service to This City June 18

New Home Agent

MISS MARGERY OLSON
Of Fort Frances, Ontario, a 1953 graduate of the University of Manitoba, who Monday took over the duties of home agent in the Pennington county extension office.

Following completion last weekend of the work of blacktopping the main runway at the municipal airport, Chet Matthews, station manager for North Central Airlines, announced that scheduled service between Thief River Falls and the Twin Cities would be resumed effective Thursday, June 18.

The airline has been bypassing this city since April 1 due to the poor condition of the runway surface. The work of applying the bituminous coating was started in May, but completion was delayed until now by cold and rainy weather.

Mathews stated that when service is resumed Thursday, the airline will make two trips each way daily between Thief River Falls and Minneapolis. Planes will leave here at 6:25 a. m. and 2:10 p. m., arriving at their destination two hours and two minutes later. Northbound planes will leave Minneapolis at 10:50 a. m. and 4:45 p. m., arriving in this city at respectively 12:59 and 6:54 p. m.

Company F Called to Park Rapids to Join in Search for Child

Members of Company F, Thief River Falls unit of the National Guard, was one of five units called out by Governor Anderson at 12:01 Saturday morning to go to Park Rapids to assist in the search for five-year-old Stevie Sanders of Park Rapids, who had been missing from his home four days.

The search ended Saturday at 2 p. m., when the child's body was found in Fish Hook Lake six feet from shore at a spot 100 feet from the dock in front of the boy's home. His body was found by W. H. Weise, a neighbor. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sanders.

Although the level of the lake was lowered several feet by the dam, dragging of deep holes was impossible because of dead trees and other debris dumped into the waters in the past.

The boy disappeared late Tuesday afternoon. It now is believed he fell from the dock in front of his home while watching his older brothers paddle across the lake in a canoe.

When the search ended, the guard units went on to Camp Ripley at Little Falls, where their annual two weeks of maneuvers got under way Sunday.

Action Sought to Secure New 8th st. Bridge

Group Asks Cooperation of Council; Plans Made for Laying Water Mains

With Roy J. Oen and Art Stenberg as principal spokesmen, a delegation of a dozen or more farmers and businessmen urged the city council at its June session Tuesday evening to impress upon the state highway department the urgent need for a new bridge across Thief River at Eighth st. to replace the narrow structure.

It was pointed out that the span, only about 16 feet wide, is too narrow to permit passage of some types of farm machinery, and that a sidewalk is needed to provide safety for the growing pedestrian traffic. The group also opposed any change in location of the bridge or of Highway 1 in that vicinity.

Following the discussion, the council instructed City Clerk P. G. Pederson to write to Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann to request an early study of the situation.

A hearing was conducted on a petition for sewer and water mains on Kendall av. S. from Michael to Greenwood sts., and, no objectors appearing, City Engineer Douglas Stewart was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for the work.

Also ordered was the preparation of plans for a water main extension on Main av. from Eleventh to Thirteenth sts., action being deferred on the installation of sanitary sewer in the same area. The council also ordered plans for a one-half block extension of the storm sewer on Atlantic av. to serve a new potato processing plant.

A lease was ordered executed with the state highway department providing that the quarters in the former water treatment plant now occupied by the resident highway engineer will be occupied July 1 by the state highway patrol. The rental of $85 a month covers office space and garage room for two cars.

Building permits covering the erection of new residences were issued to Maurits Scholin and Glen H. Anderson.

A hearing was set for July 21 on two petitions for bituminous treatment of streets. Included are a four-inch mat requested on Kendall av. N. from Third to Taft sts., and a three-inch mat on First st. from Knight av. to Arnold av.

Lloyd N. Bennes, president of the local school board, was the principal speaker at the annual Flag Day rites sponsored by the Elks lodge Monday evening in the club rooms. Included in the audience were nearly 30 Boy Scouts accompanied by their scoutmasters.

The Elks Flag Day ritual was exemplified by officers of the lodge, headed by R. S. Eldevik, exalted ruler. Arthur A. Johnson recited the history of the American flag, and Mrs. Arthur Hamilton supplied piano accompaniment.

Bennes in his address pointed out that the freedoms we enjoy in America today were defended by those who fought the nation's wars, and by the pioneers who settled the west. Hospital Drive Nets $22,000 First Two Days in T. R. Falls

Nat'l. Polio Chapter Advances $7,875 to Pennington Chapter

The Pennington county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has received a $7,875 March of Dimes check from the epidemic aid fund maintained at national headquarters, it was announced today by M. C. Gulbranson, Thief River Falls, chairman of the local chapter.

According to Gulbranson, the advance will be used to pay past-due bills owed hospital and for special duty nurses required for the care of seven old and new cases.

"Pennington County raised $6,158 in the past January dimes drive," Gulbranson said, "but by May 20th this was all gone and we had to appeal for emergency aid from national headquarters."

Gulbranson explained that when March of Dimes funds are raised each January, half remains with the local chapter and half is sent to national headquarters to finance research, education and to provide emergency aid such as that received by this check to Pennington county.

The need for advances by counties suffering high polio incidence is one of the basic reasons why dimes funds are shared on a 50-50 basis with headquarters.

The tide of polio across the nation the past year left ever-increasing burdens on the county chapters of the National Foundation.

Gulbranson said that the Pennington county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has been assured that needed funds will continue to be supplied for the chapter's patient care program as long as funds are [illegible].

Burglars Invade the Tunberg Farm Supply, Get Little

Burglars who entered the Tunberg Farm Supply at 1223 Main av. N. thru a window last weekend went to a great deal of hard work, but escaped with little loot, apparently having taken only a few tools. They used a hacksaw to cut the pin off a hinge on the safe, but were unable to open the door. The intrusion was noticed by Arthur Lund, a workman, when he came to work early Monday morning. Sheriff Arthur Rambeck, who was called to the scene of the break-in, reported that few clues were detected. Police also are working on the case.

Children Taking Chances During Mosquito Fogging

Gets Off to Excellent Start Following Monday Kick-off Breakfast

More than 70 men, representing 45 two-man teams of solicitors for the Northwest Hospital fund drive, breakfasted at the Rex Cafe at 8:00 o'clock Monday morning for instructions on the final clean-up solicitation. Following the breakfast pep meeting the drive got off to a wet start as far as the weather was concerned. Early reports on the results however indicated that the response was well up to expectations.

Frank Tunberg, in charge of the city organization, reported this morning that an unofficial and incomplete tabulation on the results in Thief River Falls indicated that during the first two days more than $22,000 has already been pledged by city contributors. Largest single item in this early total was $4,800 pledged by employees of Northwestern Hospital.

Tunberg opened the Monday breakfast meeting with a brief statement and called upon Paul A. Lundgren to give a more detailed report on the overall expansion program. He emphasized the fact that the job of securing adequate hospital facilities was practically nine-tenths completed and that actually less than one-tenth of effort was needed now to bring the work of many years to a successful conclusion.

Prepared lists of prospects were given to each team. Some of these prospects had already contributed in previous drives but were being called on for possible increases in the old pledges.

An advisory committee of railroad men will meet Friday evening, Tunberg states, to work out details of a special solicitation of railroad employees. Members of this advisory committee are A. M. Campbell, Charles E. Hellquist, A. B. Stenberg, V. E. Robarge and Alfred M. Johnson.

Hilmer Lunke, who with Maynard Mehrkens is in charge of the solicitation in the rural areas, reports good progress in the organization. Because of the season, however, the actual soliciting has not been started generally. In the Township of Bray, he states, nearly $1,500 in new pledges is reported. The country will be slower in coming because of the greater problems involved, he said, but we will be in there with our share at the finish.

Lois Halvorson, Lester Sorenson Wed at Viking

The Zion Lutheran Church at Viking was the scene of a beautiful ceremony Sunday evening, June 7, when Lois Halvorson, daughter of Albert Halvorson, became the bride of Lester James Sorenson, son of Mrs. Carl Sorenson of Newfolden. Rev. Arthur Grorud prompted the marriage vows in a double ring service.

Miss Beverly Gustafson of Minneapolis played the nuptial music and accompanied Marie Engen, sister of the bride, as she sang "O Perfect Love" and "My God and I" preceding the ceremony. As the couple knelt at the altar, David Gustafson sang "The Lords' Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin, styled with sheer yoke, lace bodice, long tapered lace sleeves, and skirt extending into a train. Her veil of tulle was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of yellow carnations centered with an orchid. Her only jewelry was a double-strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mina Werline of St. Paul, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Laura Aanden of Fergus Falls, also a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. With their gowns they wore lavendar net stoles and matching carnation tiaras, and carried fan bouquets of yellow carnations centered with roses. Their rhinestone necklaces were gifts of the bride.

Junior bridesmaid, Marcia Gotchell of Albuquerque, New Mexico, niece of the bride, wore a yellow satin formal and carried a fan bouquet. Lynette Harstad, niece of the groom, was flower girl, and Larry Harstad carried the rings.

The groom was attended by Gordon Thompson as groomsman and Stuart Sethre as best man. Ushers were Glen Moose of Donaldson and Glen Halvorson.

The reception was held in the church parlors, which were decorated in lavendar and yellow. The bridal table was decorated with yellow lighted candles and the bouquets of the bride and her attendants. The top tier of the wedding cake was used as the centerpiece.

Delores and Darlyn Forsberg arranged the gift table, Mrs. R. R. Werline cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Henry Aanden poured. Delores Ranum registered the guests. Waitresses were Barbara Kagg, Barbara Forsberg and Margaret Ranum.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson are both graduates of the Newfolden High School and will make their home in Thief River Falls, where the groom has been employed since serving two years in the army.

N. W. Hospital Is Among 60 in State on Approved List

American College of Surgeons Again Approves T. R. Falls Institution

Northwestern Hospital has recently received a list of hospitals in Minnesota which are fully approved upon inspection by the American College of Surgeons. Of the over 200 hospitals in Minnesota, only 60 hospital are on the fully approved list. Of these, 32 are located in the Twin Cities and Duluth.

Northwestern Hospital at Thief River Falls is listed as fully approved by the American College of Surgeons. This approval is carried over to the hospital standardization program of the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals which was set up on December 6th, 1952. The joint commission is composed of representatives of the American College of Surgeons, the American College of Physicians, the American Hospital association, the American Medical association and the Canadian Medical association.

Approval of a hospital by this joint commission is highly sought. The approval is awarded to a hospital only after careful evaluation of a large number of factors which are considered necessary in the guaranteeing of good patient care. St. Luke's Hospital, now Northwestern Hospital Plant B, has been approved by the American College of Surgeons for many years.

The present approval is based on an inspection of the hospital since the merger with Mercy Hospital in 1950.

He mentioned several factors pointing to a stabilized economy, including the increased equity in property held by American workers and farmers, increased productivity of American business and the fact that the nation is taxing itself to pay almost 100 per cent of the cost of the defense effort.

Farmers' Driving Record Good, Say Traffic Experts

Accusing another motorist of "driving like a farmer" is one of the highest compliments you can pay to his driving skill, according to the Minnesota highway department. A special study of motor vehicle accidents during 1952 reveals that farmers and farm laborers were involved in much fewer traffic mishaps than were drivers in all other categories studies.

Out of a total of 50,175 accidents reviewed, the report shows that only 5,724 or 11 per cent involved farmers or farm laborers, while the remaining 44,451 or 89 per cent had workers in other occupations as their participants. These same rural motorists, however, were in 17 per cent of the accidents resulting in fatalities, with their city brethren in 83 per cent of fatal accidents.

None of the accidents involving farmers were with animal drawn vehicles, despite the greater exposure to this type of accident, while nine such accidents were reported by other drivers. There were 212 accidents in which animals were struck, with farmer motorists figuring in 46 and other drivers in 166.

The turn-out of golfers continued high as the city's two golf leagues entered their second round of play last Wednesday evening. The KTRF team, leaders after the first round of play in the American League, continued to hold first place in that loop after the results of Wednesday evening's matches were computed, Don Olson's squad holding a two-point margin over the runner-up Bridgeman's team.

In the National league competition, the S. & L. team moved into first place by scoring a lopsided 24 to 12 win over Jung's Bakery. Picking up those twenty-four points sent Clarence Walders's team into first place, passing Bob Bredeson's Cleaners club, the first week's leaders, by three points.

In the individual net score competition, Walt Ekeren and Gust Craft were tied for the low score, with both golfers posting 33's.

In this wek's schedule, both leagues will have an interesting match on the slate. In the American League, the first place KTRF team will play the third place Lincoln Life squad. In the National league, the Bredeson Cleaners and the Union State Bank teams, in a deadlock for second place with forty points apiece, will meet in a "crucial" series.

Insects and Weeds

Seems that not only the crops are doing well with the moisture and weather but that insects and weeds also are becoming a problem for many farmers. The past week I received many calls in regard to wireworms, cutworms, and weed control. Cutworms can be controlled with DDT, chlordane, toxaphene and some of the other new insecticides. These insecticides are sold in different forms and concentrations and all can be used satisfactorily providing it is applied according to directions. Following directions closely is important when using any insecticide. Pretreatment before planting is the best method for control of cutworms. Treat the entire prepared seed bed three to five days before seeding or setting out transplants or right after seeding, before the seed has germinated. With a 5 per cent dust use 1 pound per 1000 square feet or half this amount if using a 10 per cent dust. Sprays and emulsions may also be used.

5 per cent DDT, chlordane, or toxaphene dust can be applied before evening after transplants have been set out. Leave a visible deposit of insecticide on the surface of the ground about 18 to 20 inches in diameter around each transplant. Do not over dose the plants.

Killing Cutworms

If cutworms damage should appear in established tomato or cabbage plantings or in growing row crops, treat with the suggested insecticides above in dust or wettable powder sprays, depositing about a one-foot wide strip of insecticide on each side of the rows of plants or transplants. Use emulsions in gardens just before planting to avoid harming any of the germinating seedlings or growing plants.

Never use insecticides on vegetable parts of plants about to be used for food. You can avoid this by treating early before cutworms can do much damage and before vegetables can be contaminated. If new insecticides are used, apply three weeks before crops will be used for food.

Weed Control in Grain

The time for weed control in our small grain and flax fields is about here also. Barley and wheat should be sprayed from the fifth leaf to just before early boot stage—oats during the latter part of this period. Because of the narrow margin of safety in oats, lighter dosages should be used on this crop than on wheat or barley. The rate of application for any of these crops should not exceed ⅓ pound of amine or ¼ pound of ester per acre.

Flax may be sprayed with MCP or 2, 4-D as soon as enough susceptible weeds have emerged to make spraying practical. Spraying may reduce yields of seed and straw unless weed competition is reduced sufficiently to offset injury from spraying. Flax tolerates MCP better than 2, 4-D.

Use 2 to 3 ounces per acre of MCP or 2, 4-D in amine formulations for susceptible weeds like wild mustard. Use 4 ounces for lambsquarters, pigweed, stinkweed, cocklebur, marsh elder, and ragweed. For moderately resistant weeds, spot spraying at heavier rates may be necessary.

TCA at 5 pounds per acre will kill green foxtail, yellow foxtail, and barnyard grass in young flax. The flax should be at least 2 inches tall and the weeds less than 2 inches tall for best results. TCA can be applied in mixture with 2, 4-D or MCP to kill susceptible grass weds and susceptible non grass weeds with one application.

Two Moose Spied on Riverside av. Early Last Sunday

While engaged in mosquito spraying Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, Gerhart Hanson saw two moose ambling along Riverside av. near the Standard gas station, the animals also being seen in the rear of the Dairy Queen. Moose are a rare spectacle in Thief River Falls, and it is not unlikely that those seen here had strayed away from the game refuge east of Holt.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

On our great and almost nationally known Dairy Day last week many of us enjoyed the parade of healthy youngsters and the fine animals they exhibited. A few of us did not enjoy seeing the colors pass without notice from the crowds that lined the street. With the exception of a few G. I.s in uniform who saluted properly, I saw only one civilian who removed his hat and covered his heart when Old Glory went by.

I write this without malice toward anyone. I am sure the veteran's organizations will go along with me. There is a certain amount of respect that we owe to our flag. I am sure that the failure of most people to show proper respect to our flag is that they just do not know better.

It is time that we have some general instruction in flag etiquette. We wouldn't have such a fine group of boys and girls parading through our streets if we didn't live in a free and democratic nation, and that is what our flag symbolizes.

Therefore I say, if you are in uniform when the colors pass, salute as a soldier should. If you are a civilian salute as a civilian should, removing your hat and holding it over your heart, with a prayer of thankfulness for the many sacrifices that have been made to keep it flying.

Our Flag is the symbol of our freedom. Let's respect it.

Reports on Flax Acreage Due at Local PMA Office

Oscar J. Houske, chairman of the Pennington County PMA committee, today reminded farmers who have a federal flax insurance contract that they must report their flax acreage as soon as they have finished seeding. Even though you have no flax seeded in Pennington county this year, if you have federal flax insurance you must file an acreage report indicating "No flax seeded," he said. Therefore, if you have not already done so, Mr. Houske urges that you call at the PMA office as soon as possible to sign your acreage report.

'54 Wheat acreage Allotments Being Made in County

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for any of the years 1951, 1952, and 1953 may apply for a 1954 wheat acreage allotment, according to Oscar J. Houske, chairman of the Pennington County Production and Marketing Administration committee. To be considered for an allotment on a farm which had no wheat seeded for any of those years, the farmer must apply in writing to his county PMA committee by June 30. Blank application forms are available at the county PMA office for use in filing requests for allotments.

Pitchers Do Good Job as Prowlers Repeat to Win District Title

Coach Ralph Skjod's "triple-threat" pitching staff—southpaw LeRoy Aasland and righthanders Duane Rafteseth and Sid Vraa—limited the Prowlers' three opponents in the 31st district baseball tournament that was played at Crookston on Wednesday and Thursday, to a total of six hits as the locals made a successful defense of their district title. This week the Prowlers are participating in the regional tournament being played at Bagley.

With LeRoy Aasland collecting fourteen strikeouts and yielding but two hits, the Prowlers trounced the Crookston Pirates, 17 to 4, in a first round game on Wednesday night. Joey Poole, with a pair of triples and a single, Jack Hoppe, with two triples, and Bob Helgeland, with two singles and a double, led the Prowlers 12-hit attack and Pirate hurlers Bill and Hank Hulst.

In other first round tourney games on Wednesday, the Alvarado team edged out Climax, 4 to 2, in eleven innings; and Oslo eliminated Warren, 16 to 6.

In a semi-finals game played on Thursday afternoon, coach Skjod's club, erupting for 12-run fifth inning, made a shambles of their game with Oslo, defeating the Oslo team, 26 to 1, in a five-inning encounter. Helgeland pounded out three triples, Cal Vraa slammed out a pair of three-baggers, and Larry Gilbertson also poled out a pair of triples. Rafteseth doled out but two hits, giving up a single in the 3rd inning and another in the 5th inning.

The district championship finals on Thursday night developed into a duel of righthanders, with the locals' Sid Vraa allowing a pair of hits and Alvarado's Wayne Ekman holding the hard-hitting Prowlers to three hits.

Coach Charley Pickens' Alvarado team opened the game's scoring when a pair of Prowler errors and a double by Norm Olson accounted for a run in the top half of the 1st inning. The Prowlers bounced back in their half of the 1st to rally three runs. Mike Hajostek walked, stole second, advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on a fielder's choice on Darryl Durgin's ground ball. Sid Vraa drew a walk and after Helgeland had struck out and Poole had flied to left, Hoppe lined a single to right field, scoring Durgin and Sid Vraa.

Sid Vraa pitched shutout ball during the remaining six innings, giving up a single in the 3rd inning, and when his curve-ball caught a corner for a called third strike on Glen Olson in the 7th inning, the Prowlers had won a 4 to 1 victory and gained a berth in the eighth regional tournament.

Thieves Take Red Lake Falls Sunday 6 to 3

Locals Make It Five in a Row; to Play Alvarado Farmers There Sunday

Dick Williams' ground ball to third baseman Wayne Gothe, and Gothe's throw to Larry Perkins at first base for the out, snuffed out a Laker rally in the last half of the 9th inning and gave the Thieves a 6 to 3 win over Red Lake Falls in an exciting Red River Valley league game played before a near-capacity crowd at Red Lake Falls on Sunday afternoon.

The win was the fifth straight for Phil LeGault's club in league competition, and on Sunday, June 21st, the locals begin the second round on the schedule when they meet the Alvarado Farmers at Alvarado.

The Lakers entered the 9th inning trailing by a 6 to 1 score, but a single by Larry Turgeon, a triple by Duane Emard, and an error, added a pair of runs and pared the Thieves' lead to 6 to 3. The Lakers had runners on first and third with two out when Williams bounced into the game-ending out.

For four innings the game was a right-handed duel between the Lakers' veteran Bill Hallamack and the Thieves' Gene Leslie, with both hurlers pitching shutout ball. In the 5th, Joey Poole opened with a single to centerfield, and then made a clean steal of second. Jack Hoppe punched a single into centerfield, scoring Poole.

In the 6th inning, a walk to Gothe, a forceout, a double by LeGault, and a single by Poole, added two runs to the Thieves' total. Al Williamson, making his first appearance in a Thieves' uniform, opened the 7th inning by beating out a bunt. Al advanced to second on a steal when he beat the play after being caught off first base. Gothe's single to center plated Williamson with the locals' fourth tally.

Swede Lund's single and LeGault's double against the fence in right field, plus a Laker error, gave the Thieves a tally in the top of the 8th inning. Red Lake Falls, held scoreless for seven innings, and getting but three hits off Leslie's slants, notched a run in the 8th when Jones drew a walk, Hallamack singled, and, with two men out, Howie Johnstson doubled down the left field foul line. With runners on second and third, Archie Sele sent a looping fly ball into short left field, which was taken by Sid Vraa on a neat catch.

Region 8 Baseball Tourney at Bagley

Prowlers Play Halstad This Afternoon at 3

Coach Ralph Skjod's baseball Prowlers will begin play in the eighth regional tournament this afternoon, at 3:00 p. m. when, on Bagley's picturesque diamond, they meet the defending regional titleholders, the Halstad Pirates, in a first round game. At 1:00 p. m. today, the tourney opened with a game between Cass Lake, the 29th district champion, and Lake Bronson, the 32nd district winners.

The regional finals will be played on Thursday afternoon and the winner of this game will gain a berth in the state high school tournament being played at Little Falls on June 24th, 25th, and 26th.

The regional tournament had been originally scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, but Monday's rains forced the postponement of the Tuesday games, moving the tournament back one day.

Keeping Score with "Huck" Olson

These Amazing Thieves

If anyone, a couple of months ago, had been willing to wager that the Thieves would complete the first round of play in the Red River Valley league with a five wins and no loss record, and be the league leaders, he could have written his own ticket.

The fact is that the local club will begin the second half of the league schedule on Sunday, playing at Alvarado, and manager Phil LeGault's team does have a five wins and no loss mark, and it is the undisputed league leader. The boys have amazed their most ardent supporters.

Much of the Thieves' success must be credited to Phil LeGault's "golden touch" in handling the club. It was Phil's strategy that resulted in the shifting of last year's third baseman, Larry Perkins, to first base, and the moving of shortstop Wayne Gothe to third base. This maneuver permitted the insertion of Sid Vraa, the Prowlers' promising all-round athlete, into the infield as shortstop. The result is that the local club's infield—Perkins, Gothe, Vraa and second baseman Joey Poole—is the league's best defensive unit.

The presence of righthander Gene Leslie in the lineup, too, has been a factor in the Thieves' first half rush. Leslie, who played with Warren last year, has a two wins and no loss record in pitching, and he is a valuable outfielder and a capable infielder. Gene has been having his trouble at the plate and he's plenty disgusted with his meager batting average; but his percentage will be on the rise for he can't continue to have "bad breaks." Gene's performances in past years prove that he is a solid and long-ball hitter.

And another youngster who has surprised the fans by his stellar play is Jack Hoppe, the Prowlers' baseball co-captain. Jack, who will be a senior in high school next year, has played top-flight baseball in every position in which Phil has placed him. The Hopper caught southpaw LeGault in the game against Alvarado early in the season, and that 6 to 3 win was due largely to Jack's fine work behind the plate. Since the return of Swede Lund to the Thieves, Hoppe has been playing in the outfield, and doing a bang-up job. Manager LeGault would have used Jack as catcher more often, but with the high school team moving through district and regional competition, Phil did not want to risk injuring the Prowlers' "spark plug."

The Thieves, and their record, owe a debt of gratitude to the Prowlers, for such boys as Joey Poole, Sid Vraa, Jack Hoppe, LeRoy Aasland, and Duane Rafteseth, made that record possible. We hear that Bobby Helgeland, the Prowlers' clean-up hitter, will join the Thieves next week. He'll be welcome.

For The Record

So that the fact may be properly stencilled in the local golf club's history book, we'll report the results of the Justus Larson vs. Russ Embury match last Wednesday. Justus, shooting a 49, scored a decisive 5 to 4 win over Embury. Russ, we hear, had considerable tee trouble on the 8th, plunking five balls into the river and taking a fifteen on the hole.

By his victory on Wednesday, Justus joined the "I beat Embury" club. This club, which is vast and by no means exclusive, contains such diverse activities as pinochle, wrestling, worm-and-bobber fishing, and shoot-on-the-sit marksmanship.

Miscellany

The Crookston high school Pirates baseball team were under a new coach when they played the Prowlers last Wednesday night in the first game of the district tourney. Linton Lehrer, who has signed a contract to be head coach in baseball and an assistant coach in basketball at Crookston Central next year, handled the team in the absence of Lloyd Fezler. Lehrer will be remembered as the coach who directed the Karlstad Rabbits to a pair of 32nd district basketball titles several years ago. Last year, Lehrer coached at Westbrook, but he expressed himself at being pleased to be back in the eighth region.—The Crookston Pirates, in their game against the Prowlers, and which they lost by a 17 to 4 score, were without the services of their all-round athlete, Bobby Caouette. Caouette enlisted in the Air Force, and received his orders the day before the district tourney opened.—The Prowler baseball squad, by all odds the finest high school team that the blue-and-gold has fielded in the short time that baseball has become a major sport at Lincoln high school, elected co-captains for the 1953 season. Mike Hajostek, a senior, and Jack Hoppe, a junior, were honored with the co-captaincy.

Schedule, June 24th.

Shelly at Argyle-Warren.

For the first time this season the Red River Valley league teams were able to play a Sunday slate of four games without a postponement. The league completed its first round schedule on Sunday, and on June 21st the second half will get under way. Nine first half postponements remain to be played.

Sunday's schedule was highlighted by the Thieves' 6 to 3 win over the Red Lake Falls Lakers at Red Lake Falls, and, by their win, manager Phil LeGault's club became the team to beat for the league title.

The locals, with a string of five consecutive league triumphs, hold a game and a half lead over the runner-up Crookston Pirates. Both leaders, though, are due for strenuous tests on Sunday. The Thieves will travel to Alvarado for a game, and the Pirates will meet the Lakers at Red Lake Falls. In the first game of the season between the Thieves and Alvarado, played on the Fair Grounds diamond, the local club, with a five-run 1st inning, defeated the Farmers, 6 to 3. Crookston, in their game against Red Lake Falls, which was postponed from its opening date to June 6th, were hard-pressed to squeeze out a 4 to 3 triumph.

Holt Man Is Operator of Unique Typha Plant

While most northwestern Minnesota farmers are watching their growing crops of grain, O. T. Ness of Holt has his eye cocked for cattails, says the Minneapolis Tribune.

As far as he can determine, the Holt seed and implement dealer has the only typha factory in the world.

Typha is the technical name for cattail fluff—a light, airy and buoyant material used principally by casket makers and furniture makers as stuffing.

Ness points out that the typha business isn't big. But he sells about 200,000 pounds a year to markets in some 20 states, Canada and South America.

Typha got its biggest boost during the war when the coast guard authorized its use in life preservers to replace the kapok which comes from Japan.

Ness neither grows nor harvests the cattails.

The plants grow profusely in the lowlands and marshes of northern Minnesota. Farmers, housewives and school kids make extra money in the fall by picking the fluffy brown heads off the plant and selling them to Ness.

The going price has been three cents a pound, delivered. Ness buys most of his supply in the fall and then makes the fluff year around according to market demands. He's got about 50 tons left to process from last year's crop.

By a process of milling and blowing, the seeds and chaff are separated from the fluff and the typha is then pressed into 35-pound bales.

"The cattails can't be picked until after a hard freeze in the fall," Ness explained. "Until the plant freezes, it's full of worms."

The industry was started in Chicago in 1932 when Dr. C. F. Burgess started experimenting with the cattail fluff.

With the increased demand due to war use, Burgess was casting around for an unlimited source of cattails and in 1944 hit on the Holt area. More than 52,000 acres of cattails grow in the Mud Lake game refuge about six miles east of Holt.

Ness had been in charge of local operations for Burgess and when the doctor died of a heart attack in 1946, Ness bought the business and the Burgess estate turned over all machinery rights and patents.

The Holt typha factory burned to the ground in 1948. Biggest loss was a machine valued at $15,000. Ness rebuilt.

Whenever he is ready to begin buying cattails, he inserts an ad in the local papers and in no time the supply begins to roll in.

For the processed fluff, Ness gets 12 cents a pound.

Casket makers use it for cushions and pillows, find it cheaper than cotton. One casket manufacturer in Chicago uses 600 pounds every 10 days. A furniture maker in Tacoma gets a ton a month for use as upholstery.

Ness is trying to interest others in using typha in their products. One sporting goods firm experimented with a typha center for softballs, another uses it for stuffing of pillows and mattresses for baby cribs and a third uses it for filling toys.

The Holt man, impressed with typha's buoyancy, would like to see it authorized again for life preservers. The substance will take dye and he envisions children's bathing suits made of the material—offering both covering and safety.

"Twenty ounces of typha will keep a man afloat for 48 hours," he explained. "Every one of the little threads is hollow inside."

Newsmen Guests of Valley Medics

Medical Society Host at Dinner Meeting June 8th

Legislators and newspaper men from Northwestern Minnesota were guests of the Red River Valley Medical Society at a dinner reception at the Grand Forks Country Club at East Grand Forks Monday, June 8. A group of nearly 50 attended.

Manley Brist, St. Paul, attorney for the State Medical society was the principal speaker at a program following the dinner. He discussed numerous problems with which the medical profession is confronted. He told of the growth of Blue Shield in Minnesota during the past five years which now has more than 600,000 members.

George Rossman, Grand Rapids Herald-Review and president of the Minnesota Editorial association, briefly discussed cooperation between the press of the state and the medical profession.

O. M. Mattson of the Warren Sheaf and member of the MEA board of directors expressed the appreciation of the newspaper men in attendance for the dinner.

The welcome was given by Dr. Jack Delmore, Roseau, president of the medical society. Dr. L. N. Dale, Red Lake Falls, presided as toastmaster.

Dr. Stakman to Be Consultant with Rockefeller Unit

Dr. E. C. Stakman, retiring head of the University of Minnesota department of plant pathology, will become consultant in agriculture for the Rockefeller Foundation, July 1. The consultantship will enable him to continue some of the work he has conducted for the University of Minnesota and for the U. S. department of agriculture.

Headquarters for the work will be maintained in St. Paul. As a consultant, Dr. Stakman will advise on Rockefeller Foundation agricultural improvement programs in Mexico and Colombia, and the foundation's overall scientific projects in Latin America. His new assignment will take him out of the country frequently.

Dr. Starkman, one-time head of the Argyle school system, has spent 44 years at the University of Minnesota. Since 1917 he has held a joint appointment with the United States department of agriculture and since 1940 he has been chief of the University's department of plant pathology and botany.

Minnesota Gives $1,274,000 to 1953 March of Dimes

State's Contribution Is 56 Per Cent Higher Than $812,000 Given in 1952

Eighty million Americans contributed $51,500,000 to the fight against paralysis in the 1953 March of Dimes, it was announced today by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Of this total, $1,274,000 was contributed by Minnesota in 87 separate county March of Dimes campaigns, according to Willis E. Dugan, Minneapolis, state Dimes director.

Minnesota recorded one of the highest increases in the nation with a 56 percent boost over the $812,365.26 raised in 1952.

The national total, based on reports from 3,069 volunteer campaign chairmen, represents a new record, being 24 per cent higher than the 1952 total, O'Conner said.

"The new record shows that millions of parents and children who fight against polio realize the crucial stage of this battle has been reached," said O'Connor. "They know that recent progress in the scientific research and the continuing increase year after year of polio cases make their responsibilities greater than ever before."

O'Connor paid tribute to the 2,000,000 March of Dimes volunteers who conducted the fund-raising crusade in 100,000 communities throughout the nation.

The Minnesota gain of $461,634.75 also represents an all-time high with sizeable increase shown in the larger cities, Dugan said. Ramsey county recorded a 127 per cent increase, raising $133,593.10. St. Louis county showed over a 50 per cent increase, and Hennepin county over a 31 per cent increase.

The highest percentage of increase was in Lac Qui Parle county, a 550 per cent gain. Lac Qui Parle also showed the highest per capita donation with $1.40 per capita.

Time Now to Can, Freeze Rhubarb, Authority Says

Homegrown rhubarb is a good buy now for freezing and canning, Mrs. Eleanor Loomis, extension consumer marketing agent at the University of Minnesota, said today. It is at top quality now both in the market and in home gardens.

When selecting rhubarb, be sure that it is crisp and of a good red color; avoid stalks that are limp, Mrs. Loomis suggests.

Freezing is the easiest and one of the most satisfactory ways to preserve rhubarb for future use. Simply wash the stalks, cut them into one-inch lengths, package in polyethylene bags or other moisture-vapor-proof freezing containers, label with name of product and date and freeze. This dry pack is excellent for pies, but for sauce rhubarb has a better flavor if it is packed in a sugar syrup of 3 1/3 cups sugar to 1 quart cold water.

GREED WON A VICTORY

Bad news came out of Pittsburgh last week. The giant U. S. Steel Corporation and the giant CIO United Steelworkers Union signed an agreement that will give the workers a wage increase and the company a price increase. This settlement is expected to set the pattern not only for this particular industry but for all industry. We are off for another swing around the inflation spiral.

At a time when industry is operating at maximum capacity, with profits at an all-time high, and with no unemployment, it was easy for labor and management to come to terms. One hand washed the other. At the conclusion of the friendly conference the spokesmen for industry said nice things about the labor leaders and the spokesmen for the workers said nice things about the company leaders. No one was present however to speak for the customers who will pay the bill.

Since the start of World War II we have gone through more than half a dozen of these wage and price boosts. We learned the hard way that wage and price controls, under the direction of politicians, didn't work. It was hoped that by taking the procedure out of politics we would get more realistic results from an enlightened business and labor leadership. We know now that was a futile hope.

Speaking for his American Federation of Labor last February President George Meany opened the drive for another round of wage boosts with this statement:

> "If wages fail to keep pace with production, workers will not have enough to buy goods, markets will collapse, factories will be closed, mass unemployment will follow and a depression will result."

This approach is basically unsound because it fails to take into consideration the fact that factory workers are only one part of the consuming public that provides the market for the products of the factories. It is particularly shortsighted at this time because one of the main segments of that market, agriculture, has already lost buying power. The higher costs that will result from the increase in steel prices will further reduce that buying power. Here is the real first cause that will eventually bring unemployment in the factory.

Wage boosts that come as a result of greater efficiency and greater production per man hour are good. More machines and better machines are contributing constantly toward this end, increasing the real wages of the more productive worker and increasing the buying power of all consumers. This is the way to higher living standards.

Efficiency and increased productivity should bring benefits to both employees and employers. But there is also that very important third group, the customers, who have a right to share in the benefits. We all are a part of this third group and it is only as we who make up this third group are able to buy more and use more of the goods that are produced that we actually gain a higher living standard.

And that is why the news that came out of Pittsburgh last week was discouraging. Two groups took advantage of their position and by joining forces improved temporarily their own position at the expense of those who are the buyers of their products. Their greed will speed the day when buyers will buy less of their products. One sure way to bring on that depression is to price the buyers out of the market.

Northwestern Minnesota's fourth Dairy Day came up to expectations in every way and in some ways it surpassed all expectations. Each year this event has brought an increase in the number of exhibits and a very noticeable improvement in the quality of the animals and the art of showmanship with which they were presented. The progress has been truly remarkable. Over a period of years this promotion will pay big dividends throughout the large area it serves.

Minnesota's forests are up in third place as a source of new wealth created by our natural resources, the total value of the products of our forests marketed last year being 162 million dollars. Our forests now produce more wealth and provide more employment annually than at any time in the history of the state. We now have a constructive program of protection and reforestation that assures a steady increase in the importance of this crop. And, best of all, we now can quit complaining about a past generation that did not recognize the importance of this resource and feel good because we finally are proving ourselves to be more far sighted than they.

When we consider how many of our young men and how many of our dollars have been lost in Korea it is easy for us to become impatient with President Syngman Rhee and his followers for what appears to us to be a very obstinate position on the proposed truce. After all, the Republic of Korea is just as large now as it was at the beginning of the invasion. But in such matters we gain nothing by exploding and we are glad Ike is able to give them soft answers. Nothing would better serve the interests of the Reds than to have us square off and tell the South Koreans to hush up and we'll run the show.

Last year's 55 day nationwide steel strike is costing the state of Minnesota five million dollars in taxes due this year on last year's reduced ore production. This lost revenue is an unpleasant reminder of the fact that our state does not have a very stable tax base. Just a little dip in industrial activity and business volume could create an emergency in the state's finances.

Whatever else may come out of the discouraging progress toward peace in Korea we can get some satisfaction for the time being at least out of being on friendly terms with Prime Minister Nehru of India. He and President Eisenhower exchanged friendly greetings and best wishes over the prisoner of war exchange agreement. In the war for freedom from Red domination in Asia, whether it is hot or cold, there is still hope as long as the government of India is friendly to us.

Sate Saving on Tires

Our state purchasing division reports that bids on auto and truck tires just taken will effect a substantial saving to the state during the coming year. Because it buys in volume, insists on competitive bids & pursues other practices that promote a healthy contest for the state's business, our purchasing officials naturally are able to buy at a much lower price than the individual buyer. Under the bids just received, for instance, the state will be able to buy the common 670x15 4-ply auto tire at $10.58 each, whereas the individual will find this tire priced in retail stores at $22.05. It will be able to buy an 825x20 10-ply truck tire for $43 under the bids received, while the individual purchaser buying at retail will be asked to pay $89.20.

Our central purchasing department is recognized as one of the best in the country and its officials constantly are seeking opportunity for saving in the huge purchases it makes.

William Stevenson, assistant Minnesota purchasing agent, has gone to Topeka, Kansas for a few days to help establish a new department of administration, authorized by the recent Kansas Legislature. An important feature of the Kansas plan is a central purchasing office, similar to our Minnesota division of purchases, which is being counted on by Kansas officials to make a big saving.

Household Assessments

G. Howard Spaeth, state tax commissioner, has given me an interesting report showing the wide variation in assessments for the much debated tax on household goods.

Out of 845,265 dwelling units in the state in 1950, Spaeth said, occupants of only 584,510, or about 69%, had an assessment for household gods listed against them. In Ramsey County, occupants of only 49% of the household units were listed with assessments for household goods; in Hennepin County, only 54.8%; in St. Louis County, 50%. In Brown, Carver and Itasca Counties, more than 95% of the occupants of households had assessments for household goods. In a few counties, the figure exceeded 100%.

Variation among municipalities likewise was considerable. A few had quite low percentages. Among them was one, with only 11.6% of the households having an assessment on household goods; another, with 10.7%; one, with 12.4%; one, with 17%, and one with 21%. Some of the municipalities, on the other hand, had an assessment on household goods equal to or nearly equal to the number of households.

Political Roundup

By Arthur Naftalin

The average voter may be somewhat apathetic about politics at this season of the year. It's vacation time, and the next elections are a good 15 months away. But Minnesota politicoes are taking no vacation; they are, in fact, scurrying here and there in as active an off-season period as we've seen in some time.

Minnesota Republicans made hay last week with President Eisenhower in the state. There wasn't much time to talk politics, but GOP leaders were amply photographed in the presence of the President, and the occasion was used for the making of confident predictions of big victories in 1954.

Judd Booming Continues

Republicans utilized every opportunity to push Congressman Walter H. Judd into the forefront. Everyone takes this to mean that there is some seriousness behind the oft-stated reports that Judd will make the run against Senator Humphrey next year.

At Rapid City, S. D., where President Eisenhower rested after his tour, Senator Karl Mundt, a leading Republican strategist, plugged the Judd cause. He said Judd had indicated to him that he would make the race "if the party gets behind him early enough so that he can make a good, long campaign out of it and not come in late."

Mundt said the party has "a fighting chance" to defeat Humphrey. There is, of course, little question but what Judd can have the GOP nomination, virtually without opposition, if he wants it, and is assured of strong Party support. So the only question that really remains is whether Judd wants to risk his seat in Congress.

Humphrey Keeps Busy

Humphrey has said he hopes the GOP runs its strongest candidate against him so as to ensure a campaign on the issues. Humphrey's enthusiastic supporters are confident of his re-election, but Humphrey is the kind of campaigner that never takes anything as important as his re-election for granted.

So Humphrey is accepting speaking dates in the state as often as he feels he can get away from Washington. He was in the state again last weekend, his visit being highlighted by a testimonial dinner for Congressman John Blatnik in Duluth.

More Candidates Listed

My last week's column had hardly been put in print before some Republicans and Democrats were coming forth with still more names that they say should have been included in my listing of nine prospective Republican candidates for Senate and nine possible Democrat-Farmer-Laborite candidates for Governor.

Other Republican possibilities for Senate include Theodore Christianson of St. Paul, associate justice of the supreme court and son of the late three-term Governor; Lawrence M. Gould, president of Carleton College at Northfield, and Alf Bergerud of Edina, state representative and leader of the conservative group.

Add to the list of DFL'ers being mentioned: Byron G. Allen, the Party's national committeeman and nominee for Governor in 1944; Thomas Gallagher of Minneapolis, another associate supreme court justice, and Robert Sheran of Mankato, former state representative who ran for lieutenant-governor in 1948.

Stassen's Work Praised

Reports from Washington indicate that former Governor Harold Stassen is receiving much favorable attention for his work as director of the Mutual Security Agency. Stassen, the reports say, has firmly taken hold of the agency, at the same time maintaining as satisfactory relations with Congress as can be expected.

Stassen's stock fell to a low point during the Republican convention, but soared up again when he stepped into the Eisenhower campaign and became one of the top advisers and strategists. Now as an administrative official he is regarded as the "bright star" in the Eisenhower family by some observers. There is even talk that he may succeed John Foster Dulles as Secretary of State.

Eugenie Returns Home

Eugenie Anderson has returned to her home in Red Wing after completing a term of distinguished service as the United States ambassador to Denmark. Mrs. Anderson says she is going to write a book describing her personal experiences as the nation's first woman ambassador, but will otherwise take it easy for a while. She still refuses to indicate any interest in elective office.

Her friends are planning a large statewide reception in her honor for next September 12.

Hoyer Re-elected Mayor

The Minneapolis city election produced no surprises. The Republicans had hoped to elect their candidate mayor in an effort to strengthen their position for 1954 in the city and also to name a progressive (conservative) city council. As it turned out, however, Eric Hoyer was re-elected to a third term by a substantial margin and the city council was divided eight to five in favor of the liberals. The outcome actually proved very little, if anything, about political trends within the city, but to the extent it was a victory for either GOP or DFL, the latter could claim the advantage.

Colombia and Venezuela carried on negotiations over a border dispute for 122 years, possibly the longest in history.

Let us show you how good baled hay can be

The best way to judge hay quality is to examine it in the barn this time of year. Here are some things you will notice about rolled bales:

1. The hay is bright and green — just like it was baled.
2. Leaves are sealed inside the bale — almost no leaf loss during handling.
3. Bales that have been rained on are still good — they shed the showers.
4. Rolled bales handle without waste — won't buckle, break or fall apart.
5. Rolled bales are easy to feed — rolled out, cut open or fed whole.

Let us show you why hay in rolled bales is winning blue ribbons for quality at leading shows. Your livestock needs the best.

Gilmer Anderson had a frightening experience a few days ago. It was raining real hard and he was hooking up some equipment to his tractor under the high line wires. The rain water carried enough electricity from falling on the hi-line wires and on to Gilmer that it knocked him down. It was hot enough that the skin between his fingers became blistered. He wasn't knocked out so he was able to get away from under the wires but this will serve as a warning to us as an unexpected danger.

Pay more? What for?

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts. Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

1. A V-8 engine—powerful and pleasant! Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!

2. America's most economical Six engine! If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker . . . the engine which, with optional Overdrive, won over all other cars in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run!

3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive! Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter.

4. Automatic gas savings! Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely.

5. America's newest and finest power steering! Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Steering is up to 75% easier.

6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field! Ford alone gives you a choice of 18 different models . . . a SIX or V-8 . . . Fordomatic, Conventional or Overdrive . . . the widest variety of body, color and upholstery combinations.

7. A body that's the style-setter! Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a hull-tight Crestmark Body . . . the trendmaker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest.

8. New driving conveniences! Ford's first in its field with "Worth More" features like . . . easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes . . . foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models . . . and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.

9. An automatically controlled ride! The wide front tread (widest in the low-price field) takes tilt out of turns . . . gives you a more level ride. With new "balanced suspension," new spring and shock absorber action and new rubber compression bumpers, road shock in the front end alone is reduced up to 80%.

10. It's worth more when you sell it! An impartial survey of used car prices proved that Fords return a greater proportion of their original cost than any other cars in America.

But don't take our word for it. Stop in and Test-Drive this Ford for yourself. We predict you'll be sold before you're in second! It was true last year and it's even truer this year: you can pay more, but you can't buy better than Ford.

WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT . . .
WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT . . . Ford

ORE BOATS: FULL SPEED AHEAD

GREAT LAKES SEAMAN Russell Brause doesn't have much time to check those gauges—his vessel only stays in port long enough to take on another load of Minnesota iron ore. Soon it will be on its way again to the steel mills, hauling the ore that is essential to America's defense production. Minnesota's iron mining industry is making every effort to meet the nation's demands, and still conserve our state's ore supply. This is being accomplished through increasing use of low-grade ores and taconite which today are being concentrated into usable material for the blast furnaces. Concentration, however, is costly, and these ores must compete with ore from other areas. They can do so only if our mining industry is treated as fairly as other Minnesota industries.

Trouble at MacGruder's
(Boys will be boys)
Friday, they moved in the new house. Saturday it all happened. First Eddie MacGruder, 11, hit Billy, 6, in the eye with a stick. A hurry-up phone call brought Doctor Benson. "Nothing serious," he said, bandaging the victim.
Then Billy retaliated—jamming a pretzel-stick in brother Eddie's ear. Again the telephone summoned the doctor to remove it. Again, no permanent damage.
Finally Joey, 8, another brother, took his turn. Stuffing an apple in a sock, he whirled it around. It slipped, struck the two-months old baby.
Answering a third phone call, Doctor Benson found the infant unharmed. "You're lucky," he remarked, "to reach me so quickly each time."
John MacGruder, the father, smiled. "We certainly are lucky, doctor. Our phone was just installed yesterday afternoon."
The story above is true, although names have been changed to protect the privacy of the people in it. What happened at the MacGruder's may never happen at your house. But whatever or whenever the emergency, your telephone will be ready—24 hours a day, every day of the year.
To provide this dependable telephone service—to families like the MacGruders and to you—your telephone company must have reasonable rates. With them we can pay good workers, buy and maintain good equipment. With them we can continue to make your telephone service worth more than it costs.
Do you know a true telephone story like this? Send it to Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., Omaha, Nebraska.

MINNESOTA FORESTS HELP MAKE NEWS

Northwoods travelers this year will have new signs to read; certain sections in six different counties will be marked, "State Land—This Forest is Managed for Continuous Production—State of Minnesota, department of conservation, division of forestry."

—A 40 year old stand of white pine should yield 1,000 board feet per acre, 80 years 7,000 feet, 120 years 11,900 and, if you can wait, 160 years brings a million dollar research program pointed toward better lumber products and lower home building costs.

—Cyclones that rarely reach print topple Minnesota forest giants at an estimated annual loss of half a million dollars.

The national debt has increased more than 10-fold in the past 20 years. A treasury report says the debt was $22.5 billion when President Roosevelt took office in 1933. Now it is more than "67 billion—or about $1,700 per capita."

The young of kangaroos, animals which grow to seven feet in height and may weigh 300 pounds, are less than an inch long at birth.

The United States has put to use only about 15 per cent of its total water power resources believed to be economically and technically feasible for development.

Local Scouts Join in Mud Lake Camporee

One hundred and six Boy Scouts and Explorers attended the Pen-Ro-Shall district Camporee held at Mud Lake game refuge near Holt, Minnesota on Saturday, June 6, and Sunday, June 7. Long time scouters stated that this was the largest and best Camporee they had ever seen in the district.

The Saturday program consisted of a nature contest won by Troop 112 of Holt; a signaling contest won by Troop 112; a knot tying contest also won by Troop 112 of Holt; and a first aid contest won by Troop 60 of Thief River Falls. Recreational games and an inspection of the individual troop areas completed the afternoon program. Each troop present put on a short stunt for the Saturday evening campfire program. A new unit, Troop 160 of the Community Methodist church in Thief River Falls, was given the honor of lighting the Campfire.

A fire building contest and pancake making contest began the Sunday activities. Roger Nelson from Troop 56 of Roseau won the fire building contest and David Rasmussen from Troop 60 of Thief River Falls won in pancake making. Two inspections of troop campsites were held during the day.

Church services for Protestant boys and leaders were conducted at the Camporee site by Dale Larson of Thief River Falls. Catholic boys and leaders attended services in Middle River.

A court of honor, well attended by parents and scouters, was held Sunday afternoon. Boys who had earned advancement awards were presented with them by the scoutmaster or explorer advisor of their unit. Awards were also presented to the Troops that won the scoutfrat contests. Troop 145 of Middle River was presented an award for having the highest number of total points in the three area inspections. Troop 112 of Holt was presented with the trophy going to the troop having the highest total points for all events held at the Camporee. This is a traveling trophy which will be kept by Troop 112 until the next Camporee when all units in the district will again compete for it.

Units represented at the Camporee were Troop and Explorer Post 56 of Roseau, Troop 57 of Thief River Falls, Troop 59 of Thief River Falls, Troop and Explorer Post 60 of Thief River Falls, Troop 112 of Holt, Troop 145 of Middle River, and Troop 160 of Thief River Falls.

Amateur spook-busters Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis are no match for a full-fledged zombie. Proof of this fact lies in this scene from "Scared Stiff," Hal Wallis' brand new comedy starring the two laugh demons, at the Falls Theatre starting Sunday for three days. Lizabeth Scott and Carmen Miranda are co-starred in the delightful combination of chills, music and merriment.

Plans Progress for Aquatenial

Minneapolis to Be Host to Area People July 17-26

An aura of anticipation hovers over Minnesota as the Aquatennial season draws near. Visitors from all over the state and, indeed, all over the nation, are planning now to make Minneapolis their vacation headquarters during the annual Minneapolis Aquatennial festival, July 17-26.

In the most spectacular of all summer celebrations, crowds will see two huge color-spattered parades, an elaborate outdoor music festival with over 2,000 performers, the dazzling Aqua Follies, the coronation of the 1954 Queen of the Lakes with elaborate pageantry, and a three-ring, three-lake water circus.

The famous day parade of lavish floats, beautiful girls, visiting celebrities, clowns, and music will march through Minneapolis streets Saturday, July 17, and on the following Wednesday, July 22, the memorable illuminated night parade blazes forth.

Thousands will see the Aqua Follies with its 24 comely Aqua Dears, whose precision swimming and beauty have made the Minneapolis-born Aqua Follies one of the world's outstanding shows. The Aqua Dears, Olympic divers, and the famous Aqua Maniacs will be featured nightly at Theodore Wirth Pool from July 15 through 26.

More than 140 thrilling events make up Aquatennial. Heading the list is Ski Antics, an exciting exhibition of water skiing, plus a great variety of sporting contests and novelty events.

Small Investment Enough for Renter to Start Farming

University Economists Say That as Little as $3,000-$5,000 Is Enough

As little as $3,000-$5,000 is enough to start farming if a person is willing to begin as a renter.

This is brought out in an article in the current issue of Minnesota Farm Business Notes, publication of the University of Minnesota department of agricultural economics and the Minnesota agricultural extension service.

The authors, B. F. Stanton and T. R. Nodland, university of Minnesota agricultural economists, warn that beginning farmers often take a serious risk when they stretch their capital resources to cover both the purchase of the farm and the livestock and equipment necessary to operate it.

A survey conducted by University of Minnesota agricultural economists shows that the average person starting farming during the 1947-51 period in southeastern Minnesota under a livestock and crop arrangement invested only $3,300 from his own savings in the business he operated. Added to $2,600 he borrowed, this means that he supplied only 21 per cent of the total he used.

Stanton and Nodland point out that part of the beginning farmer's capital must be reserved as cash to pay regular operating expenses. They indicate that it may be advisable to start with used rather than new machines and that only the most-necessary machines need to be purchased. The initial investment in machinery can be reduced by hiring such services as trucking, combining and corn picking, the economists suggest.

Other pointers for beginning farmers from Stanton and Nodland include the tip that hogs and poultry provide a quick turnover of investment during the first years while the operator is getting started. Cash crops may also be good bets, they say.

To Spray Old Mill Park for Worms

An allocation of $1,400 for the purpose of spraying eight state park areas for army worm control was made by the L.A.C. to the division of state parks. The public use areas in Gooseberry, Jay Cooke, St. Croix, Lake Bronson, Old Mill, Lake Carlos, Sibley and McCarthy Beach are to be sprayed by airplane. The parks were declared in the critical zones by state entomologist, T. L. Aamodt, after the infestation of worms spread from the original danger areas.

There's only one answer...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks.

If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical then that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost?

That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

Heard About the Electric Weather Predictor?

Squint Smith built up quite a reputation last month by predicting the weather. What he said usually came true.

It got so that folks would sit around his little Antique Shop just to get his opinion.

Last Monday, though, he said he didn't know what the weather was going to be like next day. That surprised us and when we asked what happened, Squint said, "Slipped up on my electric bill and was turned off. I'll get to my radio again tomorrow though." Squint had been getting the weather over the radio—just like anyone else!

From where I sit, that's the way it goes with some "experts." They often don't have any more inside information than you can get for yourself. Like those who "know" cider is the only thirst-quencher after a day's work. Far as I'm concerned, I'll take a temperate glass of beer. But—I won't try to "predict" your choice for you.

Grilles in Buick's exclusive dual roof ducts insure draft free distribution of conditioned air—and also provide individual control of air direction as desired.

Return air grilles on package shelf help maintain continuous circulation of conditioned, pollen free air.

Air intakes on each side of car introduce outside air into system.

Air Conditioning on wheels* comes of age!

Now you can have a car that's as comfortable on hot days as your air-conditioned home, office or favorite theater.

Now you can ride in draft-free coolness at the temperature level you choose—even when the outside reading is 110° and more.

Now you can take a full complement of passengers through the thick of traffic on a sweltering day—and each one of you will keep looking and feeling fresh as a daisy at dewtime.

You do this with the compact Buick AIRCONDITIONER—the completely practical unit available at extra cost in 1953 SUPER and ROADMASTER Sedan and Riviera models.

But note this: what Buick put into its AIRCONDITIONER goes beyond the usual.

For the advanced design of this Buick unit provides dual roof ducts that distribute up to 300 cubic feet of cooled, freshened, filtered, air per minute to all parts of the car interior evenly and constantly—without icy blasts and drafts on your neck, shoulders, legs.

What's more, these exclusive roof ducts have individually controlled air directors above the side windows. So each window-seat passenger can guide a gentle breeze of conditioned air exactly where he wants it.

Of course, the Buick AIRCONDITIONER is automatic.

You switch it on, choose the temperature setting you want—and that level of coolness is maintained constantly. It thoroughly conditions the air around you—automatically. It carries off heat, stale air, tobacco smoke—automatically. It continuously introduces outside air into the system—automatically.

It's fast-acting, too. Even after an hour or more locked up under summer's hottest sun, the car interior can be brought to a delightfully-cool comfort in a matter of minutes.

And it's really compact. The cooling unit itself fits neatly on a narrow shelf in the big trunk compartment—leaves plenty of room for luggage and the like.

Why not drop in on us and try a demonstration?

You'll find that the Buick AIRCONDITIONER with its exclusive dual roof ducts is the ultimate comfort in hot-climate driving.

This Is The News That Got Around Fast!
The New Packard CLIPPER
Each year word gets around that this or that car is "the buy."
This year it's the Packard CLIPPER—and here's why—

You are reading about an automobile that has been in the news since the first day it was introduced.

In the news as a new medium-priced line from Packard, America's oldest producer of fine cars.

In the news as a big car in styling, comfort, sturdiness, performance; the kind of car you'd like your family to ride in.

An idea for you—

Say you've got a new car in mind. You have a certain sum of money you can afford to pay for it. Maybe you're thinking that a small, low-priced car is good enough, or one of the other medium-priced cars. All right. Keep your convictions, but also keep an open mind.

Then, before you sign an order—pay a visit to your Packard CLIPPER dealer and give this new car a careful going-over, including a ride of your own choosing! You're in for the surprise of your life! First at the feel, comfort and power of this fine, strong, graceful car—and then at the price!

You'll find that this CLIPPER by Packard is practically in the same price league with dolled-up, low-priced cars.

Why not see your Packard CLIPPER dealer and learn for yourself why the men who know motorcar values best say the CLIPPER is "the buy" of the year.

In addition to the Clipper, PACKARD is building today a car so beautiful and fine that it is applauded everywhere as "America's new choice in fine cars." Ask the man who owns one—today!

Did you know that you can own a Packard CLIPPER 4-Door Sedan (illustrated above)
FOR ONLY 2728* Delivered in T. R. Falls
*Plus state and local taxes, if any. Optional equipment and white sidewall tires extra. Prices may vary slightly in nearby communities due to shipping charges.

Don't miss Packard Invitation Month
● See for yourself the fine new cars that make the New Packard Program the big story of this automotive year. 25 beautiful new cars will be awarded those who participate. Visit your Packard dealer as soon as possible for details.

Take Your Own Doctor's Advice, Medical Director Says

"When it comes to looking to your future health and well-being, it makes good sense to take the advice of your own doctor," says Dr. Edwin J. Simons, Medical Director, Minnesota Medical Service, Incorporated.

"Your doctor has devoted his lifetime to safeguarding your health and that of your family. In important decisions, like choosing a medical-surgical plan to prepay the cost of medical-surgical costs," Dr. Simons says, "remember, your doctor has seen all of these plans in action."

"Over 2,800 Minnesota Doctors of Medicine," Dr. Simons says, "recommend a low-cost medical-surgical care plan that is incorporated under the non-profit laws of Minnesota — Minnesota Blue Shield. These 2,800 Doctors of Medicine," he says, "actively participate in Blue Shield."

Blue Shield, and its companion plan for hospital care, Minnesota Blue Cross, are non-profit organizations. They were founded only to provide the finest medical-hospital care protection to all at the lowest possible cost.

Complete free details on these plans may be obtained by writing directly to Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Dept. WP-2, 2610 University Avenue, St. Paul 14, Minnesota. "There is no obligation," Dr. Simons says, "and no salesman will call."

OUR LAND

Prepared by the Minnesota Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with University Farm, St. Paul

How Deep?—Cultivating corn deep enough to prune roots any time from the second cultivation on usually results in 10 bushels or more reduction in yield, says Harold Jones, extension specialist in Soils at the University of Minnesota. "Tilling 2½ to 3 inches deep with a sweep-type cultivator shovel will generally control grass-type weeds and at the same time avoid root pruning during the second and subsequent cultivations," according to Jones. "Cultivating deep enough to plow out large weeds missed during the first cultivation does more harm than good. Farmers should check depth of corn root growth and set the cultivator so as to avoid cutting off roots."

Need More Land?—If you need more land, the best solution may be to build up the fertility of the land you have. You can build fertility cheaper than you can buy it in the form of new land, according to the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. By investing $50 to $75 per acre you can make fair or "middle class" land the equal of top-yielding soil within a year or two, says the Committee. Four necessary steps are given: 1. Add lime as needed; 2. Use a full application (up to 1,000 pounds per acre) of fertilizer; 3. Use rotations with legumes and grasses to mellow the soil; 4. Return leaves, stubble and other crop residues to the soil.

Who Pays?—Cost of the face-lifting field day scheduled for September in the LeSueur Soil Conservation District will run about $1200, according to the District supervisors. They expect to raise the money from contributions of local businessmen. The expenses are for liability insurance, publicity, awards for the plowed and other special items. The Scott and Carver County Soil Conservation Districts are assisting with the event, which is to be held on the Horrisberger Brothers farm in Tyrone Township.

Estimated weight of the earth is something above six sextillion tons.

MAYBE CRICKET READ THE AD

Ray Nelson lives at Hills and has a parakeet—that is, ha—no, he has a parakeet. One recent evening said parakeet took advantage of an open door, a fine evening, and a primeval wanderlust to go definitely AWOL. Ray, as everyone should in such circumstances, took off with equal promtitude and purpose for the local newspaper, the Hills Crescent to insert a want ad; which said, among other things, that the AWOL parakeet would answer to the call "Hi Cricket." Next day one of Art Rogness' boys mentioned to his dad an unusual bird in the yard. As all good people should, Art had read the local paper and the want ads. So he went out, called "Hi, Cricket," and lo-Ray Nelson has a parakeet.

He's Done Something for Himself!
Only a few short minutes ago, the man you see in the picture above was handed the golden keys to his 1953 Cadillac—and now he's off on that first delightful journey behind the wheel.
And as he leans back against the deep, soft cushion, and looks out over that proud hood into the roadway beyond . . . well, he knows that he's done something for himself!
He knows it just from the way he feels there in the driver's seat—rested, relaxed, and at peace with the world . . . completely confident that he has made the wisest possible choice of a motor car.
He senses it in the marvelous way the car handles and drives and rides . . . so effortless and smooth and quiet that it's a joy and an inspiration just to hold the wheel in his hands.
And he knows it, too, from the feeling of pride and satisfaction he enjoys as he looks forward to the delight of his family and the approval of his acquaintances and friends.
And how the miles and the years will bear him out in his conviction!
Let him arrive at a distinguished hotel . . . or an exclusive club . . . and he will find that his Cadillac constitutes the perfect "letter of introduction."
In fact, let him travel wherever he will in this broad land of ours . . . and he will find his Cadillac a trustworthy and unfailing companion, an inspiration to own and drive, a valued contributor to a magnificent way of life.
Yes, you're looking at a man who's done something wonderful for himself—wonderful beyond even his fondest dreams.
And if you think it's time you did something for yourself, then we suggest you come in and see us.
Let's make it "Cadillac time" for you!

"I've already spent over $300 on studio lessons for my oldest son, Kenneth. He still has a long way to go to finish the Vavro Accordion Course. Now my other son Jim is also taking the Vavro Accordion Course at no extra expense. If I had had this course 3 years ago I could have saved enough to pay for Kenneth's accordion."

"I have three daughters taking the Vavro recorded Music Course since last December, and I am amazed at the progress of the girls. They practice when they can and we don't have to push them because they don't have to meet a scheduled lesson. I'm sure there is no better way or more inexpensive way to learn to play the piano."

Oklee-Plummer Assn. Buys 2 Fire Engines

Officers of the Oklee-Plummer Rural Fire Fighting association accepted bids on two complete units of equipment at a meeting in Oklee Tuesday June 9, according to the Oklee Herald.

Hintz Fire Equipment Co., Fargo, N. D., was successful bidder on equipment for the two trucks while successful bidder on the two truck chassis was Forkenbrock Motor company of Thief River Falls.

One truck will be housed in Plummer and the other in Oklee. Equipment on the two trucks will include 500-gallon water tanks complete with hose, ladders, extensions, etc., to meet Minnesota rural class "B" specifications.

The association's acceptance of bids climaxes a program of many months planning in which a series of meetings were held to inform rural property owners of opportunities offered through this type of organization. First intended to be a county-wide program, the Oklee and Plummer communities proceeded together after the west end of the county indicated they would operate separately with the city of Red Lake Falls.

The meeting in Oklee Tuesday night officially formed the Oklee Plummer association with the signing of a joint agreement. The area to be served was designated as follows:

The townships of Lambert, Poplar River, Equality, Garnes, and Emardville in Red Lake county and the townships of Chester in Polk county. They also propose to service portions of townships bordering the established area and expressed the hope they would be able to service portions at least of the townships of Gervais and River.

The association board of directors includes Henry Paul of Lambert township as chairman. Art Lussier of Poplar River township, Osmund Hofstad of Equality, Frank Linder of Garnes, Selmer Moen of Chester, Lloyd Mjones of Emardville, G. R. Clemenson, mayor of Oklee, and Elmer Kopp, mayor of Plummer. Dave Ostby, Lowell Sovde, Ed Jacobson and W. B. Seeger form an advisory committee.

It is estimated that about 77 million acres of forest land need to be replanted over a period of years if timber production is to be maintained and proper forest cover assured.

State Four-H'ers to National Camp

Four Minnesota 4-H club members will be in Washington, D. C., this week (June 17-24) attending the twenty-third National 4-H Club Camp.

Left to right, they are Melva Lou Roforth, 18, Granada, Martin county; Allen Croone, 19, Chisago City, Chisago county; Catherine Keltgen, 19, St. Peter, Nicollet county; and James Rabehl, 19, Rochester, Olmsted county.

The award of a trip to the camp is considered one of the most coveted honors in 4-H club work. The delegates were chosen on the basis of their achievements in leadership and community service and completion of projects in agriculture and homemaking. They have been club members for from seven to 10 years and are junior leaders. All of them have won county, state and national honors.

Ninety Pieces of Equipment to Be Shown at Hay Day

Demonstrations to Be Given at All-day Program at N. W. School June 23

More than 90 pieces of hay and silage making equipment will be put through its paces at Minnesota Hay Day, to be held at the University of Minnesota's Northwest School and Experiment Station, Crookston, Tuesday, June 23.

Hay Day is being sponsored cooperatively by the University of Minnesota Institute of Agriculture and The Farmer magazine.

The equipment, provided by various dealers, will include stackers, field harvesters, elevators, rakes, blowers, balers, driers, self-unloading wagons, crushers, mowers, silos and others.

The equipment will be demonstrated in the field during an all-day program which will begin at 10 a. m.

Following field demonstrations in the morning, a noon hour program will be featured by an address on "Forage Crops in Efficient Livestock Production," by Dr. W. M. Myers, head of the University of Minnesota agronomy department and one of the world's top authorities on forage production.

The noon program will also include a panel discussion on making and using hay and hay-crop silage, with T. M. McCall, superintendent of the Northwest School and Station, acting as moderator.

During the afternoon, the program will be devoted to making silage. Visiting farmers will be able to see how silage preservatives are used and how different grass silage making methods work.

INCIDENTALLY

Ambitious ewes presented to Stanley Amsden at Windom this spring not one set, but two perfect sets of quadruplet lambs, all normal and healthy.—Eggs within eggs are fairly common. Comes now from the S. E. Gieseke garden in Mankato a potato growing from within a potato. —A city police officer and a state highway patrolman recuperated, the one from a slight injury, the other from an operation, in the same room of a Brainerd hospital.—Mrs. Helen Kalscheuer, West St. Paul, could equip many Cinderellas from her collection of more than 400 glass slippers representing every state and many foreign countries.—When Eddie Adams got the red tape of international travel cut, even the coronation couldn't keep him in England and he's now on the job in the mechanical department of Worthington Daily Globe.—For 25 years Mrs. E. L. Kaplan's lady slipper plant, Minnesota state flower, has bloomed regularly at Albert Lea.

Big Tree Planting Project Carried out on Highways

Half-million Trees Set out This Spring from St. Cloud to Elk River

More than one-half million small trees were planted on a 35-mile roadside from Elk River to St. Cloud and 120,000 on a dozen other highway projects to complete a record-breaking planting program for one year by the highway department. Planting was started the third week of April and completed the first week of June and more than 650,000 trees were put into the ground.

Two planting machines, powered by tractors and crews of three men planted from forty to forty-five thousand trees per day, in rows of seven to nine about forty inches between rows and trees on the Elk River-St. Cloud highway.

The masses of trees will have multiple use, for snow and sand control, erosion prevention, screening and beautification.

Harold Olson, forester in charge of roadside development, stated that other plantings, such as that between Zimmerman and Princeton, have proven of great value in snow control. Several miles of highway plantings have been made in previous years, but with planting machines the rate can be increased considerably.

Conifers, such as Norway and jack pines, spruces, red and white cedar were used along the highway, with elm, ash, lilac, and dolgo crab used for planting on the approaches to towns.

OH! FOR THE LIFE OF A SAILORMAN

By reason of ore, timber, grain, and possibly some other products, Minnesota has a greater interest in great lakes shipping that the average reader is likely to have knowledge thereof. Lake Carriers Association, Cleveland 13, Ohio, issues an interesting and informative monthly bulletin, from which you may glean that lakes sailors go to school during the frozen winter months to help gain advancement on ship or in dock jobs; that three big lake vessels have been launched so far this year; that the carriers are watching taconite development with keen interest, because of the volume of Minnesota ore business; that a Merchant Marine librarian says sailors are "mighty choicy" in their reading; that the Benn Fairless "locked through the Soo upbound on March 28"—earliest boat of the season; that nearly every lake freighter can carry a few passengers on what is said to be a pleasant, restful, scenic tour.

Hail & Windstorm

The Minnesota Farmers Mutual takes this attitude towards those who suffer losses thru Hail or Windstorm that each policy-holder is a member of a large Co-operative and that no one will begrudge anyone an entirely fair adjustment of any Hail or Windstorm loss. So they settle according to what is fair and right.

IT'S TIME TO GET UNDER COVER. WE CANNOT INSURE HAILED GRAIN.

AS MARGARINE AND BUTTER SLUG IT OUT

This might be called "the battle of the bulge," though little has been said about the calory content. Anyway, the University publishes enlightening findings regarding butter-margarine competition. At 50¢ a pound 81 per cent say they would buy butter; with butter at $1.00 a pound 47 per cent would buy margarine—Webster says that's a "hard g," like in garden—On $60 income 16 per cent of families use margarine only, up to $100 11 per cent above that figure about 3.5 percent. In 1938 86 per cent used butter only, now 61.4 percent, then only 3.5 per cent used both butter and margarine, now 29 per cent; then less than 1 per cent used margarine only, now almost 10 percent. Nearly 80 per cent of margarine buyers color it, 26 per cent would buy more if it were colored, 33 percent would pay more for colored margarine.

Many Projects Are Discussed at C. C. Session

Meeting Thursday Told City to Be Host to Big Church Meeting in 1954

Numerous current and future projects were discussed at a dinner meeting of the Civic and Commerce association last Thursday evening in the Elks club rooms, but the scheduled "gripe" session failed to materialize, no members responding to President L. A. Ihle's request for criticisms of the local situation.

Alvin Christofferson, chairman of the conventions committee, reported that Thief River Falls had been awarded the 1954 national convention of the Lutheran Free Church, and that approximately 500 persons are expected to attend. He added that there is a possibility that this city will be host to the 1955 convention of the Minnesota State Elks association.

Don Lawrence announced that the annual soil conservation tour this year will cover 80 miles, ranging as far east as Goodridge and south to Clearwater River. A poll of the audience revealed that a majority favored Monday, July 6, as the date of the tour.

Wallace Tunberg, chairman of the aeronautics committee, reported that as many as 3,000 persons from thruout this area are expected to attend the airport dedication program August 15 and 16. He said the committee had received assurances that the Army Air Force at Fort Snelling will cooperate by supplying planes and possibly a band. The program also will include a banquet and luncheon.

Ray Mitteness, chairman of the agriculture committee, told of plans for a picnic in the Thief River Falls tourist park Sunday, June 28, arranged in recognition of the many North Dakota farmers who have moved into this area in recent years. A program of talks and musical numbers is being arranged.

Mayor Harry E. Simons reported on recent successful efforts by local officials to secure a state allotment of $8,500 for airport lighting. He explained that if the federal grant originally allocated for the same purpose is reinstated, the state grant may be used to finance the installation of instrument landing equipment at the local airport.

Bill LaFave, chairman of the road committee, reported on a recent conference with Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann, and said there is no likelihood of any construction work being done this year on the new route for Highway 59 north from Lancaster to the border. He added that he was informed the highway department has on file 800 applications for constructions of new bridges.

Secretary J. M. Roche announced that the association had been invited to be represented at a meeting in Drayton, N. D., Thursday with agents of a beet sugar company planning the construction of one or more additional refineries in the Red River Valley.

The meeting closed with a talk by Judge Paul A. Lundgren on the fund drive for the Northwestern Hospital addition. He stated that clearance had been given by the state board of health, and that bids on the project will be opened July 16.

Judge Lundgren declared that the fund drive must be made a community project if it is to be a success. He added that it will be necessary to have the required amount of pledges on hand before the contract is let, and that if Thief River Falls is unable to qualify, the federal grant of more than $480,000 will be lost to the local project and turned over to Alexandria, which city also has an application for a grant pending.

With Guardsmen at Camp Ripley

"Well shut my eyes and pass the ammunition," says Pvt. Jerome Johnson, Luverne, left, to Pvt. Donald Swanson, Thief River Falls. The men are members of Minnesota National Guard 47th "Viking" division now in training at Camp Ripley, near Little Falls.

When they are on the rifle ranges, safety measures taken by the military provide that no piece will be loaded until the man is ready to fire. That is why Johnson gets into position, makes sure his sling is tight, tries aiming and squeezing the trigger before Swanson, who acts as his coach, will hand him the live ammunition to fire at the targets in the distant background.

Hospital Plans Get Approval; Bids Opened Thursday, July 16

Award of Contract Held Subject to Success of Current Fund Campaign

Final approval of the plans for the addition to Northwestern Hospital by officers of the Public Health Service was secured in Minneapolis Wednesday, the hospital association being represented by board members Paul A. Lundgren and Frank Rinkel. Because of delays in securing official approval an extension of time for the opening of bids was also granted. Advertising for bids is published in this week's issue of the Times, the letting date being set for Thursday, July 16.

Judge Lundgren stated that preliminary arrangements appear to be in good order. Several contractors have indicated an intention to submit bids and costs are expected to be well within the estimates. Official approval of the specifications leaves only the financing problem to worry about, he said. The extension of time for the opening of bids gives more time for the completion of the soliciting and every effort is being made to assure its success.

Officially recorded at drive headquarters are new pledges totalling $32,540. The unofficial returns covering promises for which pledge cards have not yet been turned in account for another several thousand dollars. Two solicitors working in Rocksbury township report an additional $2,500 promised to date. Of the more than 50 teams assigned to solicitation of the Thief River Falls business section only seven teams have made official reports on their progress.

Judge Lundgren, in charge of the overall fund raising campaign expressed confidence last night that the objective of $97,000 in new cash or pledges would be achieved. "The results are most gratifying wherever the actual solicitations have been made," he said. "The problem is [illegible] and that problem is gradually being overcome. When we consider that not much more than a week has passed and that a great deal of work has been done that has not yet borne fruit I think we have a right to feel encouraged. It must be an all-out drive from now on."

Bicycle Parade to Be Staged Thursday, 2:30

Bicycle riders of the Thief River Falls community will be the center of interest Thursday afternoon when 100 boys and girls will appear with their gaily decorated bikes in a safety-promoting parade which will get under way at the municipal Auditorium at 2:30, proceeding thru the business district and back to the Auditorium, where prizes will be awarded and soft drinks distributed.

Frank Riley, manager of the local Montgomery Ward store, who is serving as chairman of the event, announced that valuable prizes will be awarded for the best and most originally decorated bicycles, with a new model bike as first prize.

Judges of the parade will be Sheriff Arthur Rambeck, chairman of the Pennington County Safety Council; Chief Ken Judy and Lawrence Runger of the local police department and J. M. Roche, secretary of the Civic and Commerce association.

Serving with the Ward store as co-sponsors of the event are the Coast-to-Coast Store, Gambles, Western Auto, Kelly Hardware, Ace Hardware, Bridgeman's, Creameries, Kavanaugh Studio, Parkins Corner Drug, Johnnie's Hamburger Shop, Kiewel Products Co., New J & B Drugs, Rex Cafe, Pharmacy, and Falls and Avalon Theatres.

Riley stated that all contestants are requested to report at the Auditorium Thursday afternoon at 1:30.

There will be no registration fee of any kind. A list of safety rules and contest rules will be given each rider at the time of registration. Any bicycle rider young or old, may enter this event by filling out an entry blank in the sporting goods department of Montgomery Ward & Company.

Baskets of white peonies, glads, and gypsophila, before a background of palms and candelabra, provided a beautiful altar setting for the wedding of Miss Helen Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green of this city, and Herbert Seline, son of Mrs. Signe Seline of Mora, Minnesota, at the Zion Lutheran Church at two-thirty Sunday afternoon. Rev. Walter M. Pedersen prompted the exchange of vows in a double-ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, a prelude of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Reuben Lockrem, and Mrs. Walter Pedersen sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." During the exchange of rings, Mrs. Pedersen sang "O Promise Me" and as the couple knelt at the altar, "The Lord's Prayer." Given in marriage by her father, the bride entered in a gown of white nylon lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin, styled with long tapered sleeves, sheer yoke, fitted bodice, and skirt front tiered with nylon tulle. Her veil of nylon tulle was caught with a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. Garlands of stephanotis, surrounded by feathered carnations and lilies-of-the-valley and centered with a white orchid corsage made up the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Clifford Larson attended her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Palmer Lorenson, Mrs. Ben Hamre, and Mrs. Wm. H. Soeby, also sisters of the bride. Sandra Lorenson, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Loren R. Ness Arlayne Brown Wed in Bemidji

Baskets of gladioli and lighted candelabra graced the altar of the First Lutheran Church at Bemidji for the wedding of Arlayne Mae Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brown of Bemidji, and Loren Richard Ness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ness of Thief River Falls. Rev. Leif Evans officiated at the double ring service which took place at eight o'clock Friday evening, May 29.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of cloud white tulle over satin. Chantilly lace formed the waist and wide front panel and the long sleeved fingertip bolero jacket with a mandarin collar. Her only jewelry was a three strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations designed in the form of a cross. Her fingertip veil was caught in a satin crown which was trimmed in a lace effect of seed pearls.

Joan Meinzer, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Lois Ness, sister of the groom, and Barbara Goranson, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns made of light blue dotted nylon with bolero jackets. Their headdresses were of nylon shirred ruffling with veil. White sheer nylon gloves completed their costumes. They carried nosegays of yellow carnations and wore pearl earrings, gifts of the bride.

The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, James Welton, and ushers were Gordon Fordyce, also a brother-in-law, and Wayne Levorson.

Janet Brown, sister of the bride accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Stout at the organ, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception followed in the parlors of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Gordon Fordyce and Mrs. James Welton, sisters of the groom, were in charge of the gift table, Lorraine Grygiel, cousin of the bride, the guest book. Mrs. Russ Meinzer poured while Mrs. Ben Goranson cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Carol and Myrna Helgeson waited on the table.

Thrills Tournament Is Set for July 29, 30 at Pennington Fair

The 52d annual Pennington county fair will offer something new in competition when the Tournament of Thrills is staged on the race track in front of the grand stand on Wednesday night, July 29, and Thursday afternoon, July 30.

In order to select both a national championship team among stuntmen and an individual champion, the International Stuntmen's Ass'n. of Hollywood has authorized a series of contests to be held at major fairs.

Teams representing the top thrill shows, and stuntmen garnered from the field of motion pictures, racing drivers and thrill circuses will compete for gold and glory.

Among teams competing here will be the Hollywood Stuntmen; Canadian Aces; Texas Lonestars and the well known Chitwood Daredevils.

These stuntmasters will wheel speeding automobiles over elevated rampways and skis on one and two wheels, through fire and flame and deliberately crash roll stock automobiles in attempts to win top places in the national ratings.

The Tournament of Thrills promises a series of open competitions in nearly every stunt in the life of the usual automobile thrill circus. Each Tournament will be packed with death-defying action and spine-tingling thrills.

Grass Farming Is Crookston Topic

Hay Field Day Is Held Tuesday at N. W. School

Farmers attending Minnesota Hay Field Day at Crookston Tuesday were given four reasons why the U. S. must step up its development of grassland farming.

During a program at the University of Minnesota's Northwest School and Experiment Station, W. M. Myers, head of the university's agronomy department, said that immediate reasons for developing more and better grassland farming are the present difficulties of the livestock industry — stockmen must reduce the cost of production; and the need for adjusting cropping schedules to avoid burdensome surpluses of some crops.

As longer-time reasons, Dr. Myers cited increasing population levels and the need for conserving and improving the soil.

He emphasized that the agriculture in this country is still a long way from being grass-minded. "We are still row and cash-crop farmers in our basic thinking," he stated.

Farmers attending Hay Day also saw field demonstrations of hay- and silage-making methods and heard a panel discussion on making and using hay-crop silage. Members of the panel were M. L. Buchanan, head of the animal husbandry department at North Dakota Agricultural College; M. L. Armour, extension agronomist at the University of Minnesota; and William Strickler, farmer from Euclid, Minn. Moderator for the discussion was T. M. McCall, superintendent of the Northwest School and Station.

Trophies Won by Bridgemans Half Pints Drum Corps

Corps Is Accorded Top Honors for Performance in Two Wisconsin Cities

Bridgeman's Half-Pints Drum and Bugle Corps won two victories for themselves during their tour into Wisconsin last week. The corps participated in the Wisconsin state Lions convention in Superior Friday, June 12, where they were used as the lead unit of the parade, with only the Army and Navy color-guard preceding them. The Half-Pints received the champion drum and bugle corps rating and received the Wisconsin state Lions 1st place winners trophy.

In a letter of praise received from Dr. Lloyd Milavitz, parade chairman, he stated "The Half-Pints Drum and Bugle Corps is a most remarkable organization and everyone is most enthusiastic about their efficiency and showmanship. Thank you again for making our parade a huge success."

Saturday evening June 13th, the Half-Pints gave a street performance in Hayward, Wisconsin witnessed by an estimated 15,000 people. On Sunday afternoon June 14th the girls marched in the huge National Musky Festival Parade and the same evening they sweated it out in a stadium review of units. There again they were awarded the winners trophy for the National Musky Festival.

The unit has already received a bid from Ed Parker, chairman for the 1954 event. The two Wisconsin trophies are being displayed at Bridgeman Creameries.

The week's play in the Red River Valley baseball loop was featured by a 12 to 7 defeat that the Alvarado Farmers handed the league-leading Thief River Falls Thieves in a game played at Alvarado on Sunday. The Crookston Pirates, for the second time this season, beated the Red Lake Falls Lakers, winning by an 8 to 5 score in a game played at Red Lake Falls.

The high-light of this week's schedule promises to be the encounter at Crookston on Sunday with the Alvarado club providing the Pirates with first-rate opposition. The Thieves will endeavor to get back into the victory column by defeating the Nielsville club in a game slated for the Fair Grounds diamond. The local club expects to have Wayne Gothe back in the line-up for Sunday's tilt. The Thieves' stellar third baseman missed the Alvarado game, being with a Soo Line wrecker crew on a job in North Dakota. Manager Phil LeGault is undecided as to his choice of pitcher for Sunday's contest, but it is probable that righthander Gene Leslie or southpaw LeRoy Aasland will get the nod. Nielsville will rely on their no-hit ace, righthander Archie Mjelde, with Stan Brekke being available for relief duty.

The local Legion junior baseball team, in the two games played during the week, recorded a tie and a win. Playing here on Thursday evening, against the Grand Forks juniors, the locals, behind the no-hit, no-run pitching of righthander Sid Vraa, played to a seven-inning 0 to 0 tie.

On Tuesday evening, also on the Fair Grounds diamond, coach Ralph Skjod's juniors were forced to overcome a 6 to 3 2nd inning deficit and then rolling up a 21 to 9 victory over the Crookston juniors.

On Thursday evening, in an important tussle, the juniors will play the Red Lake Falls juniors at the Fair Grounds diamond. Coach Darold King's Red Lake Falls club boasts such players as Ken Bombardier, Duane Emard and Dick Williams on the roster. On Tuesday evening, June 30th, the local juniors will journey to Warren for a game against the Warren juniors.

Alvarado Nips Thieves 12-7; Nielsville Next

Locals to Play Here Next Sunday in First League Home Game Since May 3

The Alvarado Farmers with Orv Bergman and Webb Larson raking the local hurlers for a pair of doubles each, and with first baseman Gordy Harstad playing a spectacular game at the initial sack, defeated the Thieves, 12 to 7, in Red River Valley league game played at Alvarado on Sunday afternoon. The Thieves will make their first appearance on the Fair Grounds diamond, in league play, since May 3rd when they meet Nielsville club on Sunday afternoon.

Phil LeGault's club, on a hit batsman, an error, singles by Larry Perkins and Swede Lund, and another error, scored three runs in the opening inning. Alvarado, on a walk to Bob Iverson and a double by Orv Bergman picked up a run in their half of the 1st inning. In the 2nd inning, an error, a single by Don Hagglund, another error, a walk to Orv Bergman, picked up a run in their half of the 1st inning. In the 2nd inning, an error, a single by Don Hagglund, another error, a walk to Orv Bergman, single by Glad Kollin, and Web Larson's bases loaded double, sent five runs across the plate, and shelled southpaw LeGault off the mound, with Gene Leslie coming in to retire Hubert Torkelson on a fly ball to centerfield for the third out.

In the 4th inning, Jack Hoppe opened with a walk, Gerry Stevens lined a single to centerfield, Sid Vraa beat out a bunt to fill the bases, Al Williamson punched a single into right field, scoring Hoppe. Stevens, attempting to score on the hit, was thrown out at a plate, Lowell Larson to Dennis Bergman. Joey Poole sent a ground ball to second base, and Sid Vraa beat Kollin's throw to plate, tallying the second run of the inning. Perkins grounded out, second to first, permitted Williamson to come in with the tying run.

The Thieves' tie score was short lived for the Farmers, in their half of the 4th, rolled up four runs, with Webb Larson poling out a double to drive in two of the four runs.

After the Thieves had added a run in the 5th inning, boosting the locals' score to seven runs, Alvarado's southpaw Don Hagglund pitched shutout ball, giving up a hit in the 6th and another in the 7th. In the 7th inning, Alvarado's Gordy Harstad speared a couple of line drives to snuff out a Thieves rally. Harstad made a backhanded catch of Stevens bid for a hit to open the inning. After Sid Vraa had singled and Al Williamson had walked, Harstad stabbed Joey Poole's line drive, and then stepped on first base to double Williamson.

Cass Lake Takes 8th Region Championship from Prowlers 7 to 3

Cass Lake's veteran righthander, Ronnie Gangelhoff, surviving a 4th inning uprising, pitched Russ Smith's Panthers to a 7 to 3 win over the Prowlers to win the eighth region's baseball championship in the tournament that was concluded at Bagley on Thursday afternoon.

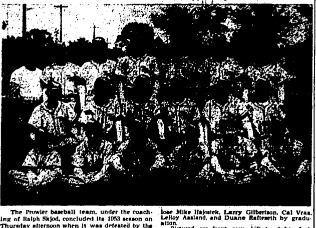
In regional first round games, played on Wednesday afternoon, Cass Lake eliminated Lake Bronson, 14 to 5; and the Prowlers, playing their finest game of the year, defeated the defending region and state champions, the Halstad Pirates, 4 to 1.

In the state tournament that opens today at Little Falls, and which continues through Friday, the Cass Lake team will meet the region four winners, St. Paul Washington at 9:00 p. m. Other state tourney first round games will find Eveleth playing Minneapolis Washburn at 2:00 p. m., Austin vs. Granite Falls at 4:00 p. m., and Wells meeting Moorhead of region six at 7:00 p. m. The semi-finals are scheduled for Thursday night, with the finals slated for Friday night.

In Thursday afternoon's regional championship finals at Bagley, Cass Lake, on a base on balls, an overthrow of first base on a pick-off play, and a wild pitch, scored a run in the 2nd inning. In the 4th inning, a walk, an outfield error, another walk, a force play, and a double by Wayne Brown, sent three runs across the plate, giving the Panthers a 4 to 0 lead.

The Prowlers moved back into the game in their half of the 4th when Joey Poole drew a walk, Jack Hoppe lofted a single into right field, and Larry Gilbertson poled a double into right-center, scoring Poole and Hoppe. Cal Vraa was given a walk, and when Darryl Durgin scratched a hit through shortstop, Gilbertson came in with the Prowlers' third run, and the locals had runners on first and second and none out. Aasland struck out, Hajostek struck out, Sid Vraa gained first base on a walk, loading the sacks. Bob Helgeland sent a ground ball to shortstop South, who made the toss to second to force Sid Vraa and retire the side.

Prowler Team Wins, 12, Loses Unlucky 13th Game



The Prowler baseball team, under the coaching of Ralph Skjod, concluded its 1953 season on Thursday afternoon when it was defeated by the Cass Lake Panthers, 7 to 3, in the finals of the eighth regional baseball tourney held at Bagley. During the season, the local club, winning the district title for the second successive year, compiled a record of twelve victories and one loss. Prospects for continued success next year are considered high, for the blue-and-gold will only lose Mike Hajostek, Larry Gilbertson, Cal Vraa, LeRoy Aasland, and Duane Rafteseth by graduation.

After that 4th inning splurge, Cass Lake's Gangelhoff held the Prowler batters pretty well in check, giving up four hits during the last three innings.

Cass Lake, on singles by Nick Schluter and Gangelhoff and an infield out, scored a run in the 5th inning; and added a pair of tallies in the 7th inning on a single by Schulten, walks to Gangelhoff and Dick Beringson, a double by Dan Chisholm, and an error.

In their first round game on Wednesday afternoon against Halstad, the Prowlers, in marked contrast to their sluggish game in the finals, played errorless ball to eliminate the defending state champions, winning by a 4 to 1 score.

The Prowlers' righthander, Duane Rafteseth, and the Pirates' southpaw, Marlyn Aanenson, were in a scoreless duel for two innings. In the 3rd frame, Hajostek opened with a double, advanced to third base on Sid Vraa's ground ball to shortstop, which was fumbled, and when the shortstop made a wide throw in attempting to pick Hajostek off third base, the Prowler lead-off man sped home with the game's first tally. In the 4th inning, a single by Hoppe, a double down the right field foul-line by Gilbertson, and another double down the left field foul-line by Cal Vraa, and a pair of infield out, added three runs to their total.
